

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

C. E. Bradford, a local drayman, purchased a new Ford truck through J. S. Booser, of Centre Hall.

February, the shortest month, but plenty long enough with its heavy demands upon the coal pile.

Another carload of Star cars—"fours" and "sixes"—were received by James I. Fetterolf, the local dealer last week.

Philby Shoemaker removed from Linden Hall to one of the Col. Bost farms formerly owned by the Thompsons and located in the barrens in the Waddle region, and by them named the Alto farm.

Tonight (Wednesday), "A Daughter of the Desert," is being presented by the Pleasant Gap Social Club in the Grange hall in this place. Your patronage will be most heartily appreciated.

Paul Fetterolf has accepted a sub-clerkship in the Centre Hall post office. His services will be called on during throng seasons, the present being one of them.

Messrs. Shannon Booser, R. M. Smith, H. L. Ebricht and Edward Durst attended the auto show in Harrisburg on Tuesday. The trip was made in the former's car.

Mrs. William McClintic and son and daughter, of Linden Hall, for a few days the past week were guests of Mrs. McClintic's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tressler, in Centre Hall.

A number of the members of the Ladies' Temple, K. G. E., of Centre Hall, on Tuesday evening attended a sister lodge at Spring Mills, and in the way of entertainment put on the play given here so successfully a short time ago.

John Slack is now located in Sunbury to where he moved from Milford. He is employed by the Pennys at Northumberland. His object in locating at Sunbury was to be better situated should he be transferred in the future to other points than Northumberland.

Miss Lena Breen, a Bell telephone operator at State College, was a guest of friends in Centre Hall last week. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Breen, formerly residents of near town, but now living in State College where Mr. Breen is employed under Superintendent of College farms Mr. Goodling.

FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE—During this month I will allow a discount of 20 per cent. on all cash purchases of furniture and rugs (except kitchen cabinets). A large clean stock of Furniture, Rugs and Linoleums to select from. No extra charge for delivery. Bell phone 3R11—S. M. CAMPBELL, Millheim, Pa.

J. F. Zechman, of Boalsburg, who for some years conducted undertaking in connection with dealing in furniture and later eliminated the undertaking feature, sold both his business and property to William Tennis, also of Boalsburg, who will continue in the same business. Mr. Zechman will again locate in Beaver Springs from which place he came to Boalsburg.

Mrs. Roy Searson, of Centre Hall, on Monday returned from a visit to her father, J. W. Tressler, at Linden Hall, and reported him very much improved. The latter part of last week Mr. Tressler suffered the affection of a nerve which for a time interfered with the full use of one of his arms and a leg.

H. E. Shreckengast, who has been spending considerable time fox hunting, came home last week from Zion where he had been fox chasing with his son, Earl Shreckengast. Mr. Shreckengast carried four pelts—three grey and one red. So far this winter he has assisted in killing eleven foxes on Nittany and nearby mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Zettle, now living with their daughter, Mrs. Fred G. Stover, on the Harper farm, east of town, will locate in Mifflin county next spring. They purchased a home along the State highway just beyond the Seven Mountains, in the settlement known as Mt. Pleasant. The house is new but not completely finished. Mr. Zettle is a carpenter and will likely finish the home himself. Mr. and Mrs. Zettle have two married daughters living in Mifflin county.

Clyde E. Dutrow and E. E. Zettle, both skilled carpenters, went to Florida a short time ago. The former returned home the latter part of last week, but Mr. Zettle remained, although he had not been able to obtain employment at the time last heard from him. It appears railroads were obliged to place embargoes on various classes of building material and this is holding up much construction work in the section of Florida in which they were.

Farmers herabouts have come to the conclusion that it is to their interest to have their cattle given the t. b. test, so that when they have bred up and fed up their herds the cows and offspring will be clean of disease. With this in view a half dozen farmers along the Brush Valley road secured a competent veterinary to test their herds, and found but few of the cattle to be diseased, the Reporter was informed by W. F. Fetterolf, one of the farmers in the group. Mr. Fetterolf like many other farmers, is making preparation to remodel his barn and give his cows better conditions than heretofore, and expects to be well repaid for the money invested.

MARRIED, DIVORCED, AND MARRIED AGAIN

Centre County Couple Sets Sail for Second Trip on Matrimonial Sea.

Boyd E. Smith and Miss Florence D. Bartges, both of Spring Mills, have again set sail on the matrimonial sea. This is their second trip. Their first venture was launched about five years ago, but the craft was somewhat wobbly and it was shipwrecked. On November 14, 1925, they were divorced in the Centre county courts. Although the sea was choppy-like and the sky above was oftentimes clouded, yet the captain of this ship was not able to get along without Florence as first-mate, and Saturday, Wilbur F. Corbin, register and recorder of Huntingdon county, and with the additional duties of issuing marriage licenses, granted these two people another license for the second venture. Mr. Corbin thinks that if he had issued the first permit there would have been no difficulty on the first cruise and he is sure that the sail this time is going to be what the newspapers usually say, "a happy and prosperous voyage over the sea of life."

ALBRIGHT COLLEGE DECREE IS HANDED DOWN

Final Opinion of County Court Grants Judgment of Ouster, Unseating Evangelical Contingent as Members of Board of Trustees.

