Courtesies to Strangers.

Strangers and visitors get very different treatment when they visit new places on their travels and journeyings. In a great many conservative places, no one takes any interest in them unless they had acquaintances there previously.

But in many hustling towns there is a tendency to make a special effort to show such visitors around. Business men will often give up their own time just to go around with these people. They do it no doubt with the hope of building up their home town, so it is not purely unselfish generosity. And yet it does give a visitor the idea that such a community is wide awake, with courteous people, and he carries away a favorable impression. If some of these people are making investigations relative to purchasing property or business interests, or change of residence, they are very much attracted to a town where there seems this spirit of giving newcomers and strangers the glad hand.

During the rain and storm on Monday night lightning did some damage to the dwelling house on the John Mitchell farm, now owned by E. S. Moore, located about a mile above Pine Grove Mills. Lightning struck one of several tall pine trees standing near the house, and from the tree the bolt shot to the spouting on the house, followed the conductor almost to the ground and then set fire to the framework back of the weather-boarding. By chopping holes through the clapboards, the fire was extinguished by applying water from buckets. Neighbors came early, and it was due to their splendid and quick work that the old farm home was saved. The actual loss was light.

The white line extending over the diamond with its warning "slow" is a great aid to auto drivers who desire to be careful. A series of arrows marking the curves east and west would also be very helpful, especially so since the "diamond" is not a diamond in shape.

The camprmeeting at Zerby announced for some time this month, has been postponed until August 8th.

DEATHS

STUMP—Alvin Stump died on Friday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. May Barger, where he and Mrs. Stump had been living during the past three years. He had not been well for some time, but had been up and about until the day previous to his death. Interment was made Monday afternoon at Tusseyville, Rev. D. R. Keener officiating. He had attained the 75th year of his age on May 30th.

There survive the deceased his wife, who previous to her marriage was Miss Mary Wingard, and four of his five children, namely: John Phillipsburg; Elwood M. Unloh; Mrs. May Barger, previously mentioned, and Bruce, Ardena, A. brother, Edwin Stump, of Bagville, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Goss; also survive him.

During his active life Mr. Stump engaged in farming, having lived for some years on the Rhoneymede farm. Later he lived west of Old Fort, and three years ago he and Mrs. Stump went to Altoona where they have since lived.

ENNST—Mrs. Mary Etta Ennst died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Stumpf, at Wagner, Millin county, at the age of 80 years, 10 months and 12 days. Mrs. Ennst's maiden name was Sipe, and with her husband, the late Wilson Ennst, she lived at Yeagertown for many years.

The deceased leaves one daughter, Mrs. E. E. Diffenderfer, Lewistown, and two sons, William Ennst, Lewistown, and Franklin H. Ennst, of Potters Mills. These two sisters and one brother also survive her: William P. Sipe, Burnham; Mrs. Elen Stumpf, Wagner; Mrs. J. F. H. (Frances) Foust, of Potters Mills.

RISHELL—J. Walter Rishell, a well known young farmer of Benner township, died at the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh. He had been in ill health since last March and about eight weeks ago was taken to the Pittsburgh hospital. After being under observation there for several weeks he underwent an operation but pneumonia developed which was the direct cause of his death.

He was a son of Alfred M. and Emma (Shreck) Rishell and was born on the homestead farm on Sept. 14, 1888; hence was 37 years, 9 months and 16 days old. His entire life was spent on the farm first as assistant to his father, but the past nine years for himself. He was a member of the Methodist church and an enterprising young man.

On June 17th, 1916, he married Miss Christine Harris, who survives with two children, Lois and Betty. His mother died a number of years ago but he leaves his father and step-mother, living in Bellefonte, and one sister, Mrs. F. O. Rife, of Long Beach, Fla.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Benner township by Rev. C. W. Rishell, of Pleasant Gap, assisted by Rev. C. C. Shure, of Bellefonte, burial being made in the Union cemetery, Bellefonte.

ROBINSON—Mrs. Mary M. Lloyd Robinson passed away at the home of her niece, Mrs. Hugh S. Taylor, Bellefonte, following three months illness as the result of a general breakdown in health.

She was a daughter of William and Elizabeth Love Cross and was born at Boalsburg on February 11th, 1859, hence was in her 77th year. Her childhood life was spent at Boalsburg but as a young woman she taught school in Phillipsburg and there she met and married Robert T. Lloyd on April 27, 1887. Mr. Lloyd died in 1909 and ten years later she married Thomas M. Robinson and went to Denver, Colorado, to live. Mr. Robinson died in 1912 and since then she had made her home with the Taylor family, in Bellefonte.

Her only survivors are one sister, Mrs. Anne Mulholland, of Bellefonte, and two nieces, Mrs. H. S. Taylor, of Bellefonte, and Miss Della Cross, of Wernersville. Funeral services were held at the Taylor home Saturday afternoon.

RENTSCHLER—Mrs. M. J. Rentschler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Lytle, of State College, died at her home in Willoughby, Ohio, from a complication of diseases, at the age of 42 years.

Mrs. Rentschler was reared in State College and has many friends who will learn with a feeling of sadness of her passing away. She is survived by her husband and parents, as well as a son and daughter: Mrs. Frances Drury, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mahlon, Jr., of Willoughby, Ohio.

