Mention Chautauqua to your neighbor.
A sermon will be preached to the Odd Fellows in the Methodist church, Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30 by Rev. C. E. Hazen.

Frank Phillips, of Pottery Mills, sold a new Star touring car to Isaac Wagner, of Lewistown and an Overland touring car to Ralph Lingle, of Spring Mills.

The Ladies Temple, K. G. E., held a bake sale Thursday evening and rendered a playlet. The ladies were successful in selling all of the food offered, and entertained their customers.

The condition of William Grifer, who has been in the Centre County hospital for two weeks or more, is said to be improving by his friends. He is suffering from a nervous breakdown.

Twenty-five or more members of the Boalsburg lodge of Odd Fellows have planned to visit the Centre Hall lodge on Saturday evening. Refreshments will be served at the close of the session.

John H. Winegardner died at the Winegardner home, near Milroy, aged forty years. He was a brother of W. R. Winegardner, of Milroy, who with Mrs. Winegardner frequently visit the latter's brother, F. V. Goodhart, in this place.

Kryder Miller, who is now engaged in the insurance business in Lancaster, was at his home in south Potter township over Memorial Day. He was accompanied by his sweetheart, Miss Bertha Kooztz, also of Lancaster.

Fred Bender, the Rawleigh product salesman, reports having a good season of trade. He has improved his home bought last spring in various ways, and by fall will install either a hot water or vapor heating plant.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Searson over Memorial Day were Miss Anna Fogleman, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Margaret Fogleman, a student in the Greig Township Vocational School, sophomore class.

Mrs. George Reed and two little sons, Bobbie and Donald, of Pine Grove Mills, were at the home of Mrs. Reed's sister, Mrs. Roy Searson, on Memorial Day. Mr. Reed is a carpenter and was too busy to accompany the family on this trip.

A two hundred pound male bear, trapped in Potter county, was shipped to Philadelphia and released in the game refuge in Rush township. Efforts are being made to trap additional bears with the view of liberating them at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Bible, of Pottstown, accompanied by the daughter, Mrs. R. H. Leonard, were in Centre Hall Sunday and Monday, and from here drove to Bellefonte, Lock Haven and other points before finishing out their brief vacation over Memorial Day.

J. Walter Rishel, who lives on the Rishel homestead near Bellefonte, is now in Allegheny General Hospital, Pittsburgh, where he is being treated for liver trouble. He had been in the Centre County Hospital for several weeks prior to going to the Pittsburgh institution.

Claud K. Stahl, a Pennsylvania Railroad office employee, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia, was here to visit his mother, Mrs. James S. Stahl, over Sunday. He visited the Sengul grounds a week prior to coming here, and reports the work progressing in a marvelous way.

Reuben Garis drove to Centre Hall on Saturday from the Pittsburgh district in company with Miss Della Gibson. Mr. Garis who was long located at Greensburg, is now at Finleyville, fifteen miles south of Pittsburgh. Miss Gibson is the bookkeeper in the store of which Mr. Garis is manager.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Bauer, of Wilkensburg; Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Schmidt, of Pittsburgh, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bauer, of Wilkensburg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Bradford over Sunday. They were accompanied, of course, by baby Bauer, and Margaret Bradford, the latter now staying with her sister.

Clyde E. Dutrow is having his dwelling house repainted by Clement T. Kuhn, of Blanchard, and Paul Gieger of Boalsburg. The Dutrow house was erected by Dr. G. W. Hosterman, and is built of brown stone from Nittany Mountain. It is the most pretentious residence in Centre Hall and is being kept in the best repair by its present owner.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Scholl motored to Centre Hall, on Friday, having come to decorate the graves of relatives buried in the Farmers Mills and Tusseyville cemeteries. Mr. Scholl is superintendent of the Penn. Central Electric company in Altoona. He is a native of this section, and enjoys nothing better than to get away for a day to visit the old-home scenes.

Richard Detwiler, a Miles township High school lad who has done more than his share in years past to put his school on the sports map, out-classed all runners at the Centre County track and field meet at State College. He was a Class B entrant, with the time for a one-mile run of 4 minutes, 47 seconds. The best run made by Class A entrants was 5 minutes, 25 seconds.

Bellefonte and Williamsport R. R. shop baseball teams staged a battle royal on the Bellefonte field on Memorial Day, resulting in a 5-5 victory for Bellefonte in the eleventh inning. The score was tied at 2-2 by Bellefonte in the ninth; in the tenth, Williamsport hammered out hits sufficient to score three runs, but Bellefonte came back in their half of the same inning and tied the score, finally putting over the winning run in the 11th when Newton Crawford hit for two bases and scored a minute later on "Peely" Musser's single.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Have you bought Chautauqua tickets for the family?

Speed posts are being erected and as a consequence the council is receiving its earned blessings from property owners.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Fair and son, of Reading, were guests of Mrs. Fair's sister-in-law, Mrs. John P. Kramer, over Sunday.

Members of the graduating class of the local High school are planning to go to Washington, D. C., next week, for a thorough tour of the National Capital.

Rev. B. F. Bieber, Mrs. Bieber and daughter, Miss Frances, of Muncy, were guests here of friends on the evening of Memorial Day. Rev. Bieber was the orator at Memorial services at Spring Mills.

Chautauqua begins Friday of next week, for 3 days and nights. It is a season of recreation and education, and every good citizen should support it. Buy your tickets now at any business place in town.

Miss Mary Hess, of Hughesville, is in town and is making up coverings for the altar, pulpit and lectern in the Lutheran church. Miss Hess is engaged almost exclusively in this class of work.

Miss Mildred Bitts, who holds a position as stenographer in the Bell Telephone offices in Williamsport, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Funk, for several days. The Funks also recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ames and daughter, of Pittsburgh.

Miss Anna Osler, assistant principal of the local schools here last year, was a guest of her former pupils here over commencement. Miss Osler is teaching in her home town, New Cumberland, and is meeting with the same great success in the school room as she did here.

Mrs. Anna Zeeber, of Bellevue, Ohio, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Smith. Many years ago Mrs. Zeeber's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kopp, lived on the farm at Centre Hill now owned by James C. Goodhart, from which place they were moved to Northern Ohio, which then was the "far west."

The Penn nursery, at the State House, in Seven Mountains, cared for by William McKinney, has been furnishing trees in considerable quantities for school grounds, the trees now on the local High school grounds having come from there. The nursery named furnished red pine, Norway spruce, European larch, and sugar maple trees.

Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Grayson, Miss Nancy Grayson, of Shippensburg; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Heisler, daughter Ella and son Philip, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Peters, all of Dallastown, were guests over the week-end at the Lutheran parsonage. Also, Mr. and Mrs. John Heiney, of Lewisburg, and Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Moon, of West Milton, were guests at the parsonage over Memorial Day.

Miss Margaret Fearon, a Radcliffe Chautauqua representative, was in town for a day or two last week in the interest of her employers. One of her missions was to ascertain whether the Chautauqua was being properly and efficiently advertised, suitable grounds obtained, and numerous other previous arrangements made incident to the holding of the Chautauqua.
