

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Jose Platt, of State College, visited her grandmother, Mrs. John H. Breen, in Centre Hall, for a few days.

W. S. Slick, of Centre Hall, underwent an operation in the Lewistown Hospital, on Monday. His condition is reported to be quite unfavorable.

The Farmers Mills Union Sunday-school will hold a Children's service on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited.

Prof. Paul M. Lambert is one of the members of Franklin and Marshall faculty to obtain a leave of absence for one year. Prof. Lambert is a native of Miles township.

Ex-Sheriff A. B. Lee purchased the slabs from the Kelly saw mill and will cut such as are suitable into plastering lath. The lath mill has already been moved onto the ground.

Mrs. Romig, widow of Charles Romig, a former resident of Centre Hall, is in very delicate health, and has been confined to bed for nearly all of the time for the past two years.

At Monday evening's meeting of the Masonic order, seven Mt. Carmel fraternal brothers were in attendance, having come here to witness the ceremony incident to the admittance of a friend from Woodward.

Mrs. D. A. Boozer on Tuesday morning had the misfortune to trip and fall as she was descending the cellar steps at her home. No bones were broken, the injuries consisting of several abrasions and bruises.

Hon. Fred Breckenman, of Harrisburg, secretary of the Pennsylvania State Grange, was in Centre Hall, on Saturday, together with other State Grange officials, in the interest of the Grange Leadership Conference, which will be held here from August 17 to 20.

Miss Lila Brooks and George Sweeney, both of near Centre Hall, and who were in the corps of school teachers employed by Potter township, are further fitting themselves for their profession by attending the summer session of school at Central State Normal School, Lock Haven.

Tuesday morning, Miss Fay Bradford left for New Kingston, Cumberland county, and until Saturday will be a guest of the Rev. J. F. Bingham family, formerly of Centre Hall. Miss Beulah Bingham, the youngest of the Bingham girls, has been seriously ill, but is now improving.

The Sprucecreek Methodist church will hold a festival Saturday evening, July 3rd, on the Factory lawn. Pottery, milk, at which ice cream, cake, confections and fruits will be served. A pleasant evening is assured by the committee in charge. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

Clayton B. Stover, who removed from Spring Mills about three years ago, and who is now located at Sunbury, came to Centre Hall Saturday to be in attendance at the funeral of his mother, Mrs. Jeremiah Stover, an account of whose death appears elsewhere in this issue. Mr. Stover is employed by the Sunbury Sheet Metal Construction Company.

After spending the winter in Miami Florida, Mrs. Ada A. Butz returned to Centre Hall Monday afternoon and is now with her sister, Mrs. F. S. Greenhoe, at the Lutheran parsonage. The change from the hot in Florida to the cool in Pennsylvania was an agreeable experience. The country between Washington, D. C. and here was termed most beautiful by her.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Auman and children were called home from Struthers, Ohio, on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Auman's father, W. S. Slick, and also her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Brown, both of whom are in the Lewistown Hospital. Mr. Auman's brother, Harry Auman, is a patient in the Centre County Hospital, and is reported to be in a very serious condition.

The gas and restaurant features of the Peters auto salvage establishment, below Pleasant Gap, have been leased to L. L. Smith, of Centre Hall, and is now being conducted by him. Mr. Peters will continue dealing in old cars and automobile parts as heretofore. The place is entirely new and is equipped for retailing gas and oils. Mr. and Mrs. John Mowery are employed in the restaurant.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. B. F. Bleber of Muncy, was a group leader in Camp Susquehanna for boys during last week.

H. L. Elbright had his Willys-Knight car repaired at the Gingerich paint shop, Boalsburg, and is very much pleased with the work. Mr. Gingerich does good work in all lines, and this has, as it should, given him and his workshop a good "rep" wherever known.

Mrs. J. W. Evans and daughter, Miss Susan, of White, South Dakota, were due at the home of Mrs. Evans' brother, James C. Goodhart, in Centre Hall. The ladies traveled by train and before returning home will visit friends and relatives in various parts of the county.

Levi Houdabush, of Osterburg, secretary of the Bedford County Grange Mutual Fire Insurance company was a business caller at this office early last Thursday morning. He came to Centre county to attend a convention of mutual fire insurance companies of the State, held at State College the latter part of last week.

The Hon. Harry B. Scott, candidate for State Senator, spent $532.76 among his Republican friends to secure a nomination that no other of his party sought. Hon. W. I. Betts accomplished the same thing in the Democratic party at an expense of less than fifty dollars. Laird Holmes' expense for a second nomination was $55.

Children's day programs will be rendered in both the Presbyterian and Lutheran churches in Centre Hall on Sunday evening. The title of the program in the former church is "Hearts of Gold," and in the latter, "Come, Unto Me." Children in both churches will play the large part they should on such occasions.

Miss Sallie Alma Royer, of Hazleton, and Fred E. Catherman, of Millheim, were united in marriage. The groom is a carpenter, a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Catherman, of Millheim, and has been employed on construction work in New Jersey. The couple spent their early honeymoon at the parental home of the groom.

