

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Ralph Homan installed a milking machine of the Himman type.

Miss Beatrice Kramer, R. N., was summoned on a case in Northumberland, on Sunday.

Frank D. Lee purchased a new Dodge coupe from the local dealer, W. R. Hosterman, on Saturday, and is now seen behind the steering wheel.

After a stay of two months in Sunbury with Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Cornman, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Fisher returned to Centre Hall on Monday and opened their home.

The State highway between Aaronsburg and Woodward is in bad condition and will need considerable repairing to bring it into fit condition for reasonably good traveling.

Rev. J. A. Kilpatrick, assistant pastor of the Christ church in Philadelphia, has accepted a call to St. John's Episcopal church of Bellefonte. He expects to take charge on or about May 1st.

James I. Fetterolf calls your attention to a new Star advertisement in this issue. During the past week Mr. Fetterolf delivered a new Star sedan to Harry Warnitz, of Aaronsburg, and a new Star coupster to John Reazick, of Centre Hall.

Henry Mowery, of Aaronsburg, is reported to be very ill with dropsy and little hope is held for his recovery. Ralph Hinds, of Fledier, who suffered a second stroke of paralysis recently, is also very poorly, states the Millheim Journal in its issue of last week.

A new speaker for the radio is being introduced by the hardware firm of Hosterman, Stover & Co., Millheim. It is a Western Electric cone and produces wonderful results. The firm gave an exhibition of the speaker, Monday night, attached to a Cockaday L. C. 26 single control receiver, a five-tube set.

The brick plant, at Howard, purchased some time ago by the General Refractories Company, is being dismantled. Some of the machinery has been removed to the company's plant at Orviston. It was presumed by the people of Howard that the plant would be operated by the new owners instead of what is being done.

At the Berwick conference of Methodists it was decided to close the church at Millheim at the close of the conference year, which was the last Sunday in March. The edifice is the oldest of the churches in Millheim. A movement is now on foot by the Reformed church to purchase the building for their use.

Calvin Reitz, of Sunbury, one of the firm of Reitz Brothers who built the Nittany Mountain concrete pavement last year, was in town last week. He had placed several bids on road construction but had not been successful in securing a contract, but is hopeful, having bids in on a number of jobs that have not yet been let.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Elliot Smith and son Wendell, from the Pittsburgh district, spent the Easter period at their parental homes in Centre Hall. They drove from Pittsburgh in their new Oldsmobile, and Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Harry W. Dinges, accompanied them back as far as Juniata where she went to see her step-mother, who is critically ill.

W. R. Grazier is now in charge of the Millheim hotel, which he purchased some time ago from E. S. Ripka. Mr. Grazier came to Millheim from Tyrone, where he operated taxi cars. He is much pleased with Millheim and anticipates doing a considerable amount of business. He is a genial, accommodating gentleman, the character of a man suited for hotel management.

A mammoth edition of the St. Petersburg Times was forwarded The Centre Reporter by A. E. Kerlin, who with Mrs. Kerlin is enjoying the Florida climate. The edition is a Sunday issue of 126 pages and puts Florida in a class with New York and Pennsylvania with regard to its newspapers. It required 16 cents postage to carry the newspaper through the mails.

The Woman's Presbyterian Missionary Society of Huntingdon Presbytery held sessions Tuesday and Wednesday in Holidayburg. Those in attendance from here were Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick, Misses Helen Odenkirk, Mary Reiber and Grace Wible. The last three named represent the junior missionary workers and were taken to Holidayburg by Rev. Kirkpatrick by auto.

F. P. Michaels, whose operations here are not looked upon with favor, held in the Clinton county jail for some time awaiting trial on three charges of false pretense and fraudulent withholding in connection with stock transactions, furnished bail in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance at the April term of court for trial and was ordered released by Associate Judges C. H. Rich and Charles Dunn.

While seated in the main office of the Joslyn Manufacturing and Supply Company, in Chicago, Ralph C. Booser, a member of the firm, was talking to office men called in from various offices in States between the two sea coasts. During a period when business was suspended the subject of oddities of proper names in various sections became the topic of conversation. Harry Harter, in charge of the Philadelphia office of the Joslyn Company, mentioned a few names familiar to Mr. Booser, and when Mr. Harter was questioned where he became acquainted with them, Centre Hall was mentioned. A few brief exchanges revealed that Mr. Booser and Mr. Harter had both been born in Centre Hall and at about the same time. Mr. Harter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Harter, now living in Harrisburg. He is one of the most efficient men in his line employed by the company, according to a statement of Mr. Booser. Mr. Booser, Mrs. Booser and their three interesting children, left for their home in Chicago, Monday, after having been at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Booser, in Centre Hall, for a few days.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Martha, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Spyer, is seriously ill.

