Rev. E. R. Corman and Mrs. Corman are at the Fisher home. The former and E. M. Fisher have been scouting the mountains for pheasants, but without success. Hunters are finding some rabbits and they are said to be fat and sleek.

DEATHS

EMERICK—Oscar Emerick died on Saturday at his home in Freeport, Illinois, after an illness of a year or more. Some time ago he became paralyzed from the waist down. The deceased was a son of the late John Emerick and was born and reared on a farm east of Centre Hall where his eldest brother, George Emerick, now lives. He located in Freeport when a young man and engaged as a jeweler, and at his death was a member of the firm of Emerick & Ringer. The firm had three stores located in three towns.

Mr. Emerick was married to an Illinois lady, who survives him. The couple had no children. The brothers and sisters of the deceased who survive him are George and Luther M. of Centre Hall; Harvey, Millheim; Oregon, and Mrs. Mary Price, Antler, North Dakota. The age of the deceased was fifty-eight years.

KEEN—Alfred Keen, a retired farmer living between Millheim and Coburn, died Saturday morning. Interment was made at Millheim, Rev. F. H. Daubenspeck, pastor of the Lutheran church, officiating. He was aged sixty-nine years and three months.

Mr. Keen was a son of Henry and Harriet (Harter) Keen and was born and reared in Penn township. His wife, who before marriage was Miss Emma Wert, survives him, as do also eleven of his fourteen children. The children are George K., Millheim; Carrie, wife of Jess Allen, Freeport, Ill.; Ollie and Harry, Millheim; Sarah, wife of J. Roy Schaeffer, Centre Hall; Lizzie, wife of Sumner Vonada, Spring Mills; Jennie, wife of Frank Walker, Millheim; Katie, wife of Charles Brian, North Bend; Edna, wife of Frank McCrina, Williamsport; Homer W., Millheim; Hattie, wife of Wm. Behm, Aaronsburg; one sister Lizzie Keen, also survives the deceased.

BREON—Miss Mary Breon, a native of Centre county, died at the home of her brother, Roy Breon, at Jersey Shore, following an illness of four years. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Breon, of Aaronsburg; her brother Roy, at Jersey Shore, and one sister, Mrs. R. J. Lauerbach, also of Jersey Shore. Funeral services were held at her late home by Rev. G. W. Faus, of the Methodist church, after which the remains were taken to Loganton for burial.

BECK—Mrs. Regina Catherine Beck, widow of the late Israel Beck, of Clintondale, died Sunday morning at the Lock Haven hospital after a lingering illness. She was aged seventy-one years and was born in Woodward township, Clinton county, being the daughter of Felix and Catherine McCloskey, pioneer settlers. Since her marriage she has resided in Nittany Valley, and was a member of the St. Paul's Lutheran church of that place.

Surviving Mrs. Beck are four daughters: Mrs. William Kling, of Clintondale; Mrs. Thomas Greninger, of Lock Haven; Mrs. Thomas Stevenson, Mill Hall, R. 1; Mrs. George Fahringer, of Jersey Shore; two sons, Albert G. Beck, of Mackeyville; Claire S. Clintondale; one brother, Robert W. McCloskey, and one sister, Mrs. Samuel Blesh, both of Lockport.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Stevenson, Mill Hall, R. 1, with the Rev. D. O. Back of Salona, officiating. Interment in the St. Paul's cemetery, below Lamar.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Rev. D. R. Keener killed three blue pheasants on Tuesday. He was the only local hunter to report success.

Miss Mabel Sharer and Miss Mabel McGowan, both student nurses in the Lock Haven hospital, spent Sunday at the former's home near Centre Hall.

Reformed Church Gets Bequests. Emma McDevitt, who died in the Samaritan Hospital, Philadelphia on October 6, and whose will was probated, bequeathed the bulk of her estate to churches, church organizations and other institutions. She left $5000 in trust for Annie Gerhardt, upon whose death $5000 of the principal is to be paid to Ursinus College, Collegeville, to establish three scholarships.

After the death of Kate V. Wilde, a relative, in whose favor a trust of $5000 is created, $2000 is to go to the Board of Home Missions of the Reformed Church of the United States to establish church building funds and $1000 to the Betsy Orphan's Home in Wolmesdorf, Pa. A trust of $1000 is created for Mary P. Potts. On her death, the principal is to be paid to the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Reformed Church.

Trinity Reformed Church, Broad and Venango streets, gets $1000, and a like sum goes to the Children's Homopathic Hospital, Franklin and Thompson streets. After bequests to several relatives, the residue of the property is bequeathed to Trinity Reformed Church.

Portable Sawmill Men Meet at State College. Lumbermen and foresters from all parts of Pennsylvania and some from nearby states attended the third Portable Sawmill Week at the Pennsylvania State College last week. A varied program was presented. It included sawing for grade with tractor, electric motor and steam power, saw filing and filing, timber estimating, and talks by experienced sawmill men and foresters.

An octogenarian, Louis Angevine, of Byner, this state, was in attendance. For 24 years he was engaged in lumbering. Among the speakers was R. D. Garver, of the United States Forest Products Laboratory, Madison, Wis. Great interest was shown in the grading of lumber. L. W. Smith and John Hoffman, of Sheffield, Pa., showed how the portable sawmill operator can increase the value of his product by improving the grade of the lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Emehizer, of Houserville, spent a day last week with their son, Paul Emehizer, and family, of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Colver, and Mrs. Caroline McCloskey of Potters Mills spent Thursday evening at the C. P. Ramer home. Rev. and Mrs. S. F.
