

Lindbergh and Herrick at Le Bourget Airdrome

This photograph, just received from Paris, shows Captain Lindbergh with Ambassador Herrick being greeted at Le Bourget airdrome by Col. Paul Marchetti, commanding officer.

Fast Cruiser Memphis Brings Lindbergh Home

Photograph of the U. S. S. Memphis, a light cruiser that was selected to bring Capt. Charles Lindbergh home because of its speed.

Lindbergh's Smile of Triumph

Photograph of Capt. Charles Lindbergh, hero of the nonstop flight to Paris, with the boyish smile that wreathed his face at the completion of his great feat.

Wearing Legion of Honor Medal

Captain Lindbergh, with President Doumergue of France and Ambassador Herrick, just after the young aviator had been decorated with the medal of the Legion of Honor, seen on his breast.

HIS FLYING CROSS

Above is a sketch of the distinguished flying cross, new American decoration, awarded to Captain Lindbergh. He gets the first one of these crosses made. The medal is of bronze suspended from a silk ribbon of the national colors. It is a simple cross on which is superimposed a four-bladed airplane propeller projecting slightly beyond the ends of the cross. In the angles of the cross are sun rays, forming a square typifying the splendor and glory of the deed for which the cross is awarded.

TO BE DRY CZAR

Seymour Lowman, former lieutenant governor of New York, who is to be assistant secretary of the treasury in charge of prohibition, to succeed Lincoln C. Andrews, August 1.

SUCH A BORE

"On being offered $70,000,000 for one of his properties," we read, "Mr. Mellon replied, 'It's a good price, but I don't care to be bothered reinvesting $70,000,000.'"

That has frequently been the objection in our own case, "No," we say quietly but firmly, "your proposition is interesting, but really we prefer not to have the bother of rehandling and reinvesting $50,000,000 or $80,000,000; it cuts into our golf so."—New Haven Register.

Plenty of Slate

"Put that down on the slate," charged the impetuous citizen of the dealer who had sent him up a ton of coal.

"I hain't got no slate," snapped the vender ungrammatically.

"You hain't? Well, when I get home I'll guarantee to dig enough out of my bin to cover the roof of a house."

MUST TAKE ITS COURSE

First Link—"He's golf-crazy." Second Link—"Let him alone—it's a disease that has to take its course."

The Better Plan

This living for tomorrow
May be some people's way—
Tomorrow may bring sorrow!
Let's live a lot today!

A Natural Surgeon

"I believe," declared the Irishman, "that me youngest son's born t' be a surgeon."

"Phwat leads ye t' say thot?" asked his friend.

"Oi caught him usin' th' scissors on a book Oi'd lately bought, an' before Oi c'd stop him he cut out th' appendix."

Tough Luck

"I see," said Jones, at the supper table, "that the visible supply of coal will be exhausted in 15,000 years."

"John Sniffen Jones, that's just like you," exclaimed Mrs. Jones snappily. "I told you to order enough for the whole winter."

Being a Young Lawyer

Ted—I'm too young to marry you? Then you're too old for me?

Villet—Oh, maybe I was too hasty in speaking!

RIGHTO

First Fish—You say he's stone broke—no money at all?

Second Fish—Not a cent!

First Fish—Well, the poor fish!

Reason for Hate

Perfect Confidence

Marion—It's ridiculous to say that my diamond ring isn't genuine—I trust Frank implicitly.

Doris—But if I were you I'd consult a jeweler.

Marion—Oh, I've already done that.

Two Sides to It

Brandon—It must be terrible for an opera singer to realize that he can never sing again.

Bunker—Yes; but it's much more terrible if he doesn't realize it.

Distinction

"What does your old man do, Mrs. Rags?"

"You mean now or when I was married?"

"Well, what did he do and what does he do?"

"Nothin'."

He Could Prove It

First Bird—Don't you know better than to sit on this chimney? You're getting all dirty.

Second Bird—Soots me all right.

A Little Learning

Five hundred farmers will sail in July for a 9,500-mile tour of the Old world. They are going not to visit cathedrals, art galleries, castles, mountain resorts and watering places, but to study the agricultural methods which have enabled European farmers to surpass our own. For instance, the superior European farmer sticks close at home patiently applying certain well-known principles taught by experience and government experts, and practically never tours America. He can't afford to tour America. And as he looks over his visitors he surely will conclude that American failure is a wonderful thing.

Bigger Babies

In a letter to the Journal of the American Medical Association, a New York clothing manufacturer asserts that his company has been forced to increase the size of the dresses for one, two and three-year-old children. Persistent complaints that the necks of the dresses were too small have come to him during the past year for the first time in thirty years' experience. Most of the complaints came from California. This seems to show that the size of American babies is increasing. Californians may now point to another benefit of their glorious climate.

Housing Problem

"Thousands of corpses are burned, tens of thousands are homeless," said Arthur Brisbane, speaking of the Japanese earthquake. And, if you never have been a homeless corpse, you don't know what hard luck is.—Springfield Union.

Cat Adopts Skunks

A mother cat with four kittens came to the farm of F. A. Jones at Brookfield, Mo., but Jones, having other ideas on the subject, consigned the four kittens to the creek. The next day his small son informed him that the kittens were safe and sound. Recalling the traditional nine lives, Jones investigated and found that the cat had acquired four other kittens without doubt, but instead of their being some other feline offspring they were of the genus mephitis, or common American skunk.—Indianapolis News.

Quarantined!

Millions of cockroaches already exterminated! Beware!

THERE'S PANIC in Bugville! Cockroaches are dying by the thousands!

Use Peterman's Roach Food in your house. Exterminate every roach.

Don't fight roaches with a spray. You must have a powder. Peterman's is the right powder.

It entices roaches from their hiding places. They carry it back on their legs and bodies to their nests behind base-boards, under floors where no spray could possibly reach.

Every adult roach, the young, every egg in the entire colony is exterminated. No odor. Nothing is left but a little dry dust. Use Peterman's has the right insecticide for each insect. On sale wherever drugs are sold.

Peterman's Roach Food now. Keep them out. Don't let them get a start.

Here is the right insecticide for each insect:

PETERMAN'S ROACH FOOD exterminates that cockroach army.

PETERMAN'S ANT FOOD exterminates ants.

FLYOSAN kills flies and mosquitoes.

PETERMAN'S DISCOVERY exterminates bedbugs.

PETERMAN'S MOTI FOOD protects against moths.

You must have a specific insecticide for each insect. No single insecticide will exterminate them all. We have had nearly 50 years' experience. We know that is true.
