MAY COURT IN SESSION.

The regular term of May court was opened Monday morning by Judge Furst, with the full complement of minor officers and jurors in attendance. After the preliminaries incident to all sessions of court were dispensed with and attorneys had presented matters to the court needing official sanction before becoming operative, various various liquor cases were heard and disposed of. Most of the cases heard on Monday and Tuesday were from Bald Eagle Valley, and among these were:

Second violation of the liquor laws by Daniel Straw. He was found guilty after a jury trial, and was sentenced to three months in jail and $150 fine. Marcella Beales, of Julian, also a second violator of the liquor laws, was found not guilty by a jury. A State police testified he had purchased two gallons of moonshine from the defendant and had paid $14.00 for it. The jury failed to be impressed with the testimony and returned a contrary verdict.

Floyd Johnstonbaugh, State College, charged with adultery, was convicted, and sentenced to six months in jail and $250 fine. The last case on Tuesday was that of Howard Walk, of Taylor township, charged with violation of liquor laws. Wednesday morning the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

Henry Sents, charged with manslaughter and driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated, is a patient in the Centre County hospital, consequently the case will not be heard at this court. It is presumed that when he appears before the court he will plead guilty. Sents is the man who was driving the Ford car when it upset and killed Theodore Taylor, last winter, in the vicinity of Tusseyville school house.

FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College.

Feed Bees to Save Lives—Keep the strength of the honey bee colony up to standard by preventing starvation this spring. Look at the hives and if they do not contain the equivalent of three frames of honey, begin feeding sugar syrup to the bees.

Do Not Pasture Calves Too Soon—Spring calves should not be turned on pasture until they are 4 to 6 months of age. Less digestive trouble and more satisfactory growth will result.

Garden Furnishes March Food—The ideal garden provides plenty of vegetables which not only keep the family well supplied during the growing season but also provide food to be canned, dried or stored for the winter months.

Grow a Ton Litter—Be sure to enter that litter in the Keystone Ton Litter Club before May 31, the final date for nominations. You will find that it pays to grow a ton of pork per litter in 180 days.

Improve Dairy Barn—Now is the season to look over the dairy stable and see what improvements or changes can be made that will lessen labor or increase the comfort of the cows. Less labor increases yields and profits.

CHAUTAQUA DATES

WORLD'S S. S. CONVENTION.

Gathering Will Be Held in Los Angeles, from July 11th to 19th.

The Sunday School Association of the world holds a great World's Sunday School convention each four years. Seven years ago it was held in Tokyo, when near two hundred delegates from Pennsylvania attended.

In 1924 it was held in Glasgow, Scotland, when Pennsylvania delegates again outnumbered those from any other State, totaling more than three hundred.

This coming year, July 1928, this great convention will be held in Los Angeles, California, where delegates from near every nation on the earth will be present as part of this enormous gathering. The convention will be in session from July 11th until July 19th, and leading experts in Sunday School work from over the world will be present for addresses or conferences.

It is expected that three train loads of delegates will go from Pennsylvania in through Pullman trains without change. Routes are being considered and planned at this time by a committee appointed by the Penna. State Sabbath School Association at its recent Board meeting. The committee is composed of Walter E. Myers, chairman, 1511 Arch St., Philadelphia; Harry E. Painley, Reading Terminal, Philadelphia; J. A. Lansing, Scranton; H. C. Heckerman, and J. W. Vickerman, Pittsburgh.

Some round trip tours already suggested, covering expenses, hotels, sight seeing, etc., for points of interest going one route and returning by another are offered as low as $260.00. Pennsylvania stands higher in Sunday School work than any other State.
