POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR SHERIFF

We are authorized to announce that
E. SHERCKENGAST, of Centre Hall Borough, is a candidate for the nomination of Sheriff of Centre county, subject to the decision of the voters of the Democratic party, as expressed at the primary election.

FOR TREASURER

We are authorized to announce that
L. L. Saffell, of Centre Hall borough, is a candidate for the nomination of Treasurer of Centre county, subject to the decision of the voters of the Democratic party, as expressed at the Primary election.

SPINELESS, HEADLESS, HEART-LESS.

The Administration's foreign policy, if it can be called a policy, has caused this country to be isolated upon by the other American republics with suspicion and distrust where it has not actually provoked hostility. It has been denounced by many leading Democrats and not a few Republicans, as spineless, headless and heartless.

Ten years ago when we entered the World War upon the side of liberty and justice, substantially every other American country entered the war upon the side of this country. This was not done because they expected to contribute any force to the conflict, but to show their esteem for the United States and their loyalty to the cause in which we were enlisted.

Today, however, esteem and respect have been replaced by suspicion. Indeed, in some quarters this country is now looked upon with fear and enmity. Close observers of foreign affairs here are much alarmed over the situation and are urging broad, open, statesmanlike dealings with our American neighbors instead of the uncertain, mysterious, unfortunate policies that have been pursued.

Senate Bars Woods.

Cyrus E. Woods, formerly secretary of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and ex-Ambassador to Spain and Japan, was refused confirmation by the Senate as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The fight was in reality a fight on the unionized coal mines of Pennsylvania by the non-union soft coal collieries of West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The crusade against Woods was fomented and led from the outset by Senators Goff, West Virginia, and Sackett, Kentucky, both Republicans. It sprang from the fact that several years ago the Interstate Commerce Commission, by a three to two vote, granted the West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee coal fields a lower rate from their pit-mouths to the Great Lakes—a haul in some cases of 1900 miles—than was extended to Pennsylvania mines on Lake cargoes for a journey of 500 miles. The result of this discrimination has been the continuing ability of mines in the three favored States to outsell Pennsylvania competitors.

DEATHS

TATE.—William E. Tate, a resident in Centre Hall for about eight years, died at his home here on Saturday morning. Although no confined to bed, Mr. Tate had been under the care of a physician for a period of a week.

Interment was made on Tuesday, in the Branch cemetery, by the side of his wife, who died about two years ago. Rev. W. E. Smith, pastor of the Evangelical church, was the minister in charge. Representatives of the local order of I. O. O. F. and Rebeekahs read the ceremonies of the order at the grave.

Mr. Tate engaged in farming during the active period of his life. He moved to west of town onto the farm now Laurabelle. Interment was made at Madisonburg.

tired Reformed minister, died at his for the late Dr. C. S. Musse, leaving that residence after the doctor's death to make her home in Coburn.

church of Coburn. Surviving are two

James Ream, of Millheim; Mrs. Anne erian-Reformed cemetery at Rebersburg.

KRAPE.—G. Philip Krape, son of George A. and Margaret M. (Lape) Krape, former residents of Spring where he was a patient until his demise. George Philip Krape was born on March 27, 1911, and in addition to his parents is survived by one brother, ceased, and attended the funeral, as did also her brother, James B. Krape.

LONG.—William H. Long, a resident of Howard, dropped to the floor of his home dead shortly after eating a hearty breakfast. He was aged sixty-three years. He was the son of Rev. and Mrs. Conrad Long, and succeeded his father in the milling business, retiring during 1925. He was a progressive citizen, and by installing a dynamo in his mill was able to furnish Howard with electric light.

He married Miss Emma Reeder, of Lycoming county, who survives with two sons, Arthur, of Detroit, Mich., and George, at home. He also leaves one brother, Rev. T. A. Long, of Cedar Hosterman Insurance Adjusted.

Representatives of the General Adjustment Bureau, Altoona, and Clinger's Adjustment Bureau, Williamsport, met W. R. Hosterman, owner of the Hosterman garage, on Tuesday, and made a satisfactory adjustment of insurance on the loss sustained more than a week previous. Insurance was held in five or more companies. Mr.
Hosterman sustained several thousand dollars in loss over the insurance collected, due largely to having insufficient insurance on one or more divisions of his property.

All the damaged property was retained by Mr. Hosterman at an agreed figure.

Birthday Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stover, living on the Harper farm, east of town, were taken completely by surprise Monday night when a group of young people, thirty in number, stormed their place and made it known that they were "wise" to it being Mrs. Stover's birthday, and had come to help celebrate.
They brought with them their own refreshments, so that their host and hostess were not put to any inconvenience in that way. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Fetteroff, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Zettle and daughter, Miss Vianna Zettle, Mr. and Mrs.
Kryder Frank and son Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. John Dutrow and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Homan and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Fetteroff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Fetteroff and family, Charles Scott, Harold day and Sunday is now followed with Prisoner in County Jail Develops Blood Poison.

