DEATHS CLOSE—William H. Close, Civil War veteran and highly esteemed Postmaster at Oak Hall Station, died at his home of complications incident to advanced age. He had been ailing for the past several years. Deceased was the son of John and Rachael Longwell Close and was born at Sigerville, Mifflin county, September 27, 1844, making his age 82 years, 7 mos. and 21 days. He received his early education in the public schools at Sigerville. In 1862 he came to Centre county and had been a resident of Oak Hall since.

On December 22nd, 1862, he enlisted in Company H, 148th Pennsylvania Infantry, then under the command of Captain George Baird, and served until the end of the war. He participated in many leading engagements and was wounded three times. Among the engagements were the Wilderness, Poo River, Spotsylvania Court House, Antietam, and others. After receiving his discharge he returned to Oak Hall and engaged in farming. In 1887 he was appointed Postmaster at Oak Hall, and so faithfully did he perform his duties that he held the position for 27 years, though politically he was a Democrat.

On December 15, 1867, he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Benner who preceded him to the grave. To this union were born the following children who survive: Mrs. Ira Corman and Milo M. Close, of Oak Hall; and C. E. Close, of State College. Deceased was the last member of his family. Funeral services were held from the Lutheran church at Boalsburg, the Rev. W. J. Wagner officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery near the church. He was a member of the Robert M. Foster Post No. 197, G. A. R., the surviving members of which officiated at the grave.

DONOVAN—Jeremiah Donovan, who made his home with his son, Frank Donovan at Aseman, died of heart trouble. He was born in Ireland and was aged 55 years, 3 months and 21 days. "Jerry" was a well known character throughout the county and will be greatly missed by numerous friends who mourn his passing. He was a dealer in scrap iron and rags and continued this occupation until forced to retire on account of advanced age and poor health. His wife, Mary Donovan, preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. Surviving is one son, Frank, with whom he made his home, and the following step-children: Gust Armer, William and Mrs. Harry Lutz, of Bellefonte, and Nellie Armer, at home. Funeral services were held from the St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte.

MILLER—Ruth Margaret, aged 1 year, 7 months, 7 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, died at the parental home at Madisonburg, Wednesday of last week. Interment was made at Madisonburg, on Saturday, Rev. W. A. McClellan being the officiating minister. The child had been ill with pneumonia, but had recovered. Later she became ill and died from intestinal impaction.

KREBS—David Clyde Krebs died at Pine Grove Mills. He was born on the Krebs homestead at White Hall, Sept. 27, 1861. His first wife was Ella Confer, to whom was born six children. His second wife, who survives him, was Elsie Fortney. Several years ago the deceased moved from the farm to the home where he died.

CLOSE TO DEATH. Miss Emma McCoy, who had been ill for some weeks, was reported to be close to death on Wednesday morning as this issue went to press.

County S. S. Convention. The Centre County Sunday School convention will assemble in Phillipsburg Friday and Saturday of this week. The first session opens at 2 P. M.

REBERSBURG. Bernice Crouse, the organist at the Scenic theatre, Bellefonte, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Crouse.

Eugene Smull and family, of Pittsburgh, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Smull.

Carrie Detwiler returned home after a short visit in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bierly drove from Endicott, N. Y., on Saturday, and visited among relatives until Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Tarbert and sons Jack and "Billy," of Pittsburgh, are at the home of Mrs. Tarbert's parents, C. O. Melroy.

Willis Best and family, of Williamsport, were among relatives for the week end.

Curtis Weaver, of Reading, Palmer, from State College, Harry and William from Pittsburgh, were all at the home of their father, Calvin Weaver, over the week end. These are splendid young men and all hold good positions.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tyson left for Harrisburg Saturday and will visit among relatives until Tuesday. The junior class of the Hagersburg High school held a picnic in Colby Narrows on Saturday in honor of the graduating class. All report having a good time.

Helen Moyer having graduated from the High school, entered Williamsport Commercial College on Monday. Mrs. Gertrude Frank and grandson, James Frank, accompanied Mrs. Solley to her home in Passaic, N. J., for a visit.