Mrs. Clarence Heim and children, of Harrisburg, were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Colyer.

A new Dodge truck was delivered a few days ago by W. R. Hosterman to Robert Bierly, of Rebersburg.

POTATOES WANTED—$2.40 is offered for potatoes at Centre Hall station. For further particulars telephone, Bell 2312.—W. F. COLYER.

George Reiber, who recently entered employment in the Homan Garage, is giving most of his time to bookkeeping.

Mrs. Maggie Kreamer, at the Bartholomew home, is ill. Miss Martha Hoover, of Bellefonte, is the nurse in charge.

Charles L. Cupples and wife moved from Lewistown to Centre Hall, on Tuesday, and later will take over the Benner store.

Mrs. C. N. Hockman attended the funeral of her brother, Rev. Earl Zimmerman, a Methodist minister, in New Jersey, on Monday.

William Slek, who is employed in a shoe store in Youngstown, Ohio, is spending a few days at the home of his parents in Centre Hall.

On Monday night a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hartley. The proud father of No. 5 is employed on the L. & T. as a section hand.

Three hundred ring-neck pheasants were distributed in Millheim county within the recent past. Every township in the county received its equal share of the birds.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Whippe and baby, of Bellefonte, came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bland, in Centre Hall, on Saturday, and remained over Easter.

S. Peter Hockman, who is making his home with his daughter, Mrs. B. Gardner Grove, in Centre Hall, had been seriously ill, but is now very much better.

I have a new lot of spring and summer dress goods; also, curtains, curtain material and draperies. Upon request I will call at your home with samples.—Mrs. Samuel Shoop, Centre Hall, 2t

Miss Margaret Fleisher, of Philadelphia, was a guest of Miss Margaret Jacobs, the latter part of last week. She also spent a day on her farm, near Tusseyville, tenanted by Robert Mecker.

Rev. W. R. Picken came up from St. Petersburg, Florida, on Saturday, and will remain with his daughter, Mrs. R. P. Campbell, at Penna Cave, until later, when he will open his home in Centre Hall.

A convention of the Sunday schools in the Twelfth district comprising Penn. Haines and Miles townships and Millheim borough, will be held in St. Paul's church, below Aaronsburg, on Thursday, May 6th.

A number of tools and moving equipment belonging to the late Aaron Thomas are in the hands of various parties in this section. Such parties are requested to return them to the premises before Saturday, April 24th, the day of sale. adv.

Prof. and Mrs. James A. Keller and son of Lancaster, were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Keller, over the Easter season. Prof. Keller is an instructor in mathematics and geography in a Lancaster High school.

Jacob K. Geiss, of Beloit, Kansas, writes the Reporter making a remittance for subscription that "although I have been away from Penna Valley since 1866, I look forward with pleasure to the Reporter's weekly arrival."

A reception was tendered Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Fred Griesing recently in the Aaronsburg Reformed church by the congregations of St. Paul's and Aaronsburg appointments. An excellent program was arranged and rendered, after which refreshments were served, and Rev. and Mrs. Griesing formally welcomed in the community. Practically all of the parishioners of both appointments were present, as well as Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, of the Lutheran church, and Rev. Kleff, of the Evangelical church.

Harold H. Keller, senior at Franklin and Marshall; Miss Ellen Burkholder, asophomore, Miss Agnes Geary, a freshman, and Alfred Crawford, a senior at Penn State; Miss Charlotte Keller, a freshman at Hood; Frederic Moore, Dickinson College; Rossman Wert, a student in a business college in Harrisburg; Miss Mildred Bitts, who is about finishing a course in Williamsport; Curtis Reiber, a Penn State freshman, and Miss Eva Bailey, also a Penn State student, were at their respective homes in or near Centre Hall during the Easter vacation period observed by institutions of learning.

Mrs. Margaret Gunsallus, who is living with her daughter, Mrs. John Delaney, east of town, has recovered from an illness as has also Mr. Delaney who had been down with flu. Last Sunday a number of relatives visited the Delaney home, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher and two daughters of Snyderstown; Richard, Paul, Esther and Eva Gunsallus, of Nittany; Foster Gunsallus, Mr. and Mrs. Allord Burns and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cessna, of Lock Haven; Milton Gunsallus, of Flemington; Mr. and Mrs. William Gunsallus, of Mill Hall; Mrs. Joseph Bechdol, of Beech Creek; Mrs. Edna Gray and two sons, of State College; Miss Dorothy Gunsallus, of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gunsallus, of Avis.

