October days are not melancholy. They invite reflection and pensiveness, to be sure; but they invite also participation and enjoyment in all the wonderful things nature has created in the months preceding. Much though we may sound the praises of April and May as the days of blossoming and promise, it is not until October days that the full meaning of the hope of spring is borne upon us. October is the rugged manhood of the year in all its glorious strength; it is symbolic of tasks begun and carried through to the end; it is a synonym for achievement.

This is Fire Prevention Week. The forests at least are safe—water soaked.

DEATHS

HARTER.—Jacob Moyer Harter died at his home in Aaronsburg on Thursday of last week, aged 79 years, 3 months and 11 days. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, conducted by the pastor of the Lutheran church, Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, who deceased having long been a member of the Lutheran church. The deceased was married to Miss Susanna Haines. Nine children survive, namely: William of Coburn; Andrew, of Minnneapolis, Minn.; Charles, of Middleburg; Jacob, of Geneva, Illinois; Forest, of Mill Hall; Charles, of Middleburg; John, of Maple Park, Ill.; Lydia, and Lottie, at home.

FOUST.—Mrs. James Foust died at her home in Georges Valley, Thursday of last week, at the age of 79 years, 3 months and 12 days. She is survived by her husband, one son, Elmer D. Foust, and one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Ackerman. For the past three years she was unable to walk alone and was confined to her bed since March. After the death of her daughter's husband, the daughter moved home and took care of her until the end came. Mrs. Foust was a woman possessing a kind and loving disposition, and as long as she was able to do so, was always ready to help others in time of need. She was laid to rest on Monday in the Spruce-town cemetery.

CULBERSON.—Horace James Culbertson, for a number of years a Republican political leader in Millin county, died in Lewistown, aged 84 years, 4 months, 3 days. His practice of law extended over a period of fifty-two years. He is survived by four children—Frederick Watts Culbertson, a Lewistown attorney, and now serving his second term in the State Senate; Mary Steel, Julia and Anna.

HOUTZ.—Cornelius Houtz, a well known resident of Lemont, died at his home, following an illness of paralysis. He was 56 years of age and was a son of Christian and Christina Shuey Houtz, both of whom are dead. His wife passed away three years ago. Surviving are two children: Calvin and Mrs. George Williams, of Lemont. One brother, Prof. Houtz, of Selinsgrove, also survives. Interment at the Shiloh cemetery.

Mrs. Kilger in Hospital.

Mrs. A. M. Kilger, at Red Mill, had the misfortune to fall, a few days ago, while carrying a bucket of coal from the coal shed to the house, and fractured the bones in the right arm near the wrist, as well as the collar bone. Dr. Hugh Morrow rendered aid, and advised that she be taken to the Centre County hospital, which was done.

Shugart Farms Sold.

The Shugart farms located near the Fish Hatchery, in Benner township, were sold as assets of the defunct Centre County bank, on Tuesday, for $9,500. One farm brought $5,000 and the other $4,500. Two-thirds interest in the farms was owned by the late John M. Shugart, and it was this interest that was sold. The purchaser was Miss Catharine Shugart who had been the owner of one-third interest.

Has Carload New Chevrolets.

W. A. Homan, the local Chevrolet and Oldsmobile dealer, has just unloaded a carload of the new 1927 model Chevrolets—all closed cars. The new Chevrolet is attracting much attention wherever exhibited, owing to its many new features and general improvement, and Mr. Homan invites you to his garage where the new models are on exhibit, and inspect these machines; ask any questions you like; ride in a 1927 model, and you will understand the "why" of his enthusiasm.

COURT NOTES

The Grand Jury made its final presentation, declaring that it had passed upon thirty-one bills of indictment, twenty-four of which were found true bills, six ignored and one bill withdrawn by the District Attorney. Among the recommendations made were that they had visited the public buildings and that a fire escape is needed at the rear of the jail; also that a place should be provided for the women inmates.

Commonwealth vs. Lydia Daughenbaugh, indicted, first count, maintaining a bawdy house; second count, adultery. After all the testimony was in the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty on the indictment for adultery, but decreed the defendant to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Maurice Lutz, indicted for statutory offense; prosecutor, Walter Stine, in behalf of his daughter, Ruth Stine. This case is from Patton township and verdict was rendered of not guilty but the defendant to pay the costs.

Commonwealth vs. Willis McKinley, indicted for statutory offense; prosecutor, Alice J. Beck. This case is from State College, and verdict was rendered on Thursday morning of guilty, and motion immediately made for new trial.

Commonwealth vs. W. C. Stone, indicted for statutory offense; prosecutor, Alice Jackson. This case is from State College, and the defendant appeared in court and plead guilty and the usual sentence in such cases was imposed. The defendant is a cripple and has to be carried from place to place, and after the imposition of the sentence the sheriff was obliged to carry him to the jail.

Commonwealth vs. Harry McCloskey, indicted for violating the liquor laws on two counts; first, illegal possession; second, sale of liquor. Prosecutor, Arthur R. Fox, Corporal of State Police. This case is from Liberty township. The prosecutor made the information on a purchase made by one of his employees under him of a part of a bottle of liquor from the defendant in July, 1926. However, when the raid was made, no liquor was found. Verdict of guilty was indicted and the defendant was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and fine of $100.00.

Commonwealth vs. Henry Spangler, indicted for possession of liquor; prosecutor, A. F. Dahlstrom, sergeant of State Police. This case is from Liberty township and grows out of the same state of facts as reported in the trial of the case against Henry Spangler for the sale of liquor, at the May sessions of Court. The defendant is a licensed druggist and holds a permit from the Prohibition Department of the Federal Government to buy liquor and to use it in the mixture of the medicine and the sale of it on physicians' prescriptions.