Miss Helen Bartholomew and niece, Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, Mrs. Susan Lutz, Miss Annie Lohr, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Jennie Bartholomew, of Bellefonte, motored to Philadelphia on Sunday in a Chandler, driven by the former, Misses Helen and Elizabeth will return next week, while the others in the party will remain guests of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Lohr and other friends in and about Philadelphia for a month.

Among the gatherings of note at State College was the convention of the Pennsylvania State Association of Mutual Fire Insurance companies, organized in 1907. The convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary of organization met on the last day of the convention, which was Thursday of last week. Mrs. F. M. Fisher, of Centre Hall, who had been on the executive committee heretofore, was elected president of the auxiliary for the current year, succeeding Mrs. Henry A. James, of Doylestown.

Orvis Horner, of Colyer, who keeps busy during the spring, summer and autumn months raising the largest crop of strawberries in all this section, and doing the mason work on fraternities at State College, has taken up the raising of silver foxes to occupy his time during the remainder of the year. He has been quite successful in the trapping of our native foxes, and if his present plans succeed, he will find himself in a lucrative business, for silver fox pelts command enormously high figures.

On a trip of 150 miles by auto through Centre, Union, Northumberland, Lycoming and Clinton counties, corn plants were found uniformly small, and in many instances sickly looking due to the unseasonable cool weather. A few small fields, or rather patches, had a promising appearance. Grass also is everywhere short and in some localities thin. Many wheat fields look very fair, not a few fine. The poorest prospects for corn, wheat and hay are found about here. Oats are a promising crop in almost all fields.

A ROYAL ENTERTAINER PERFORMS

Amir Bux, a genuine East Indian conjurer, produces a Liberty Bell from a reporter's hat. He is one of the artists in the India Building at the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, which opened in Philadelphia June 1 to December 1 to celebrate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

WEEK-END PROGRAM OF PHOTO-PLAYS AT—
Scenic & Moose Theatre
BELLEFONTE

AT THE SCENIC.
WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23
"Black Paradise"—with Edmund Lowe and Madge Bellamy. A strong melodrama. It's thrilling and gripping, especially the scenes that show the escape of the heroine's fiancé, a young crook, from the pursuing police and above all, the volcanic eruption showing the lava flowing down the mountain destroying everything. It sure is an awful spectacle. Also, a first-run 2-reel MACK SENNET COMEDY, "GIDDAP."
THURSDAY, JUNE 24
"The Palm Beach Girl"—with BEBE DANIELS and Lawrence Gray. Bebe as a gawky, small town girl, who, dancing and eager for thrills, comes into her own when she plunges headlong into the funniest and wildest turmoil of adventures possible. See how things do hum. Also, PATHE NEWS and PATHE REVIEW.

A GOOD SHOW AT THE SCENIC EVERY EVENING IN THE WEEK
AT MOOSE THEATRE FRIDAY and SATURDAY NIGHTS.

Cows Lungs Cover City Lot

IF THE spongy sacks which form the lung of a cow were spread out flat they would cover a city lot 50 by 150 feet, according to an estimate made by experts of the Larrowe Institute of Animal Economics. To keep this mass of flesh functioning normally, over 3,000 cubic feet of fresh air are required each hour, which, served to cows in buckets as is water and grain, would mean 320 three-gallon pailsful every hour for each cow.

A cow needs air (oxygen) to purify her blood, to digest and assimilate feed and turn it into heat, body repairing material and milk. Add to the well-ventilated barn a plentiful supply of fresh water, good roughage and a correctly mixed dairy ration, and you have all the essentials for abundant milk making. It is this lack of fresh air on many farms during the long winter months that is believed by practical farmers to be the underlying cause for much of the sickness among the animals.

AS MONTHS AND MILES ROLL BY YOU'RE GLAD YOU DRIVE AN OLDSMOBILE

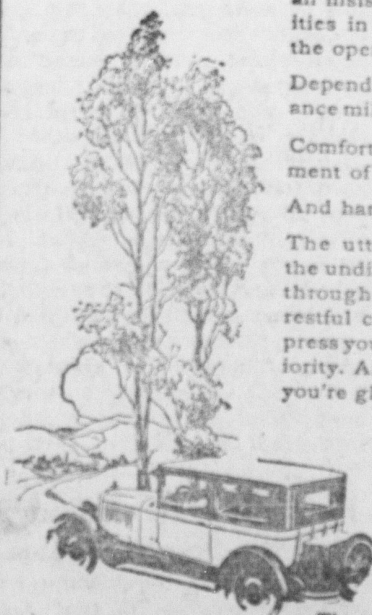

There is special significance in the fact that the preference for Oldsmobile, which has risen month by month, now mounts by leaps and bounds. It reveals an insistent demand for certain qualities in a car that fit it eminently for the open road:

Dependability... unwavering performance mile after mile, day in and day out.

Comfort... relaxation, pure enjoyment of every trip.

And handling ease!

The utter reliability of Oldsmobile, the undimmed spirit of its performance throughout the steadiest grind, the restful comfort in which you ride, impress you more and more with its superiority. And as months and miles roll by, you're glad you drive an Oldsmobile.