Ruling that members of the board of trustees of Albright College, Mercersburg, are holding office illegally. Judge Henry, of Lebanon county court handed down a final decree in the dispute between the Evangelical and United Evangelical church organizations affirming the position he set forth in an opinion last October.

Judge Henry held that "all exceptions filed by the respondents (Evangelical church) are overruled and dismissed, and it is further decreed that judgment of ouster be entered against E. E. Stauffer, W. S. Harris, H. H. Garing, D. S. Kistler, George H. Lenninger, R. F. Crist, as trustees of Albright College." The court ordered this group to pay the cost of court proceedings. He ruled that Bishop W. F. Heil, G. W. Marquardt, J. W. Ritter, J. H. Hoffman, Charles T. Davis, and C. E. Crist should hold office as trustees of the college.

The decree reviews the controversy which started in 1917 and is expected to end the case in the local courts from which it is the understanding of both groups that it will be taken to the State Supreme Court for final disposition.

Contractor W. S. Williams dealt his Oakland car on a new Hudson. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are contemplating a trip to New York in the near future.

Wiping Out Pests.
Many predatory animals are caught in their dens by government hunters, who are experienced and sufficiently fearless to work their way through narrow, dark tunnels and attack wolves, coyotes or mountain lions at close quarters. They usually get the adult female and a number of pups. Out of 1,791 animals taken in Montana during 1922 by predatory animal hunters employed by the biological survey of the United States Department of Agriculture and the state fish and game commission, 348 were taken in dens, 909 were trapped, 144 shot, 191 poisoned and 1 snared. Dogs were employed in taking 138. Skins and scalps of all the animals secured were turned in to the district office of the bureau as evidence of capture. The number included 1,544 coyotes, 55 bobcats, 56 wolves, 38 lions, 17 bears and 81 miscellaneous animals.

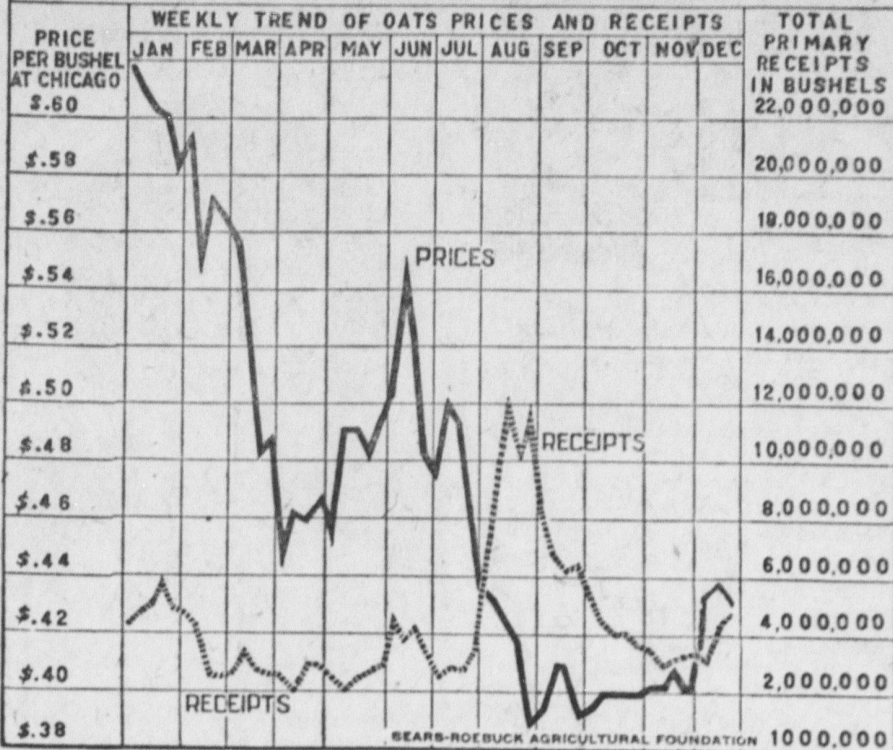

A Question of Antiquity.
As one of the tales of the great unwashed, it might be told that on one of the grimy windows of the Indiana statehouse is the following inscription: "Sherman marched to the sea yesterday." Inasmuch as the statehouse was built since the day after General Sherman ended his historic hike, it is believed that the inscription is the work of some wag and not that of a historian.—Indianapolis News.

HOW THE OATS MARKET ACTED IN 1925

EARLY in 1925, oat prices were so high, reports the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, that consumption was actually checked. Then the market began to decline and with large stocks coming on through commercial channels, reached a low level in April, went up again in June, fell to less than 40 cents in August and stayed at that low level. The 1925 crop was 1,501,000,000 bushels and the carry-over from 1924 was larger than usual. Total supplies of oats in all sections were only 20,000,000 bushels less than in 1924 when the crop of 1,522,005,000 bushels was harvested.

Prices started to go down in February and March, went up somewhat during June but came down again in August and have maintained a general low level. Oat prices are likely to advance toward spring as commercial stocks are reduced and the consuming sections of the country draw more extensively on the terminal markets.

Somebody Is Saving -

Did you know that last year the savings of the people of this country amounted to 6,958 million dollars! This is 334 million more than a year ago, and 500 million more than two years ago.

So SOMEBODY is saving, that's sure. Are YOU! That's the question. The huge advance in savings may be due to prohibition or many other causes, but it shows that our people are beginning to "salt down" more money than in really prosperous times. We invite you to open an account at our Bank and join the WISE crowd.