After hearing the evidence the court gave binding instructions to render in favor of the defendant. Not sufficient evidence had been produced to show a violation of the liquor laws. The civil cases on the first week's list were disposed of as follows: Clara Pearl Leathers and the Bellefonte Trust Co. admrs. of Wm. P. Leathers, deceased, vs. Paul Bennett and E. S. Bennett, settled; Anna Dumick vs. Anna Sokolowsky. The plaintiff suffered a voluntary non suit.

Other civil cases on the second week's list were disposed of last week as follows: Andrew Thal and Bertha Thal, his wife, vs. J. V. Foster, being an action in trespass; continued. James F. Perry vs. Elmer E. Watson and Nannie E. Watson, being an action in ejectment; continued. Philip D. Foster vs. J. D. Musser, being an action in replevin; continued.

Criminal cases not heretofore reported were disposed of as follows: Comm. vs. R. J. Witmer, charged with desertion and non support; prosecutor, Charlotte Witmer; true bill. Comm. vs. Harvey S. Frey, charged with violating automobile laws; prosecutor, A. E. Yougel. Bill ignored and the grand jury returned that they found Carolyn Dale to be the prosecutrix and placed the costs upon her. Comm. vs. Harold Newspan, charged with assault and battery; prosecutor, R. H. McMonigal; true bill. Comm. vs. John H. Lingle, charged with a statutory offense; prosecutrix, Ethel M. Stoner; nol pros. Comm. vs. D. C. McIntyre and Mrs. D. C. McIntyre, charged with violation of automobile laws; prosecutor, J. F. Krumrine; continued. Comm. vs. Edward Colman, charged with reckless driving of automobile; prosecutor, James Leeper, Jr.; nol pros. Comm. vs. John Bryda, charged with breaking and escaping the penitentiary; prosecutor, W. J. McFarlane; true bill. Comm. vs. John Schultz, same as above; true bill. Comm. vs. Jack Gold, same as above—true bill. Comm. vs. John Pie, same as above; true bill. Comm. vs. Annie Zelesnik, charged with assault and battery; prosecutor, H. E. Bigger; true bill. Comm. vs. Angelle Pantano, charged with statutory rape; prosecutor, Wm. Eldridge; settled.

Court convened on Monday morning, but, owing to the case which was fixed for trial on Monday having been continued late Saturday for legal reasons, there were no cases ready for trial and the Court was without work all day Monday.

It is two weeks since the last concrete was poured on the Seven Mountain road. The delay was almost entirely due to wet weather making the graded portion of the road impassable for hauling with trucks. There are yet about two miles of concrete to be poured. The berms on the concrete road over Nittany Mountain are being built up to the concrete level by the repair men. This will make better conditions for the approaching winter.

BOALSBURG

The Misses Ida and Mary Segner are visiting in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisher, of Danville, with Mr. Yeager, driving, motored from Danville Monday, bringing with them Mrs. Ruth Gerhart and son Jimmie, the latter having been a patient in the Geisinger hospital for some time.

Mrs. J. H. Ross, of Linden Hall, spent the week-end with her daughter, Mrs. George Mothersbaugh. Prof. Whitehead, Hosterman and Dale, Messrs. Edward Zong and James Irwin motored to Middleburg Friday evening to attend a meeting of the I. O. O. F. lodge.

Harold Coxy and family, of Altoona, were guests at the Coxy-Isler home over Sunday. John and Wm. Harkins, of State College, spent last week with their grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner.

Jerry Dunkelberger is visiting his sister, Mrs. Henry Reitz, after spending the summer at Tipton Park. Mrs. Ella Gingerich gave a dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of her daughter, Mada's birthday anniversary. The guests were Miss Helen Glasgow, State College; Les Smeltzer, and sister, Margaret, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Flora Snyder, of Boalsburg. Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Hall enjoyed a visit Monday from the former's brother, Grant E. Hall, and wife, of New Bloomfield, and their sister, Mrs. Geo. E. Aldrich, and husband, of Los Angeles, California.

Miss Flora Snyder went to Williamsport Sunday to enter Potts Business school.

POTTERS MILLS.

Lewis Fous, who is employed at Burnham, visited for a few days at the home of his son, Harry Fous, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sweeney, of State College, visited over the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sweeney.

J. M. Carson and family, accompanied by his two daughters, Mrs. Russell Brungart and two children, and Mrs. Edward Foust and two children, spent Sunday evening at the Barton school home near Centre Hall. Mrs. Roll Foust, of Altoona, visited for a few days at the home of her brother, J. H. Biter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Foust and daughter, Amelia, spent Sunday at the home of Harry Isner, at State College. They were accompanied home by their son Merrill, who has been employed the past summer by a State road construction company in the western part of the State, is spending a few weeks at home, while the company moves its equipment to Allentown, where they have taken a contract. Mr. Slack will then go to Allentown to work. Miss Edith Sankey, of Middleburg, spent a few days this week with friends and old acquaintances.

Now Drive The Car!

Only those who have driven a Dodge Brothers Special Sedan—or any Dodge Brothers car BUILT RECENTLY—can fully appreciate all that Dodge Brothers have accomplished during the past few months.

So swiftly has improvement followed improvement, that today the car, to all intents and purposes, is a different and incomparably finer vehicle.

The announcement of smart new body lines and attractive color combinations first attracted general favor. But since then, improvements even more fundamental have been accomplished mechanically.

Drive the car NOW! Observe its impressive new silence, smoothness and elasticity of performance, and you will then begin to realize just how vital and varied these and other later improvements actually are.
