

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

No paper next week.

Children's day exercises will be held in the Evangelical church in Centre Hall on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Irvin Bloom, of Altoona, spent the week end with her friend, Miss Laura Runkle, in Centre Hall.

Some were suggested that we change our "Welcome" signs at the borough entrances to "Come Again and Drop 12-50. We need it."

R. C. Baird, of Rebersburg, the dairyman, purchased a new Dodge Special sedan from the Hosterman auto agency in Centre Hall.

"Doers of the Word" is the title of a children's service to be rendered in the Reformed church in Centre Hall, on Sunday evening, 11th inst.

Mrs. Lucy Henney on Sunday went to Latrobe where for a week she will be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Henney and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Erb.

Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick will deliver a sermon to the P. O. S. of A. in the Presbyterian church, Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Don't forget the festival at Potters Mills on the spacious factory lawn, Saturday evening of this week, by the Sprucetown M. E. church. The best of refreshments, etc.

Miss Annie Picken, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Picken, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thorne, all of Yorkers, New York, are visiting at the home of their brother, Rev. W. R. Picken.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie Horner, of Altoona, passed through Centre Hall by auto on Sunday on their way to the home of the former's sister, Mrs. John W. Buttorf, near Millmont.

Mrs. Levi Hartley, on Saturday, visited her daughter, Mrs. Edward Giesner, and family, in Northumberland. Her granddaughter, Katherine Giesner, is also for the present at her home in Northumberland.

S. J. Wagner and son, Harold, of Boalsburg, were in town on business on Tuesday. Mr. Wagner's other son, Cyrus Wagner, who is with the Shaffer Bakery in Altoona, was home over Sunday and sang a solo at the Odd Fellows service, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie E. Homan, of Cleveland, Ohio, were in Centre Hall on Sunday, and visited the former's brother, Clayton Homan, at the H. G. Strohmeyer home. Mr. Homan is a former Centre Hall who is making a success in business in the "Sixth City."

Four prominent men in the Western section of Union county, in the persons of C. C. Catherman, of Hartsville; Edwin W. Dunkelberger, of Lauriston; John Hiekernell, of Hartley township; and James M. Hoover, of Millburg, passed away during the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cackis, of Washington, D. C., on coming to Centre Hall on Monday brought with them Mrs. Margaret Goddard, Mrs. Cackis' mother, and her half-brother, Vernon Goddard, both of whom had been in the National Capital city for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Cackis will remain here for a week.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles E. Buery and children, of Philadelphia, passed through Centre Hall on Monday on an auto trip. Dr. Buery is the successor to Dr. Russell Conwell as president of Temple University, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Buery will be better recalled as being the youngest daughter of Dr. W. E. Fisher, now of Shamokin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Keener and daughter Miriam, of Pleetwood, were guests during the week of Mr. and Mrs. Keener's son, the Rev. Delius H. Keener, and Mrs. Keener at the local Reformed parsonage. R. H. Weaver, an uncle of Rev. Keener, and Mrs. Weaver, of Mersstown, were also entertained at the parsonage during the past week.

Harvey Vonada, of near Spring Mills, was a sufferer at this office on Saturday. Mr. Vonada has rounded out eighty years on life's journey and he appears good for traveling some distance yet. While in good health generally, he admits that an attack of grippe last winter has left its mark in the way of having reduced his strength somewhat. Mr. Vonada sounds in good humor, which doubtless has much to do with keeping him young.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Bender and daughter, of Little, Lancaster county, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber, who are relatives. On their way here they were half-stayed in the lower end of Penns Valley, and were obliged to stop short. After the storm was over they found themselves parked close up to a garage. Mr. Bender is a retired Lancaster county farmer who with his family are enjoying themselves from the results of a previous active life.

William A. Brown, of Huntingdon, was a visitor in Centre Hall on Saturday, and over Sunday was the guest of the J. H. Runkle family, east of town. Mr. Brown is a former school teacher of Gregg township, where he was born, but for the past twenty-five years he has been the instructor of the band at the Huntingdon Reformatory. He was a brief caller at this office while in town, and we found him to be a gentleman well versed in lines other than those pertaining to his profession.

Miss Helen Bartholomew and friends returned from Philadelphia, to where she had gone a week ago by auto, on Sunday. The party consisting of Mrs. Rebecca Romig, of Liverpool; Mrs. Cicena Reicher, of Philadelphia; Misses Helen and Elizabeth Bartholomew, drove to York, on Saturday, where they visited friends, leaving there on Sunday forenoon, and driving to Liverpool where they ate dinner and took on three more passengers—Mrs. R. L. Shumaker and two daughters, Margaret and Louise. All of the party are guests in the Bartholomew home.

SEVERAL HUNDRED AT GROVE CLAN REUNION

Colorful Affair Held Saturday at Grange Park, Centre Hall—Plan Larger Gathering Next Year.

The eighteenth annual reunion of the Grove family of Central Pennsylvania was held at Grange Park, Centre Hall, on Saturday, June 19th.

That this reunion has attained a place in the lives of the Grove family in this section of the State is attested by the fact that they come from far and near to attend this notable gathering.

Reminiscences of the old pioneer Grove settlers were current, and some very interesting history was discussed. It developed that the original Groves arrived in this country between 1729-1748 and settled in Lancaster and York counties. After residing there until after the Revolutionary War, they moved up through the Buffalo Run Valley into Union and Centre counties.