George Kosut, aged 40, held for murder by the Centre county authorities is suffering from blood poison at the Centre County Hospital, Bellefonte. Kosut and a companion, Mike Bundt, both Austrians, following a heating before Squire Hancock in Philadelphia, were lodged in jail on January 3rd, 1927, charged with the murder of Peter Jez, another Austrian, during a drunken brawl on New Year's day in Rush township, three miles from Houtzdale. Bundt is still in jail at Bellefonte. It is understood that he and Kosut will plead guilty when brought before the court and will claim self defense.

During the fight, the man killed got the right thumb of Kosut in his mouth and chewed it fiercely. It became very sore after he was put in jail and infection followed. It is not possible to determine at the hospital whether the thumb will be amputated or saved. While Kosut is a patient there, he is under constant guard, three men being employed, each relieving the other every eight hours.

Cow Testing Service Aids 1,175 Dairymen.

Fifty cow testing associations in Pennsylvania are adding their 1,175 members to more profitably produce milk. The benefit of this work affects 18,200 cows in 39 counties, the dairy extension service of the Pennsylvania State College reports.

During the past year, 19,025 cows made monthly records of more than forty pounds of butterfat, and 23,969 cows possessed monthly milk records surpassing the 1000-pound mark. One hundred and thirty-five purebred bulls were purchased for use in the herds of association members, and 1094 unprofitable cows were weeded out of the herds by the milk tester and scales method. Sixty of the purebred sires replaced grade bulls. Extension specialists held 194 meetings which were attended by 2567 members.

In January the Pennsylvania Dairymen's Association awarded prize ribbons to the owners of 301 herds which had produced an average of 300 or more pounds of butterfat per cow, and later in the year the National Dairy Association issued 335 prize certificates to dairymen whose herds had produced the same high yield of butterfat during the association year ending July 1.

The Burning of Chambersburg.

Brigadier John McCausland, one of the two last surviving Confederate army general officers, died at his home at McCausland, near Mt. Pleasant, W.
Va., during his sleep, Sunday night.

Although his name is linked with incidents in several of the important conflicts of the Civil War, his share in the defense of Lynchburg and his command of the raid which culminated in the burning of Chambersburg, Pa., probably are the most widely known of McCausland's activities. After the war, so bitter was the feeling over the burning of Chambersburg, that he was obliged to flee from the country and for a few years wandered about Europe and Central America, before returning.

The death of General McCausland leaves General Felix Robinson, living in Texas, as the only surviving Confederate army general officer.

STATEMENT SHOWS COUNTY
FINANCES IN GOOD SHAPE

Cash Balance on Hand January 1st Was $44,000 After Heavy Disbursements.

The cash balance in the county treasury on January 1, 1927, was approximately $44,000, according to figures compiled from records in the office of County Treasurer J. O. Heverly by his deputy, Agnes Atchison.
The amount of money with which the count can now embark on the new year is about $5,000 larger than on January 1, 1926.

The receipts show that during the year just passed collections made at the treasurer's office were $125,927.41, while $68,031.77 was turned over by the Commissioners as their receipts from various channels, shown in detail on the auditors' report which will be made public in a few weeks.

The largest month for collections was November when a total of $79-579.27 was dumped into the county coffers. December was a relative poor month for receiving money as the accounts show that only $4,459.07 came in.

Some of the channels through which money drains into the treasury are dog licenses, of which Treasurer Heverly issued 3,584 for 1926 and during December, 1926 sold 164 for 1927. Fishing licenses for the year numbered 3,929 with an additional 24 non-resident licenses; hunting licenses, 5,531, and 40 non-resident licenses. Mercantile taxes in the county brought $17,090.54. Other county taxes increase this amount to surprising figures.

The total disbursements for 1926 amounted to $189,274.39. This money went for new bridges—buying roads, court expenses, etc. It is gratifying to believe that this year about the same amount of money will flow into the county treasury, yet the heavy expenditure of 1926 will not be repeated and the balance for 1927 will be materially increased.

Those who have been housed up with colds for the past week are Mr.

inson and Mrs. J. H. Wagner.

Miss Mildred Palmer has gone to Linden Hill, where she will be employed for some time.

Samuel Lingle spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. Confer, at Nesbit.
Mrs. Ammon Hubb, of Reedsville, visited over the week-end with her mother, Mrs. John Wilkinson.

J. H. Wagner spent last week with his daughter, Mrs. Elmer Stump, at Mt. Union.

Mrs. Fred Klingelfer and four children, of Colyer, spent Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.
E. Foust.

