THURSDAY, APRIL 22 1926.

REBERSBURG.
On Saturday, Bruce Weber came from his home in Nittany to Smullton to visit his parents and on the following Monday morning he was stricken with sickness. Day after day his condition became worse until Saturday morning when death ensued. On Tuesday afternoon he was buried at this place in the Lutheran and Reformed cemetery.
Mr. Weber was born and reared in this valley and after growing to manhood followed farming until a year ago when he made sale and moved to Nittany. Mr. Weber was twice married; to his first wife there were born four sons and two daughters. To his second wife three sons, all living, were born. Mr. Weber is also survived by his second wife and his parents, and four brothers and two sisters—Lee and Clyde, of Rebersburg, and Ray, of Huston; Earl, of Smullton; Mrs. John Wert, of Smullton, and Mrs. Russell Beckenbaugh, of Mill Hall.
Griffith Garret is confined to his bed with sickness.
Mr. Hagun, the Bellefonte auto dealer, was a business caller in town.
Howard Krape is hopping around on a crutch as the result of a sprained ankle.
Lela Fehl, an adopted daughter of Fred Fehl, is at present visiting relatives at Woolrich.
Samuel Winters, who was called to this place to attend the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jasper Gramley, left on Monday for his home at Warsaw, Indiana.
Harry Bair of Altoona, and Mrs. Abner Wolf, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Ira Gramley, of Kaneville, Ill., left on Saturday for their respective homes.
Wm. Stover, of Millheim, who represents the Sugar Valley Fire Insurance Co., transacted business in town on Friday.
At the Wm. Bair sale held on last Thursday, Calvin Breon, of near Coburn, bought the home and 20 acres of land adjoining for $3175.
McClellan Wert, who owns and tills a farm five miles east of this place, has made preparations to cultivate the Cyrus Brungart farm in connection with his own farm. The Brungart farm adjoins Mr. Wert's and was vacated by Calvin Auman, who was compelled to quit the farm on account of the death of his wife. Mr. Auman and his grandson will assist Mr. Wert in tilling the two farms.

Times Have Changed
Sulphur matches, tallow dips, kerosene lamps—then electric lights. On foot, on horse-back, the buggy, the auto—then the airplane.
Need we go further! Conversation, the letter, the telephone—then the radio. There is no end to the instances showing that times change. And in money matters! Wampum, conshinus, currency, then modern banking. Some people who are up to date in other lines, still secrete their money and fail to take advantage of modern banking facilities. We offer you every accommodation.
