FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College.

Take Care of Flock.—Provide roosts for chicks at three weeks of age. Remove cockerels when eight weeks old or sooner. Clean brooder house twice a week and move it to a clean area. Keep liquid milk before the chicks or feed a mash containing 40 per cent dried milk.

Farm Hints by Radio.—The Pennsylvania State College is continuing the broadcasting of programs during the summer months. Each Monday night at 8 o'clock agricultural faculty and extension men give timely talks and hints for farmers, gardeners and orchardists. The new wave length for WPSC is 299.5 meters.

Make Good Hay for Cows.—Hay for dairy cows should be cut early as it contains more milk-producing power and is more palatable than when cut later.

Thin for Quality Fruit.—Thin the heavily loaded apple tree. Trees with light crops and on fertile soils may not need thinning. Your county agent can tell you what to do.

Train Climbing Vines.—Climbing vines need training and careful attention every few days in their early stages. Such treatment is especially important with permanent hardy types.

Plan Fair Exhibits.—Now is the time to plan the exhibits for the fair season. Remember the points upon which they were marked down last year so that you can guard against a repetition before the judges this year.

Remove Old Rooster.—As soon as the breeding season is over take the old rooster away from the flock.

THE DAIRYMAN'S CALENDAR

As a progressive Dairyman desiring to secure maximum profits from my milk herd, I realize the necessity of adhering to an organized schedule of care, feeding and handling.

| JANUARY | AVERAGE MILK PRODUCTION PER COW IN DIFFERENT COUNTRIES UNITED STATES: 15.5 CANADA: 14.5 SWEDEN: 13.5 AUSTRALIA: 12.5 JAPAN: 11.5 FRANCE: 10.5 | Any cow in my herd suspected of being a boarder or otherwise feet to alley; qualifications shall undergo a fair, but thorough test. What I spend on my herd must come back to me at a profit. | JULY |
| | My first step should be the selection of a true type herd sire—a selection which should always command great care and good judgment. | During the hot months, whenever possible, I shall wrap my herd with a cool, clean, outside resting place, where they may chew their cuds in peace and ruminate on the blessings of being a cowherd rather than a parasite. | |
| FEBRUARY | Proper selection of dams also will bring its own rewards in more milk, better milk and better animals. | A clean barn, clean bedding, water at the station and no milking within an hour of feeding, are all part of the program which I shall enforce rigidly. | SEPTEMBER |
| MARCH | The comfort of the animal is important. Thorough cleaning aided by periodical clipping about flanks, udders and underlines during stable months and all over the body when turning out in the spring, shall be part of my program. Clean animals, clean milk with low bacteria count. | The dairy or creamery that buys my milk must value quality and sanitation as much as I do. They must carry on from the point beyond which I have no control. | OCTOBER |
| APRIL | The growth in the number of cow testing associations convinces me that membership in one is a good thing. I pledge my association full support and co-operation. | Proper feeding is essential. Therefore I shall always provide a carefully balanced ration to my herd, as well as a plentiful supply of pure, clean water. | NOVEMBER |