Some untiring efforts were made during the past year to get the authentic facts concerning the history of the early Grove settlers and it developed that the Grove family in this section are descendants of John Grove and Catharine Stover Grove, who were married about 1789. John Grove lived in Northumberland county at that time and Catharine Stover came from Calico township, Lancaster county.

One of the new features of the reunion this year was in the form of prizes offered for the oldest person present was awarded to Mrs. Sarah Etters, of Lepont, age 75 years. The prize for the youngest person present went to Wayne N. Grove, aged eighteen weeks, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grove, of Bellefonte.

The prize for the person who traveled the greatest distance to the reunion was awarded to Mrs. Sarah Blackburn, who came from St. Louis, Missouri.

The Huntingdon county Groves were represented at the reunion this year by Jacob Grove Snyder, of Rearing Springs, who delivered the address of the day, and extended a hearty invitation to all present to attend the Huntingdon county Grove reunion on August 14, near Gratton, on one of the original Grove farms.

Next year it is planned to hold the largest reunion in the history of the family, the third Saturday in June, at Grange Park, Centre Hall. At this time ex-Governor Martin Grove Evans, of Huntingdon, will be invited to deliver the address of the day, and many Groves from all parts of the country will likely be in attendance. The reunion committee, consisting of D. A. Grove and Mrs. H. B. Grove, submitted resolutions in memory of the following members of the association who passed to their reward during the past year: Mrs. Lena Grove of Bellefonte; Mrs. Catharine Grove of Bellefonte; Earl B. Grove, Bellefonte; Miss Vera Grove, Bellefonte.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Alfred C. Grove, Bellefonte, president; Herbert Grove, Centre Hall, vice-president; Roy H. Grove, Ridgeport, secretary; Mrs. Esther Samsel, Pleasant Gap, treasurer.

HEALTH LAWS ALONG MILK LINE

Acts Now In Effect Concerning Handling of Milk by Farmers and Dealers.

County Health Officer J. L. Tressel, Bellefonte, R. D. 3, is giving milk dealers and farmers producing milk for sale an opportunity to acquaint themselves with the Pennsylvania State laws on the subject, having them published. The law following was approved April 4, 1925.

Section 1. The sale, offering for sale, giving away or having same in possession for the purpose of sale, by any person, persons, firm or corporation, of raw milk for human consumption is prohibited; except as hereinafter provided, or where such milk is from a cow or cows determined by physical examination and tuberculin tests, conducted in accordance with the rules, regulations and practice of the Pennsylvania Bureau of Animal Industry, to be free from communicable disease. Physical examinations and tuberculin tests of such cow or cows shall be made at intervals of not more than one year and at such lesser intervals as may be recommended by the Bureau of Animal Industry in individual cases. A complete report of each examination and test approved by the Bureau of Animal Industry shall be filed with the Department or Board of Health of the city, borough or township of the first class in which the milk is sold, and with the State Commissioner of Health when the milk is sold in a township of the second class.

Section 2. The sale, offering for sale, giving away or having same in possession for the purpose of sale, by any person, persons, firm or corporation, for human consumption, of milk from cow or cows not physically examined and tuberculin tested as prescribed in Section 1 of this regulation, is prohibited, except when such milk has been pasteurized. For the purpose of this regulation pasteurized milk is hereby defined as milk which has been subjected to a temperature of not less than 145 degrees Fahrenheit, for a period of not less than thirty minutes. A record of the temperature and duration of pasteurization shall be made by a recording thermometer of the type approved by the State Department of Health. The records of pasteurization shall be correctly dated, kept on file ready for inspection at the place where the milk is pasteurized and shall cover the six months previous to the date of inspection.

Section 3. The Department of Health in every city, borough or township of the first class and the State Department of Health in cases of townships of the second class, shall cause a medical examination to be made by methods prescribed by the Commissioner of Health and reported on certificates approved by him, within two weeks after employment and at least semi-annually thereafter, of all persons who handle milk delivered raw for human consumption from the time it is produced until it is delivered to the consumer, except those persons delivering raw milk in containers which have been filled and closed. A similar examination shall be made within two weeks after employment and at least semi-annually thereafter of all persons who handle milk during the process of pasteurization and until it is delivered to the consumer, except those persons delivering pasteurized milk in containers which have been filled and closed.

Section 4. All containers used to deliver milk for human consumption shall be thoroughly cleaned and shall be correctly labeled to show whether the milk is raw or pasteurized milk, and shall show the name of the milk dealer who places the milk in the containers.

Violation of the above regulations is a fine of not more than $100.00 and an imprisonment of not more than thirty days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

Prof. H. C. Rothrock, of Port Matilda, assistant superintendent of schools in Centre county, suffered a slight paralytic stroke, affecting his left side. He was riding in an auto with a son when stricken. Under the care of his daughter, Miss Rachel, located in Indiana, he is improving nicely.

New York's Old Guard Coming to Sesqui

At an imposing ceremony before their headquarters in New York City the famous Old Guard of New York under the command of Major E. Havemeyer Snyder, commandant of the organization, received the invitation from the officials of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, opening in Philadelphia June 1 and continuing to December 1, to celebrate 150 years of American independence, to attend the Flag Day exercises on June 14, when all the historic military commands of the thirteen original colonies will assemble for a big military display and parade headed by General Pershing, Captain James A. B. Francis, of the Old Guard State Fencibles, of the Sesqui city, is presenting the invitation to Major Snyder. At Major Snyder's left stand the commanding officers of the Philadelphia organizations, while the members of the two famous commands are grouped about their leaders in their striking dress uniforms.
