LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Ferna Hoover returned to Altoona on Tuesday after spending some time with the Runkle family at the Centre Hall hotel.

L. R. Lingle is gradually gaining strength and is beginning to sit up on a chair. It is nine weeks since he was first confined to bed.

Mrs. Sallie Rubie visited her daughter, Miss Catharine Rubie, R. N., and other friends in Altoona, returning home on Monday.

The grain fields are beginning to take on a more prosperous appearance. In some instances the change may be due to the growth of grass plants instead of wheat plants.

A hunting lodge is being erected to the north of the Underwood road, at a point a short distance west of Sunset club house, by Bellefonte parties, one of whom is James Caldwell.

Three steel row boats, each having two airtight compartments, were recently received by R. P. Campbell and put on the three-acre lake constructed within the past year at Penn's Cave.

Mrs. James B. Lingle and two children, of Chadds Ford Junction, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lingle, in Centre Hall. On Saturday Mr. Lingle is expected here to visit his parents.

We are learning a few things about Florida real estate deals without having been on the grounds. It is a safe bet yet that there is land aplenty for all who want to deal with sharks next season.

Mrs. Raymond J. Miller and children came to Centre Hall from Camden, New Jersey, Monday evening. She and Prof. Miller, who is on the faculty at Penn State, will begin housekeeping in the Bartzes property here, recently vacated by W. H. Strohacker. They purpose remaining here until they are able to secure a house at State College, which they think will be about the first of June.

A certificate has been issued by the Public Service Commission permitting S. W. Smith to operate motor vehicles as a common carrier for the transportation of persons, on call and demand, the service usually referred to as taxi. Without such a certificate no one has a right to carry any passenger for pay, and it is a mistaken idea that a two-passenger car does not come under the law in regard to carrying passengers.

Those from out of town at Mrs. Margaret Kreamer's funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew, Altoona; Mrs. H. J. Kittleberger, Curwensville; Miss Orpha Gramley, Spring Mills; Mrs. W. A. Sandoe, Crafton Sta., Pittsburg; Mrs. Mollie S. Gregg, State College; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Heckman, Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Kreamer and daughter, Miss Rebecca, Lewisburg; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meyer, Riceville; Mrs. Grace Lukenbach McCoy, Lewisburg; Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Bishop, Pleasant Gap; Rev. G. W. McInay, Centralia.

Among those who attended the funeral of Joseph P. Lutz, last week were: Mrs. Mary Dunkel, Bellefonte; Frank Lutz and son Nevin, Zion; Mr. and Mrs. John Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. Leech, Lewisburg; Mr. and Mrs. John Potter, Hubersburg; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Corman, Bellefonte; Miss Annie Lohr, Boalsburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lohr, Rutledge; Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Lohr, Clarence; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, and Mrs. Lillie Massey, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crabb, Mrs. Ida Getz, Lewisburg; Mr. and Mrs. George Shannon, Mrs. Ethel McWilliams, Watson; Mrs. H. E. Weaver and daughter Alverta, Altoona.

DEATHS.

SHAFER—Paul D. Shaffer died Sunday morning of the passenger train approaching Bellefonte from Lock Haven, as a result of heart attack. He was aged 48 years, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shaffer. The mother and three children survive; also two brothers—H. L., superintendent of the lime quarries at Milroy, and Herbert, of Jersey Shore.

Mr. Shaffer was a retail grocer in Bellefonte at one time and later a hardware salesman for a Bellefonte firm. Since beginning of the year he held a similar position for a Philadelphia firm.

SLACK—The remains of Mrs. Catherine S. Slack, mother of Judge Chas. W. Slack, of San Francisco, arrived in Santa Cruz and were interred in Odd Fellows cemetery, while solemn services were read by Rev. Warren D. More, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. Slack, whose death occurred on April 14, was approaching her 101st birthday, having been born in Millifield county, a short distance west of Milroy, on July 9, 1825.

She was the widow of Uriah Slack, a native of Potter township and brother of the late John A. Slack, and with her husband resided over a score of years ago in Santa Cruz, the family residence being at that time on Ocean View avenue. She is survived by one only son, Judge Charles W. Slack, prominent member of the San Francisco bar, who was in attendance at the graveside services.

Porter and Wilson.
 Judge Porter, Democratic candidate for Governor, and Hon. W. B. Wilson, Democratic candidate for United States Senator, made brief addresses in the court house on Tuesday evening, giving Centre county Democrats an opportunity to see and hear them. Their addresses were on a high plane, devoid of all manner of "bull." Both the gentlemen made a splendid impression and were warmly greeted.

Former Judge Orvis called the body to order and after referring to the candidates in a highly complimentary way J. K. Johnston, Esq., was named chairman and introduced the speakers.

