

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The local First National bank is distributing among its friends a genuine black leather bill case, an article of fine quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bitner and little daughter, on Saturday morning, started on an auto trip to Youngstown, Ohio, where they visited Mr. Bitner's brother, John Bitner.

A guest being entertained by Naomi Hironimus, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hironimus, is her cousin, Pauline Irvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Irvin, of Laurelton.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spearly, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Sweeney, of State College, and Mrs. Grace Martz, of Linden Hall, visited at the W. M. Sweeney home at Potters Mills, on Sunday.

Frank O. Moyer of Cleveland, Ohio, was an arrival in Centre Hall Tuesday evening, and will spend a week or two among friends and relatives. He has a particular fondness for visiting Centre Hall.

Miss Grace Smith has completed a census of school children between the ages of six and sixteen years, in the borough, as required by law. The number was found to be 59 boys and 58 girls, or a total of 117.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smetzler, of Endicott, New York, and their son, Lee Smetzler and wife, of New Jersey, were guests for a few days last week of Mrs. Eliza Stump, who is a sister of the former Mr. Smetzler.

William McClanahan drove to Pittsburg last Thursday and brought in by truck the household goods belonging to Mr. and Mrs. David Noll, who are now living on the Potter place, west of Centre Hall.

The Meyer vacant lot next to the property owned by W. H. Strohecker, in Centre Hall, purchased some time ago by E. M. Smith and later by Walter R. Hosterman, was sold by the latter to W. W. Kerlin.

A card received from Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, on Monday, from Indianapolis, Ind., indicates that they covered 350 miles in their Packard sedan on the first day (Saturday) on their trip to West Baden, Ind., where they are attending the convention of the International Baby Chick association.

Thursday evening, Helen, aged two years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Bradford, while playing in her crib fell from it and broke the bone in the left arm at the elbow. The child was taken to the Centre County Hospital, where the fracture was reduced after an X-ray had been taken of the injury.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sellers, of State College, for a day last week, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Weber. Mr. Sellers was a former resident here, having been a partner in the firm operating the Centre Hall foundry. He is now living retired on account of very bad health.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Bingham, of New Kingston, accompanied by their daughters, Misses Ruth and Beulah, and little son Fred, drove to Centre Hall Monday and were entertained here among their former parishioners. Rev. Bingham and family have many friends here who are always glad to greet them.

A car load of milk cows were purchased last week in a day's time by S. J. Shlappik, of Richland, Lebanon county, and the local buyer, D. C. Mitterling. The shipment was made on Tuesday. It is possible the light hay crop and the present poor pasture conditions had an influence on owners to sell at this time.

George Fetterolf is one of the younger and successful farmers in Potter township, being tenant on the C. A. Krape farm, east of Centre Hall. He believes in growing stock and consequently keeps a nice herd of cows. He is now advertising for sale ten pigs seven weeks old that will not likely stay long after this issue of the Reporter is read by its local subscribers.

John F. Mullen was an arrival in town Tuesday, having come direct from his home in Pittsburgh. Mr. Mullen was formerly a resident here, but has lived in Pittsburgh and has been employed in one of the large department stores there for a number of years. He appears to be in better physical condition than he was a year ago, the time of his last visit here. Rheumatism gets him limping-sometimes.

Charles Andrews, farmer on the Mrs. Alice Durst farm at Earlstown, was one of the Reporter's callers on Friday. He is now recovering from the effects of a carbuncle on his left elbow that forced him to lay off completely for a few days. Mr. Andrews gives close attention to farming and is usually well rewarded. His hay crop this year was a very good one compared to that on many farms in the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Kittleberger, of Curwensville, drove to Centre Hall on Sunday and for the day were guests at the Bartholomew home. The couple were accompanied by their three children—William, who will enter upon his last year at Lehigh University in September; Louise, a stenographer, and Elizabeth, who will begin her higher educational work in Allegheny College, Meadville, in September.

For more than sixteen weeks Mrs. James W. Raymond, living on her farm home near Earlstown, has been ill, and for two weeks has been unable to take nourishment of any kind, not even water. Her inability to eat or drink is due to paralysis of the throat, following a second stroke of paralysis about two weeks ago. Mrs. Raymond's illness began with flu, then came a light paralytic stroke, and later a stroke. Her condition on Tuesday morning was regarded as extremely serious.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Little Miss Dorothy Ellen Bohn, of Coburn, was the guest of her grandfather, Wm. H. Stover, for a few days last week.

Mrs. J. L. Tressler has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William McClintic, at Linden Hall, but is now reported to be very much better.

Warren Krise, Esq., and sons George and Charles, of Johnstown, on their way on a business trip to Lancaster, stopped in Centre Hall with the former's sister Mrs. W. S. Slick.

All members and friends of the Von Neider, Kishel and Heckman families are invited to meet in annual reunion on Saturday, August 14, at the Vonada Park in Woodward Narrows.

Miss Pauline Renner, of Lewisburg, who comes to the home of Mrs. G. H. Emerick for a long vacation, returned home on Sunday. She was met here by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Renner, and grandfather, Peter Renner. Other guests being entertained at the Renner home are Mrs. Laura Harper and daughter, Miss Helen.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kline, Miss Roxanna Kline and Miss Mildred Kline, made a Saturday afternoon business trip to Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rossman and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Martz took supper in the Bear Meadows.

THERE IS NO SATURATION POINT FOR HONEST VALUE

Build a product that the world needs, better than the world expects, and mounting sales will answer those who are constantly predicting a saturated market.

During the first six months of this year, for instance, Dodge Brothers sold 207,115 motor cars and trucks. This represents a gain of 49.3 per cent over the first six months of 1925, and continues Dodge Brothers in the enviable position of THIRD IN THE INDUSTRY.

For the three weeks ending July 17th, 23,862 motor cars and trucks were delivered to customers—an increase of 62.4 per cent over the same period last year, and impressive evidence that Dodge Brothers great sales gain is continuing through the quiet weeks of mid-summer.

There may be a saturation point for mediocrity, but honest value will always command a great and ever expanding market.
