

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Lola Ulrich is in Sunbury with an aunt, Mrs. Snyder.

Mrs. Cann, of Johnstown, visited her sister, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, in Centre Hall.

Miss Eva Godshall, now a senior at Penn State, was at her home here Saturday and Sunday.

Albert Smith, son of R. L. Smith, has found employment in the foundry and machine shops in Milton. He was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cloyd Brooks, on Monday evening, entertained forty of their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ebricht, in Centre Hall.

Aaron Thomas, a veteran carpenter here, has been seriously ill during the past week. He is suffering from erysipelas on his face and other ailments.

The first shipment of baby chicks from the Kerlin poultry plant went out on Tuesday afternoon. Last year the first shipment went out within a few days of the same date.

The two daughters of the late George W. Ginzler take this method of returning thanks to those who gave comfort and assistance during the last illness and later, at the death of their father.

Frank E. Palmer recently became the owner of one of the nicest homes about Potters Mills, when he acquired by purchase the home occupied by Joseph Confer, near the Potters Mills hotel. The property was remodeled some years ago by C. S. Thomas.

The Pleasant Gap dramatic club played "A Daughter of the Desert" to a very small audience, in Grange hall, last Wednesday evening. It was the night of the big snow and consequently little traveling was done and townspeople in the main remained indoors.

Mrs. R. P. Campbell of Penns Cave, the latter part of last week, returned from a few weeks' visit to her father, Rev. W. R. Picken, now living in St. Petersburg, Florida. While in that city Mrs. Campbell called on Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kerlin, formerly of Centre Hall, in their new home, and report them living in a delightful section.

It is common talk at Spring Mills that the silk mill at that place will be enlarged during the coming summer by the erection and equipment of plant that will be a duplicate of the mill now in operation. The information is gladly received. The present mill has given much employment to young people about Spring Mills and adjoining sections, and at very fair wages.

Since the heavy snowfall it has been discovered that various cabins on Nittany Mountain, along Fishing Creek, have been looted. A particular camp in which Bellefonte sportsmen are interested was entered and bed clothing and other equipment valued at several hundred dollars carried away. A reward of $100 has been offered for information that will lead to the discovery of the thief.

William F. Snyder will move from the Confer farm, in Georges Valley, to the Allison farm, near Potters Mills, long tenanted by the late W. W. McCormick. Samuel Rearick, who now lives on the latter place, will vacate it to tenant the Musser farm at Smithtown, west of Millheim, purchased by his father, David Rearick, of Georges Valley. G. C. St. Claire will move from the farm recently purchased by Harry F. Shirk, near Centre Hill, to the Allison farm near Spring Mills.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral of George W. Ginzler, on Friday, were the following: Mr. and Mrs. David Raymond, Sunbury; Mrs. Agnes Kerstetter, Port Carbon; Mr. and Mrs. William Ginzler, John Ginzler, Brownsville; Mr. and Mrs. Dorset Ginzler, McKeesport; Grant Ginzler and family, Clearfield; Jacob Confer and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sommer, Jerry Gill and family, Pleasant Gap; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. White, Mr. and Mrs. James Sommer, Axemann; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poorman, Bellefonte; Joel Royer, Mrs. Frank Clevestine, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Eby, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Shearer, of Zion.

Carl A. Auman, of Steubenville, Ohio, has been in Centre Hall for the past week, spending the time at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman. Mr. Auman informs the Reporter that he has sold his wholesale meat business and in the future will be in charge of the C. & A. Motor Repair and Garage, which he quite recently purchased. In an attempt to conduct both businesses, his health became impaired, and he is here to bring himself back to complete vigor. With but one business to give his attention henceforth he feels that going will be less strenuous. Mr. Auman is one of Centre Hall's young men who is meeting with success in competition with the keen wits of the larger cities. He likes nothing better, however, than to get back to Centre Hall, and the one best reason is that, well, those who have been observing need not be told.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

John F. Kramer has been confined to his home for some weeks owing to ill health.

Walter R. Hosterman attended the funeral of Mrs. A. C. Struble, at State College, on Tuesday.

J. H. Barger, tenant on the Woods farm near Spring Mills, was a caller at this office on Monday.

Mrs. Margaret Smith's condition which was very serious during the past few days has not improved.

A son, Charles William Swartz, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William B. Swartz, at State College, on January 29th.

T. E. Jodon will sell a carload of Ohio cows at the Mitterling barn in Centre Hall, to-morrow (Friday), beginning at one o'clock. See ad else where in this issue.

A Virginia fox hound was purchased by Roy McClintic, at Linden Hall, and was shipped there the latter part of last week. Mr. McClintic is a young trapper and hunter of some note.

Potatoes are now being retailed on the Williamsport curb market at from $2.15 to $3.00 per bushel. The variation in price is drawing unfavorable comment by the city papers there.

Of the 11,737 bills introduced in congress since its convening on December 7th, less than one-half dozen have passed. Even at that rate the body will do enough damage to make a record for itself before it adjourns.

Edward H. Laughner, of near Potters Mills, and daughter, Mrs. Elmer Noll, of Centre Hall, on Wednesday morning boarded the train west for a few days' visit at Jeanette. They will be guests of the former's brother, E. J. Laughner.

Mrs. D. J. Meyer will sell her personal property—household goods, etc.—at public sale at the Meyer home in Centre Hall, on Saturday, March 13, 12:30 o'clock. At the same time and place, W. H. Strohecker will dispose of some household goods.

William B. Swartz, salesman for Park R. Homan, State College, dealer in lumber, roofing and millwork, was in town on Monday. He reports prospects very bright for a big building program this spring. Mr. Swartz is a regular advertiser in the Reporter and anyone in need of anything in the building line should see him if it is quality material they are after.

Auto Hosts One-Sixth as Great as U. S. Population

Comparison of Automobile and Human Population

IT'S a far cry from the full skirts, wasp waists and leg o' mutton sleeves of twenty-five years ago, but we have traveled also a long way from the two-cylinder gas wagon of 1900 to the high-powered motors speeding over our highways today, declares the Stewart-Warner Safety Council.

A quarter of a century ago there was one automobile for every 9,500 people in the United States. Ten years ago there was one automobile for every 33 people, while today the motor population is one-sixth as large as the human population, or one car to every six people. This rapid growth has put the automobile as foremost among American industries, but it has also produced a fearful menace to the public, points out the Safety Council which has for its purpose the prevention of automobile accidents. A vigorous campaign of public education must be pushed if annual rate of automobile fatalities is to be reduced from 22,000.
