COXEY-HESS.

One of the prettiest weddings that has taken place in Boalsburg in some years was that on Tuesday afternoon, 21st inst., at the Zion Lutheran church, when Miss Eemeline Hess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Hess, became the bride of Paul Coxey, of Boalsburg. but who-is now located in Altoona.

Using the ring service the cermony was performed by the pastor, Rev. W. J. Wagner. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white canton crepe, trimmed with rose point lace and rhinestones, with an embroidered crepe veil. She car ried a shower bouquet of white rosebuds and lillies of the valley.

The attendants included Mrs. John Ishler, a sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor, who wore a gowl of peach colored chiffon taffeta. The bridesmaids, Miss Anna Mary Hess, sister of the bride, Miss Mildred Kuhn
