BOALSBURG.

Grant Charles, the National Biscuit man, and family, expect to spend the Easter season at Wilmington, Delaware, with the Zerby family. They will go by automobile.

Robert Wieland and family, of Mt. Union, stopped at the Lucas home for a short time Sunday on their way from Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Weaver, of State College, were over Sunday visitors with Mrs. Weaver's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Meyer.

The Reformed Sunday school children will render an Easter program in connection with the regular preaching service Sunday evening at 7:30.

The egg gathering in the Reformed Sunday school Sunday morning for the orphans at the Bethany Orphans Home, was a good one. Sixty dozen eggs were gathered and sent Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lohr, of Philadelphia, visited Mr. Lohr's sister, Miss Annie Lohr, at the Weber home last Saturday.

Movings are now on. Mr. and Mrs. Zechman move to Mrs. Zechman's mother's home in Snyder county; Wm. F. Tennis moves into the Zechman place and will operate the furniture store; Earl Phillips will move into Wm. Tennis' home; Lester Brouse moves into the Shaffer home.

The Zechman sale on Saturday was well attended and things sold at fair prices.

REBERSBURG.

Helen and Luella Gephart, daughters of S. L. Gephart, who have been employed at State College, spent Sunday under the parental roof.

Calvin Auman, whose wife died about a week ago, will in the very near future make sale of his live stock and farm implements and will hereafter make his home with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Diehl, in Pittsburgh.

Wesley Hackenberg and wife, who spent the winter in Florida, returned home.

Raymond Ziegler moved his family to Flemington this week. Mr. Ziegler has been employed as a carpenter in Lock Haven for the past three years.

Samuel Gephart and wife motored to Philadelphia and spent several days on special business.

John Heigh, one of our carpenters, is housed up on account of sickness.

There are still several farms in this vicinity without tenants. What does this mean? They surely are fertile farms and produce good crops.

The following changes have been made by some of our tenant farmers the past week: Floyd Bressler moved on the Agnew Lambert farm; the farm Bressler vacated will be without a tenant; Thomas Gilbert moved on the Jerry Gramley farm at Wolf's Store, and Jacob Styers moved on the Wm. Stover farm; George Day moved on the Joseph Cornar farm; Mr. Hines, of near Woodward, moved on the Stover farm near this place, and one of Harvey Hauck's sons moved on the Straham farm at the east end of this valley. All of these changes have been made east of town.

FARM CALENDAR

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College

When the Garden May Be Worked

To learn whether the garden soil is dried sufficiently to permit working, take a handful and squeeze it. If the earth sticks together and yet will crumble easily when handled, it is time to start stirring it in preparation for planting.

To Get a Smooth Lawn—Just after the frost leaves the ground the lawn needs light weight rolling. This will prevent the sod from cracking and detaching the tender grass roots from the nourishing soil, say landscape gardening specialists of the Pennsylvania State College. This early attention will produce a firm smooth summer lawn.

Are the Tools Ready?—Tools carefully overhauled prior to the beginning of field work will save many an hour when time is more valuable than while the ground is frozen. Plow points sharpened and in place, tractors ready to turn over promptly and run persistently, missing teeth replaced in the harrows all will assist in making the spring work go more smoothly. Harnesses, too, properly repaired, will aid.

It Saves Oat Crop.—One pint of 40 per cent. formaldehyde will treat 50 bushels of seed oats when it is diluted by an equal measure of water. Ask the county agent how to apply the treatment. Save the crop from smut.

Pastured Trees Die—Remember that grazing woodlands is the best way in the world to create a future timber shortage. Nature has never yet found a way to keep trees growing when stock ate the leaves off and trampled the seedlings into the ground.

Mrs. Burd's Hat Shop.

Mrs. Burd has returned from the city with all the smartest in hats, and trimmings of all kinds, this being one of the places maintaining a work-room. Also, a beautiful line of scarfs and silk stockings. No where will you find prices more reasonable.—The Hat Shop, Millheim, Pa.

Notice to the Trade.