16 GRADUATE FROM CENTRE HALL HIGH Exercises Held Tuesday Evening In Grange Park Auditorium—Audience Appreciates Efforts of Young People.

Sixteen young people graduated from the Centre Hall High school at exercises held on Tuesday evening in the auditorium on Grange Park. In many respects this school function was not dissimilar to those at the close of the school term of other years, and in others it was. One noticeable thing was the very much "at home" feeling on the part of the boys and girls who wore the mortar-board and gown. They appeared to be at perfect ease while on the stage, and a large per cent. of them spoke distinctly and could be heard and understood by all in the large auditorium.

The program which appeared in the issue of this paper of last week was executed in full and need not be repeated here. The names of the graduates are appended as a matter of record. No attempt will be made to praise individual accomplishments, although as one might expect in a class of sixteen there were degrees of superiority. Speaking of the class as a whole, it was up to the high standard of this school in years past. It may be said without prejudice that this standard is not attained in all High schools in localities like ours.

After the exercises incident to the closing of High school work by the 1927 class, several prizes were awarded pupils for particular work. Russell Colyer, 1929, was awarded a prize of $2.50, in gold, by the Vocational Department of the State for the highest scholarship and note book in the agricultural course.

Eugene Colyer, 1929, medal by the Illinois Watch company for the best essay on Lincoln. The local W. C. T. U. gave four prizes for the best essays on any one of three subjects. The prizes were $2.50, $1.50 and two $1.00, and were won in the rotation given by J. Ernest Wagner, Fay Bradford, Margaret Luse and Joseph Ramer. County Superintendent F. Glenn Rogers sat on the stage and at the close of the program by the pupils made a few remarks, encouraging the graduates to further pursue their studies.

The graduates: *EMELYN BRUNGART *GERVIN SCHAEFFER RUTH MUSSER KENNETH WERT ALMA WERT ELIZABETH BARTHOLOMEW GRACE MARTZ EDITH MOLTZ EUGENE BURKHOLDER LUELLA RIPKA GRACE WIBLE LOUISE SMITH MARTHA WERT *ENORA FAUST ELLEN ALLEN *HAZEL BURKHOLDER *Salutatorian. **Class honor student. ***Valedictorian.

Class Night. Class night was observed by the graduating class on Friday, evening and was enjoyed by a large number of persons who gathered in the Grange Park auditorium. The affair was a most delightful one and characteristic of the class spirit. The performance and especially the singing was all one could ask of young people.

Baccalaureate Sermon by Rev. Hazen. The baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class was preached by Rev. C. E. Hazen, in the Reformed church, Sunday evening. During the professional played by M. W. A. Olenkirk, who presided at the pipe organ, the class marched into the church in a body, wearing caps and gowns, and took their seats. Rev. Hazen's text was: "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with all thy might." Rev. Hazen brought before the class and his large audience a thoughtfully prepared sermon. The class gave every impression of having been in a receptive mood, and if such is true, Rev. Hazen's words have doubtless made a lasting impression upon the minds of many of the young people.

POTTERS MILLS. Mr. Edward Foust, wife and two children, accompanied by Mr. Johnston, wife, daughter and husband, all of West Chester, spent the week-end with friends and relatives.

Harry Foust and family spent Sunday at the home of his brother, James, at Centre Hall.

C. M. Bible, wife and daughter, of Pittsburgh, visited over the week-end at the G. H. McCormick home.

Miss Ellen Kimpfort, from Georgia, is spending the week at the home of her cousin, Miss Lizzie Slack.

Mrs. Clayton McKinney and little son, of Altoona, visited over the week-end at the home of Sarah Landis.

Word was received on Sunday evening by his son Harry, that Lewis Foust had been struck by an automobile while on his way home from church, in Burnham. He received a bad scalp wound and several fractured ribs.

Charles Miller's brooder house at Centre Hill burned down on Sunday night, with about 350 chickens. Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ennist and two children, of Yeagertown, spent Monday at the Mrs. Blauser home.