Fresh Shad. I will have a shipment of fresh shad by the latter part of this week. Place your order at once to assure your getting one.—Wilbur Bland.

NIEMAN'S DEPARTMENT STORE -- MILLHEIM

Springtime--and Its Glorious Fashions

Wont you come and see the most charming fashions we have ever assembled?

OUR COATS

are presented in a great variety of new and charming styles: the cape-back, the flare, or the straight line; with or without collar of fur; embroidered, braid trimmed, or severely plain. But all of them embodying individuality, distinction, and exclusiveness, at exceptionally moderate prices.

ALSO a wonderful showing of--

New Daytime Dresses

that are exquisite and also moderate in price.

D. J. NIEMAN = Millheim

We have added a new line of

LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S HATS

which are right in style and more than right in price. Our prices in millinery are lower than elsewhere and it will pay you to look them over.

Our Men's & Boys' CLOTHING

are right in price and in the correct mode. We feature Style Plus Clothes for men and young men. You will find style at its best--in the correct models, the new colorings, the smart fabrics--at a Style Plus Store. Style Plus Clothes are style plus and sold at strictly popular prices.

Shoes to Match Your Outfit

With each new outfit we have a beautiful pair of shoes to go with it. Now is the time to select them and have a quantity to choose from.

MAKE YOUR VISIT TO THIS STORE NOW AND HAVE YOUR OUTFIT EARLY.

Transfers of Real Estate.

Harry H. Ross, et ux, to Emma C. Bathgate, tract in State College; $500.
Emma C. Bathgate, to Eva B. Roan, tract in State College; $500.
J. D. Keller, et ux, to L. F. Wooster, tract in State College; $1.
Carl S. Weaver, et ux, to Jennie F. Spangler, tract in State College; $7,000.
Carl S. Weaver, et al, to Arthur L. Bradley, tract in State College; $18,000.
F. Brest, et ux, to John H. Breen, tract in Millheim; $1,500.
John D. Miller, et ux, to B. W. Heckman, tract in Walker twp.; $800.
Ella S. Heckman, et al, to Boyd Heckman, tract in Walker twp.; $1.
Clair W. Robinson, et ux, to Arthur P. Honess, tract in State College; $25.
Lon Bell Hynes, et bar, to John F. Zechman, tract in Harris twp.; $1,100.
E. J. Williams, trustee to the Peoples National Bank, tract in State College; $1.
John M. Carver, to Jacob H. Weaver, et ux, tract in Walker twp.; $1,800.
Edna J. Meyer, to William H. Strohecker, tract in Centre Hall; $5,750.
D. M. Kline, et ux, to William J. Armer, tract in Spring twp.; $1500.
J. W. O. Houseman, to Bertha Houser et bar, tract in Millheim; $2,500.
David Houser, to Charles Houser, tract in College twp.; $225.

George McCurdy to William E. Watkins, tract in College twp.; $200.
William E. Watkins, et ux, to Peter W. Knepp, tract in College twp.; $250.

PUBLIC SALE.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24th, at 2:00 P. M. on the premises, at home of Elmer Runkle, in Centre Hall, D. K. Keller, executor of estate of Aaron Thomas, will sell carpenter tools, lot of bees, etc.; also, will offer five building lots situate on Hoffer street--E. M. Smith, auct.

Official Statement of THE CENTRE REPORTER

Apr. 1, 1926.
Title of Publication--The Centre Reporter
Place of Publication--Centre Hall, Pa.
Names of Editors--S. W. Smith, Edw. E. Bailey
Names of Publishers--S. W. Smith
Signed,
S. W. SMITH
EDW. E. BAILEY.
Sworn before me this 1st day of Apr. 1926.
D. A. BOOZER,
Notary Public

WEEK-END PROGRAM OF PHOTO-PLAYS AT-- Scenic & Moose Theatre BELLEFONTE

AT THE SCENIC. FRIDAY, APRIL 9.

"DON'T"--with Sallie O'Neil, John Patrick and Bert Bosch. She fled from a home where every second word was "Don't." Down the speedway of adventure she flashed like a young tornado. She met thrills, romance, excitement and then--but you must see this hilarious life. Fun is what it has nothing else but. It's a story of a flapper's rebellion against parental authority. Also, 4th Chapter of the serial, "CASEY OF THE COAST GUARD."

