

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

A Children's Day service will be held in the Tusseyville church on Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Orvis Horner, who is a grower of strawberries on a large scale for this section, reports the berries now ripe.

F. M. Fisher is having his residence repainted on the exterior. The work is being done by John M. Coldron and assistants.

A son, twelve pounds big, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gross, in Centre Hall, early Thursday morning of last week.

The Sprucetown M. E. church will hold a festival on the factory lawn at Potters Mills, Saturday evening, July 3rd. Everybody is invited.

Dean W. J. Lhamon, one of the Chautauqua lecturers, filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian and Lutheran churches on Sunday.

The festival announced to be held by the Spring Mills band for June 26th, has been postponed to July 10th. Further notice will appear at a later date.

Rev. R. B. Wolf, of Kansas, came east to attend the Shriner's gathering at Philadelphia, and stopped off at Centre Hall, on Saturday, on his return home.

F. M. Fisher has about completed a garage large enough to accommodate two cars. The garage is immediately to the rear of his dwelling house and will be heated.

Miss Flora Love is a guest of Miss Grace Smith in Centre Hall. She has been a guest in the Presbyterian home at Hollidaysburg since its opening and is perfectly delighted with the living and all conditions there.

Miss Eva Bailey, who graduated from Penn State last week, expects to begin a professional career by teaching in public schools, making mathematics and English her specialties. Her mother, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, attended the commencement exercises.

W. E. Tate, a Civil war veteran, and W. L. Jacobs, anticipate a trip to the Gettysburg battlefield this week. Mr. Tate was on hand during the difficulties there and did his good share to make the winning by the Union soldiers possible.

On Saturday B. D. Brisbin and housekeeper, Mrs. Laura Lee, of Centre Hall, went to Hartford, Connecticut, where they will be guests for a few weeks of Mrs. George Robertson, Mr. Brisbin's daughter. They went by train.

About the busiest time the railroad trackmen under Mr. Hartley had for some time was to dispatch six weasels that appeared at one time. Five of the little active animals were killed, but the sixth got away without a ruffled fur.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Geary, of Newport, accompanied by their three children, came to Centre Hall on Sunday and have since been guests of Mrs. Geary's mother, Mrs. Belle Whiteman. Mr. Geary is putting in the time fishing in the various trout streams. They will return home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Booser and Mrs. Booser's sister, Miss Verna Rowe, Monday morning left on an auto trip to Atlantic City, where they will be guests of John L. Rowe, brother of the ladies, and Mrs. Rowe. They will also visit friends and relatives in Philadelphia, and view the Sesqui-Centennial.

Monday all parts of this county were visited by two tremendously heavy rain falls, one in the afternoon and the other in the evening. Rain fell in torrents for fifteen minutes. In some sections, during the afternoon rain, a wind storm did some slight damage. Hereabouts the only damage was the washing of soil in corn fields.

During the time W. F. Keller was off on his annual vacation from carrying mail on Route One from the local post office, James Brooks acted substituted. It might be mentioned here that a movement is on to serve some, if not all, of the territory covered by the Linden Hall post office by extending Route One from here.

C. L. Cupples, successor of G. O. Benner as proprietor of the Star Store, moved from the property owned by William Loughner next to the Presbyterian church to the Grove house, a new brick structure south of the railroad station. Mac McMarran, manager of the Sheffield Farms company's plant, moved into the house vacated by Mr. Cupples.

Worthy of special mention and forgotten in the report of the county S. S. convention last week, was a musical number by the Millheim male quartette, composed of Messrs. William Duck, L. W. Stover, Albert Stover and Claude E. Musser, with Mrs. Albert Stover as accompanist. It was easily the outstanding musical number of the convention.

William S. Snyder and Mrs. Snyder, of Yeagertown, attended the funeral of Mrs. Snyder's uncle, James W. Runkle, on Monday. Mrs. Snyder is a daughter of the late Israel Snyder. Mr. Snyder was formerly a resident of this section, but for twenty years lived at Yeagertown and for most of the time has been employed in the Standard Steel Works. Others from Millheim county who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stover and Mrs. Irvin (Searson) Stover.

Among the several groups to spend a part of Sunday at Sunset club house, in Seven Mountains, were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McWilliams and son John B. McWilliams, and Mrs. John Brown, all of Johnstown. They came to Centre county primarily to attend commencement at Penn State, the junior Mr. McWilliams having been one of the graduates in the chemistry course. Others in the McWilliams party were Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Potter, of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Musser and daughter, Anna Jane, of Pennsylvania Furnace.

LOCAL PASSENGER TRAIN

HITS SEDAN—TWO HURT

Asher C. Confer and granddaughter, Elizabeth Confer, Cut and Bruised—Car Is Total Wreck.

Asher C. Confer and granddaughter, Elizabeth Confer, were badly cut and bruised when the Chevrolet sedan in which they were riding was hit Monday afternoon by the local passenger train. Mr. Confer received a long deep gash on the scalp that required twenty-one stitches in the dressing of it. The little girl, five years old, received a deep cut on one of her legs, and both were bruised on various parts of their bodies. Mr. Confer and the little girl are getting along nicely now, and every hope is entertained for their complete recovery. Four physicians—Bauchs, Morrow, Frank and Miller—were summoned and rendered surgical aid.

The accident happened at a private crossing one-half mile west of the Zerby water tank. Mr. Confer failed to notice the train approaching until it was too late to avoid being hit. The engine hit the right front wheel of the car, turned the car, which was again hit by the side of the train, completely demolishing it. The man and little girl were taken to Coburn and there placed in the caboose of the freight train and taken to his home at Beaver Dam, east of Spring Mills. Mr. Confer is about 60 years of age and is at present one of the Gregg township supervisors.

Chautauqua Was a Success.

Centre Hall's chautauqua went over with great success, financially and otherwise. The three days—Friday, Saturday and Monday—gave a total of six sessions, a lecture and a varied entertainment comprising each session. The talent was generally regarded as good. The Urie company, magicians, was especially fine. The auditorium on Orange Park, where the chautauqua was held, was filled to capacity during night sessions. Miss Martin, the superintendent, succeeded in getting about sixty local residents to sign on the "dotted line" for a 1927 chautauqua, thus assuring its return for another year.

Auto Accidents at Milesburg.

Two accidents occurred on the State Highway near Milesburg on Monday, the victims of both being severely injured. James Steret, of Milesburg, while walking near his home, was struck by an automobile, and suffered cuts and bruises about the head and face, and a severe fracture of the left leg at the ankle.

John Carter, colored, of Tyrone, while returning from the races, riding with a companion, had his right leg almost severed from the body, and a bone of the leg fractured, when his companion failed to make the turn at the Milesburg bridge, and the car crashed into the concrete work at the bridge.

Both are patients at the Bellefonte hospital.

Union Camp Meeting.

July 7 to 18 is the time set for the Union Campmeeting at Zerby Station, between Spring Mills and Coburn. Undenominational evangelists will be present, good music. Tents may be secured for $1.00. Those wishing tents should get in touch with the chair-man. The campmeeting association was organized in 1925 and now has a membership of 40—Mrs. Margaret Godshall, Centre Hall, Pa. 026