We have on hand a car of cement. Also, the following implements set up in our ware-room for inspection: New Idea Manure Spreaders, John Deere Gang Plows, John Deere Tractor Plows, Syracuse Walking Plows, Oliver Walking Plows, Iron Age Potato Planters, Runner Harrows, Perry Harrows, Spike Harrows—an up-to-date line. More than just building materials

Almost any lumber dealer can supply you with the building materials you need for a specific job—so many feet of lumber—bundles of shingles—pounds of nails—or even the genuine Beaver Board.

That's really a small part of the job. When you buy your materials from us you receive our building advice that has been gathered from years of actual experience. That item doesn't show on your bill but it's a mighty important one—one that will mean a saving for you.

And we have tried to buy only the very best materials for our stocks. We are sure that you will appreciate our service as much as the speedy delivery of materials. You should at least consult us before you place an order for building materials.

WHAT THE CORN MARKET DID IN 1925

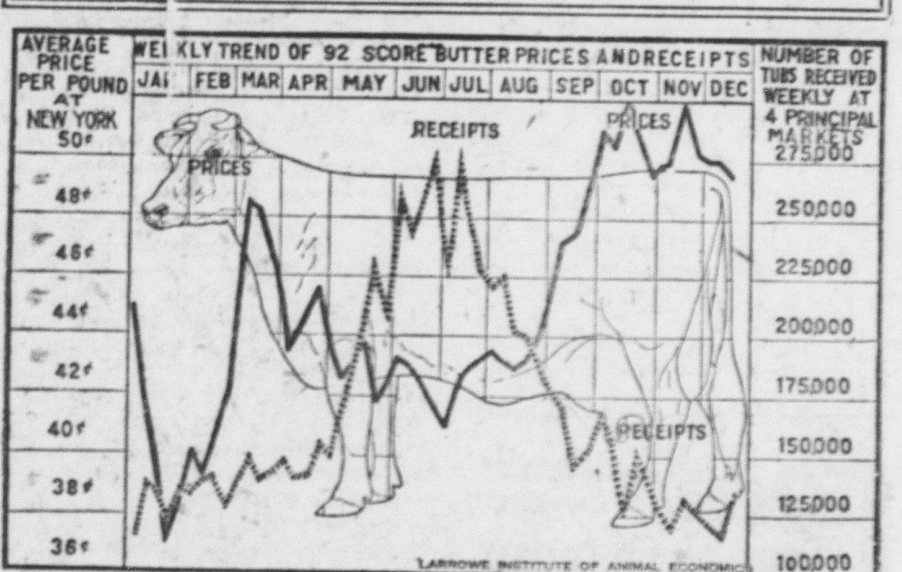

TWENTY per cent more corn was produced in 1925 than in 1924, according to the corn survey of the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation. An increased production of 587,836,000 bushels brings the 1925 figure to 2,961,581,000 bushels. This, plus the carry-over of 1924, makes the general marketable 1925 corn crop of 2,961,581,000 bushels—the largest in five years. While the corn crop was nearly a failure in the Southwest and the average yield was low in almost the entire cotton belt, the corn belt itself, in practically all sections north of the Ohio and Potomac rivers, produced an excellent crop of fine quality.

The large excess production, however, and the fact that there is fewer live stock on the farms and some curtailment in feeding operations, have made corn plentiful and low in price. Prices dropped steadily from the top price in January of $1.32 to 82 cents in November in Chicago. Receipts fluctuated violently with an up-turn grade beginning in October.

The United States is the corn nation of the world, producing 70 per cent of the entire crop. New uses for corn promise to increase consumption of this grain appreciably. Particularly significant is the manufacture of corn sugar, which is increasing in commercial importance.

Prosperous Dairy Year Shown by Butter Prices

THE 1925 butter market reveals a prosperous condition in the dairy industry, according to the year-end agricultural review of the Larrowe Institute of Animal Economics. Although butter production during the first nine months of the past year seems to have lagged behind the corresponding period in the year previous, it was larger during the last quarter of 1925 than in the corresponding period of 1924. Beginning with October, receipts were the largest on record at this season of the year. For the year as a whole they were about 3 per cent less than in 1924.

Prices averaged higher than in 1924. The average wholesale price of 92 score creamery butter on the New York market in 1925 was approximately 45 cents a pound compared with 43 cents the year previous. Highest 1925 prices were received in October and November when weekly averages reached 52 and 51.5 cents, respectively.