AT MOOSE TEMPLE THEATRE FRIDAY & SATUR., APRIL 9 & 10 "THE YANKEE SENIOR"--with TOM MIX. A technicolor western, starring the famous cowboy ace in one of the most appealing stories ever released. You sure will like this one. Also, Comedy.

You've tried the rest--now use the Best--

PHILCO BATTERIES, built to last; service guaranteed. Also, all makes of batteries repaired and charged.--Clyde A. Smith, Centre Hall.

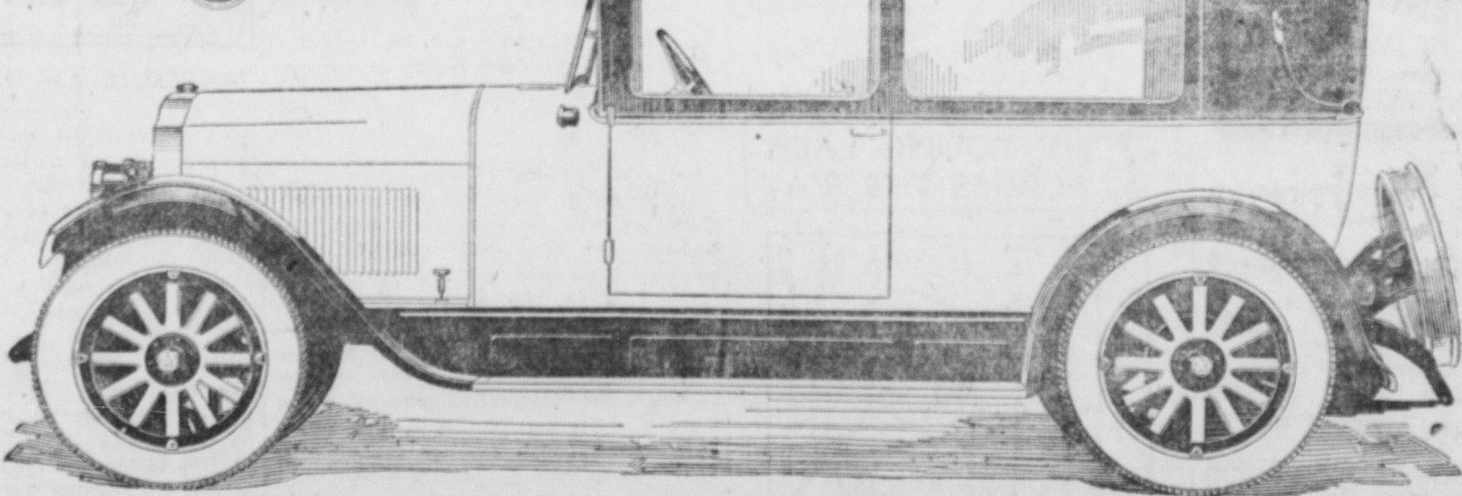

FOR SALE--A 1 1/2 horse-power water motor, in good condition, is offered or sale. Motor was in use in Reporter office until electric motor was installed. Apply at this office.

FOR OVER 40 YEARS

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE has been used successfully in the treatment of Catarrh.
HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which quickly relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces, thus reducing the inflammation. Sold by all druggists.
F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

SALESMAN WANTED--Prefer man with auto acquainted in Centre and adjoining counties. Opportunity for hard worker to establish business paying $200 and upward per month. Station Oil Co., Station E., Cleveland, O.

Low-cost Transportation Star Cars

NEW STAR SIX COACH, $880 F. O. B. Lansing, Michigan

Learn the TRUTH First

Do not decide to buy any automobile merely from advertised claims as to power, equipment, economy, comfort or roominess.

TRY BEFORE YOU BUY! Learn by demonstration which car has the most power, flexibility, quietness and ease of handling.

Learn by sitting in it which has the most room, best ventilation, most complete appointments and equipment.

Observe with your own eyes which has the most artistic lines and color, and the best built bodies.

Learn from owners which car costs least to operate and maintain.

We can afford to urge such careful buying, because people who buy that way buy STARS.

IMPROVED STAR FOUR		NEW STAR SIX
ROADSTER, $525;	COUPSTER, $610	CHASSIS, $620;	COUPE, $820
TOURING, $525;	COACH, $695	TOURING, $695;	COACH, $880
	SEDAN, $795	COUPSTER, $745;	Landau Sedan, $975

Prices f. o. b. Lansing.

FETTEROLF'S GARAGE Centre Hall

ASSOCIATE DEALER--FRANK P. PHILLIPS, POTTERS MILLS, PA.