Mutt and Jeff at The Richelieu.
 A gay and entirely different attraction will be the forthcoming attraction at the Richelieu Theatre Friday of this week, in which Mutt and Jeff, the famous Bud Fisher cartoon creations will appear in flesh. This unusual pair require little introduction to local theatre-goers. They are known the world over and anything they might say or do is always worthy of mention. In the new play little Jeff will have the role of dyed-in-the-wool bachelor who succeeded in starting a domestic upheaval in Mutt's household by proving that the life of a bachelor is the only thing conducive to genuine happiness. Mutt seems to agree. At any rate he wanders from his fireside with the result that each becomes the central figure in a number of complications, all sidesplitting, rollicking and infectious fun. If you can conceive of Mutt and Jeff in the guise of golf players, radio fans, race track habitués and other roles, an excellent idea of the mirth involved may be expected. In this particular offering, which entails a large beauty chorus and other exceptional features, the outstanding lure will be a number of surprises, scenic effects and catchy and lingering music by Leo Edwards. It is described as a typical and worthwhile laughing show and one calculated to send the ghost of Mr. Gloom and his relatives to the tall timbers.

PINE GROVE MILLS
 We have a June bride on the slate.

The much needed rain came Saturday, reviving vegetation.

Charles Leuck is breaking ground for a new house on West Main street. Marshall Heffner is breaking ground for a new dwelling.

Most of the Ferguson township schools closed last week.

Health officer Wm. Gardner is posting quarantine notices, mostly for measles.

Eugene Snyder is off duty on account of a nail having penetrated his foot.

The Early Bird, a 3-act drama by the Petersburg H. S., will be given on May 1st in the I. O. O. F. hall.

Mrs. Margaret Quinn was called to Lewisburg Monday on account of sickness in the Roy Gates family.

Dr. Stork made his fourth visit to the Charles H. Myers home at Fairbrook, leaving a baby boy.

Rev. F. B. Travis, pastor of the M. E. charge the past year, departed Friday for his new charge at Martinsburg.

Dr. Stork made his first visit to the Albert Carper home on Saturday morning, leaving a little daughter.

Miss Edith Sankey, who spent the past month with her cousin, Miss Viola Smith, left for Centre Hall on Saturday.

Among the sick are Mrs. Sarah Neidich and Charles Gates. Both are better and the nurses have been discharged.

Rev. Harry D. Fleming, after a pastorate of 3 years of the Graysville Presbyterian church, tendered his resignation to take effect May 1st. He has accepted a call to Lancaster.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick has been chosen a delegate to the convention of White Shriners to be held in Louisville, Kentucky, an honor conferred on but a few.

The ladies of the community served two suppers (Friday and Saturday) in the Odd Fellows hall, the proceeds being for the improvement of the cemetery plot lying between the two churches in town. $462.35 was realized by their untiring efforts.

Charles L. Rudy and Miss Vida Neidich motored to Boalsburg Tuesday, halting at the Reformed parsonage, where Rev. Moyer in his usual happy mood made two hearts beat as one. They were unattended and returned home where a sumptuous wedding supper awaited them. The bride is a daughter of J. D. Neidich and well fitted to assume the duties of a housewife. The groom is a son of George Rudy and is a hustling young farmer.

FARM CALENDAR.

Use Hotbeds Again—Hotbeds may be used for the growing of melon and cucumber plants in paper bands or pots after the tomatoes have been removed, say vegetable gardening specialists of the Pennsylvania State College. Such crops also may be planted directly in the hotbed, a hill to each sash, and allowed to mature there.

Avoid Early Maturing—Do not turn the cows out to pasture too early. The first grass is watery and contains little feeding value. Pastures are injured by the tramping of the cattle when the ground is soft. Better wait until the grass is well started before opening the pasture gate.

Must Show Results—Purebred sires should be judged by their progeny rather than by their ancestors.

Neglect Demands Toll—At this time of the year many little things which might have been done last fall show up. Bees not properly protected from winter's stormy blasts are dead. Hail bits and mice took advantage of the fruit trees left exposed to their attacks. Some of the farm machinery is badly rusted and hard to start because it stood in a big shed with the sky for a roof. Maybe the seed corn does not want to grow. Perhaps it will not happen another year.

Sweeten Sour Soils—It is estimated that 90 per cent of the farm land in Pennsylvania needs lime. Poor and unproductive land is almost invariably sour and most good soils would be better with more lime.

COURT PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Honorable Harry Keller, President Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the 49th Judicial District, consisting of the County of Centre, having issued his process, bearing date of the sixth day of April, 1926, to me directed, for holding a Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court, Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, in Bellefonte, for the County of Centre and to commence on the THIRD MONDAY OF MAY, 1926 being the 17th day of May, A. D. 1926, and to continue two weeks,

NOTICE is hereby given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen and also such Constables, (that may have business in the respective districts, requiring to report to the Honorable Court) that they be then and there in their proper persons at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of the 17th day of May for the first week, with their records, inquiries and their own remembrances to do those things to their offices appertaining to be done, and those who are bound in recognizances, to prosecute against the prisoners that are or shall be in the jail of Centre county, be then and there to prosecute against them as shall be just.

Given under my hand, at Bellefonte, the 14th day of April in the year of our Lord 1926, and the one hundred and fiftieth year of the Independence of the United States of America.