A Stevens car bearing an Ohio license has been seen in our vicinity very frequently. We learned recently that it belongs to Dr. Wayne Schum-mann, who spends the week-ends at

Junior Farmers Need Club Leaders

GROWTH OF BOYS AND GIRLS AGRICULTURAL CLUBS

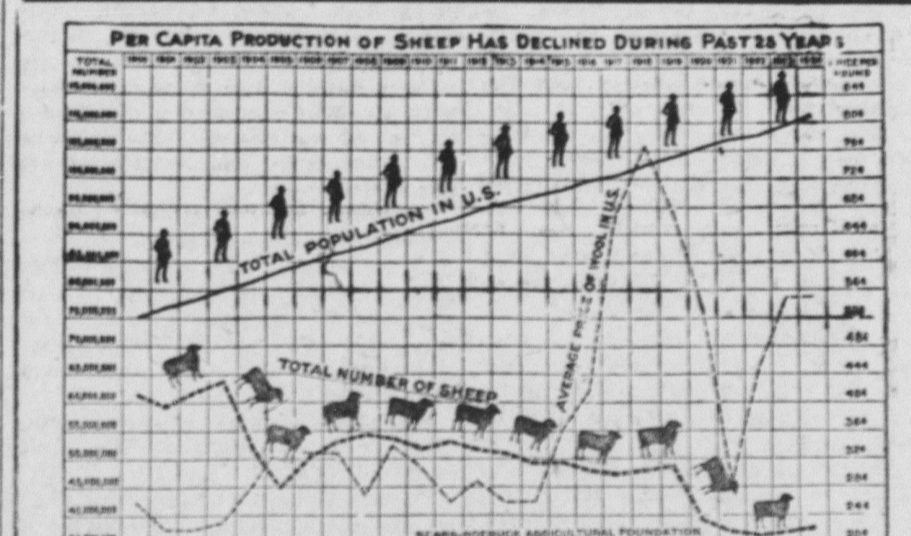

That club leadership must be increased properly to train the boys and girls of the nation who decide to remain on farms and become the bulwark of American agriculture is shown in a survey of the club work of the junior farmers just completed by Benjamin H. Darrow, director of the boys' and girls' club work of the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation.

According to the report of the Foundation, based on a count by the Department of Agriculture, 722,408 projects were begun in 1923 by 459,074 boys and girls, a number which is less than 6 per cent of the farm youth of the nation of club age. Of these projects 429,746 were completed by 249,416 club members. Girls completing their work outnumber the boys three to two, there being 150,194 girls and 99,222 boys. The report also indicates that 55.6 per cent of the enrolled girls finished their projects, while only 52.9 per cent of the boys completed theirs. The high point reached in 1918, as shown by the accompanying chart, was due to the expansion of club work in connection with the slogan of the day: "Food will win the war." After the crisis was over there was retrenchment and club work suffered.

"Many of the 8,000,000 boys and girls engaged in club work hope to leave the farm," said Darrow, "but 80 per cent of them will remain in the country, experience has shown. All who stay on the farm should have the benefit of the inspiration and training club work affords. If we are to provide this for the junior farmers of the nation, we must rapidly increase the number of county club leaders."

Bright Outlook for Sheep

The sheep industry presents one of the bright spots in the present agricultural outlook, according to the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation. The number of sheep in the United States has been increased for two years, but is still far from being back at wartime or pre-war figures.

more fat on the Hogs Milk in the Pail Money in the Bank That's what Palmo Midds mean to you. Thousands of farmers during the last 12 years have proved these facts. Palmo Midds is not a "manufactured" feed. It has but two ingredients—palm oil and high grade middlings.
Make High Test Milk and get the top price. You can do it easily. Palmo Midds increases the milk flow and produces a higher butter fat content. The palm oil does that. A single sack of Palmo Midds contains $1.75 worth of palm oil alone. Such remarkable value is matchless in any other feed; it explains the fast growing and tremendous popularity of PALMO MIDDS
Better leading results for less money Liberal protein, high fat, low fibre and moisture content—That's Palmo Midds. No feed in eastern or good so well with home grown feed. For dairy cows—more and better milk. For hogs—a balanced ration that quickly builds healthy fat. For horses—an excellent conditioner that makes grain unnecessary. For poultry—always AI results when fed as a mash. And best of all it is the lowest priced, high class feed on the market. What more can any feeder ask?
Try Ten Sacks
You are losing money every day you do without Palmo Midds. Hundreds of voluntary testimonial letters show this. What would it mean to you to save 20% even 10% on your annual feed bill? Do not overlook this opportunity to save on your feed expense, and add to your bank account. Give Palmo Midds a fair trial. The results will astonish you.