The ill health of Mr. and Mrs. Lytle prevented their attendance at the funeral which was held at Willoughby.

It appears that nearly every home owner that has not worked off the spell within the past year or two has the paint-up germ in his system. The disease has become epidemic hereabouts. The last patient to be stricken is E. W. Crawford, who is having the paint applied by Arney and Frohm to his dwelling house, near the P. R. R. station.

Notice.
We have in stock a supply of brick for all purposes.—McClenahan's Grain House, Centre Hall.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Helen Bressler, of Sunbury, is a guest of her uncle and aunt, Prof. L. O. and Mrs. Parker, in Centre Hall.

Mrs. N. C. Heckman is at the Geisinger Memorial Hospital undergoing treatment. Her condition when last heard from was reported as favorable.

Farmers hereabouts began cutting grain beginning of this week. The performance now is at about the second of the three acts on the program.

The little daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. D. Milton Bradford, in Centre Hall Tuesday night, was hailed with delight by the parents and brothers and sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Bitter, P. D. Swabb and daughters, Ruth and Isabel, spent several days at the home of Joseph J. B. Swabb, at Sharon, Mercer county. Mr. and Mrs. Bitter also spent some time with Mrs. Bitter's sister, Mrs. Crawford, at Paradise.

Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew and daughter, Miss Mary Helen, and Miss Mary Kennedy, sister of the former, are at the Kennedy farm home for a week. The Bartholomews live in Altoona, but Miss Kennedy is now employed at the Methodist Home, Tyrone, and very highly praises the institution and especially the attitude toward her as an employee.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Lingle and two daughters, of Chadds Ford, Delaware county, drove to Centre Hall by auto the latter part of last week to visit Mr. Lingle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lingle, and friends and relatives of Mrs. Lingle, at Spring Mills. They were pleased to see the senior Mr. Lingle gradually improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hazlett, of Quakertown, were guests of Miss Laura Runkle and mother, at the Centre Hall hotel, over Sunday. The Hazletts were on their way to their summer home at Bob's Lake, Canada. Others who were entertained at the Runkle home at the same time were Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Bloom, of Williamsport, their daughter, Mrs. Hoffman, and the latter's daughter, of Brooklyn, New York.

Prof. J. F. Wetzel and Mrs. Wetzel and son, of Beaverstown, accompanied by Miss Estella Hughes, sister of Mrs. Wetzel and Harry E. Strong, assistant to Prof. Wetzel, as principal of the Centre Hall High school, drove from their home to Centre Hall in the former's Buick sedan, on Saturday. Mr. Wetzel was here partially in search of a dwelling house into which he and his family could move prior to the opening of the school term in September.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Charles W. Pennington, Bellefonte, Edith L. Walte, Bellefonte.
Andrew Biggin, Clarence Helen Fratarka, Clarence Oscar W. Thompson, Howard Pauline F. Confer, Howard

Letter from Michigan.

Buchanan, Mich., July 19, 1928.
Editor Centre Reporter:
Enclosed find check for renewal of your valuable paper, Mrs. Hugh, my mother-in-law, who was raised at the "Gan," near Tusseyville, her maiden name being Kate Young, enjoys very much to read your paper and looks for it each week as a visitor from home. Very truly yours,
J. C. REHM.

Y. P. B. Picnic.

The Y. P. B. picnic will be held on Grange Park on Thursday afternoon and evening. Every member is requested to come and bring a basket. The reports of the annual convention will be heard that day.—Comm.

POTTERS MILLS.

R. W. Frazier and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Frazier's father, Nathaniel Krape, near Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Winkleblich, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle, of Aaronsburg, and Mr. A. E. Mingle, wife and son, of Coburn, called at the home of G. H. McCormick, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lowder, from Oak Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Gramley, from Altoona, and a friend from Minnesota, called at the F. F. Palmer home for a few hours last Thursday.

Jack Cameron, from Chicago, came east on Tuesday to join his wife at the home, Ella Wilkinson home, and they both are now visiting with Mrs. Cameron's sister, Mrs. P. P. Henshall, in Ventnor.

Mr. Elmer Stump and family of Mt. Union, stopped on Monday night at the home of J. H. Wagner on their way home from the funeral of Mr. Stump's father, Alvin Stump.

Paul Sweetwood, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sweetwood, while tusseling in the back yard at home, fell on his arm in such a way as to twist the bone and the ligaments of his forearm. He is now carrying his arm in a sling.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ennst and two daughters, Mrs. J. G. Boal, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ennst and daughter, Mrs. Maggie Ackerman, and Elmer Foust, attended the funeral of Frank Ennst's mother, at Lewistown, on Thursday.

Robert McCormick, the second son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCormick, had a very narrow escape on Thursday morning. While driving the cattle in from pasture on horseback, a bull in the herd upset the horse, throwing the lad to the ground. He was picked up unconscious by Samuel Lingle, the hired man, and H. E. Foust, a neighbor. He lay unconscious for two hours, but aside from a severe shock, seems none the worse from the experience.

Dress Goods, Remnants, Etc.

I now have for your inspection, samples of fall and winter dress goods; also, a nice line of remnants. All are reasonably priced, and quality, of course, the best. I shall appreciate your calling at my home to see them.—Mrs. Daniel Good.
