LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Sprucetown M. E. church will hold a festival at Potters Mills on Saturday, August 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Burris and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Stover, of Yeagertown, visited J. Finn Stover, at Midway, in the Pittsburgh district.

Mrs. James O. Sharer, of Scranton, was a guest of the C. F. Emery family, in Centre Hall, for a week. She has long been a friend of the family.

The new concrete road over Seven Mountains is about being completed.
The roadway is now in use, and the berms and head walls of the culverts are almost finished.

Miss Helen Foster, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Foster, of State College, is in Ocean City, N. J., for the summer. On her way she made stop-overs in Harrisburg, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

We have been having rather warm weather during the past four or five days, but we are in need of it to develop crops, so don't complain. The condition of corn throughout the State is the poorest on record.

The Lord Construction Company, builders of the cement pavement over Seven Mountains, were successful bidders on a new cement road in Juniata and Perry counties, and will immediately ship their equipment there.

Provided everything works as planned, Richard Brooks, a North Potter township, Republican booster, will be on the State payroll. His salary, or fees, as the case may be, may be accruing by the time the Reporter readers find this bit of news here.

Both an instructive and entertaining children's service was rendered in the Methodist church in which a large number of little people—some two years old—participated. The parts taken by the little folks were well performed, whether in music, poetry or prose. The attendance was large.

During the past few years announcements were made at various times that the Moose theatre would be remodeled on the interior and the approach improved. The contract for improvements has been finally let to E. M. Gehret of Bellefonte, who has already entered upon the work.

After being at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gramley, at Millheim, for a few days, John Gram-ley is at a boys' camp in the Pocono Mountains giving the youths instruction. Mr. Gramley is a Penn State graduate and in June finished teaching at Upper Darby, a Philadelphia suburb.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCormick, of Columbia, South Carolina, were up north the latter part of June, and visited Mrs. McCormick's mother, Mrs.
Eliza Meyer, and brother, John D.
Meyer, in Tyrone, and other relatives and friends hereabouts. Mrs. Meyer accompanied the McCormicks to Centre Hall for a day.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George L.
Hornor, on Nittany Mountain, was enlivened recently by the home-coming of three sons and their families for a few weeks' stay. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hornor and three children, of Amboy, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hornor and child, of Freeport, Ill.; and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Hornor, of McKeesport, Pa.

An effort is being made to improve the asphalt-top road between Pleasant Gap and Bellefonte, which has never been satisfactory since its construction about war time. The asphalt top rolled and became almost immediately an undesirable roadway.
An attempt is now being made to reduce the fault by applying road oil and limestone chips, the effects of which are uncertain.

DEATHS

KRISE.—Mrs. Harriet Newell Krise, widow of the late Z. P. Krise, died Wednesday evening, June 29th, at the home of her eldest son, William L.
Krise, at 201 Montgomery Avenue, West Pittston, Pa., after being ill for about a year with complication of diseases.

Mrs. Krise was the daughter of the late Associate Judge William W. and Jane W. Love, of Potter township.
She was born at Tusseyville, Centre county, December 10th, 1855, making her age past 71 years.

Surviving her are her three sons, William L. and Wayne K., both in business in Pittston, and Charles M., of Harrisburg. Also a sister, Mrs. Elmer Campbell, of Linden Hall. She was the sister of the late Mrs. George Boal and Mrs. David Runkle. Funeral services were held at the home at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 2nd, and interment made in the Pittston cemetery.

HERMAN.—Clark Herman, who had been assessor for the borough of State College for the past thirty years, passed away at the Centre County hospital Monday evening, July 4th. Although he had been ailing for some weeks, yet the end came suddenly.
Early in the evening prior to his death he had been to the Odd Fellows hall, but had difficulty getting home.
After his arrival there he was prevailed-upon to be taken to the hospital for treatment, and upon his consenting, arrangements were at once made for his removal to that institution, but he had been there but a few hours when the end came suddenly.

Mr. Herman was born at Roopsburg, this county, almost 71 years ago, and had long been a resident of State College. Forty-eight years ago he was united in marriage to Miss Nancy Stover, of Rebersburg, who, with two daughters, survive: Mrs. J. E. Isenberg, of State College, and Mrs. W. H.
Brown, of Eldred, Pa. One daughter, Serina, died at the age of four years.
He is also survived by one sister, Mrs.
Belle Keene, of Pleasant Gap.
Interment was made at Aronsburg.

HARSHBERGER.—Port Matilda suffered a distinct loss when Dr. Samuel U. Harshberger, the borough physician, died very suddenly in the Philip-burg hospital following an operation for intestinal trouble. Dr. Harshber-ger was the family physician for almost every household in that thriving community. He was one of those old-fashioned men who was loved and respected in the home as well as in the office. Dr. Harshberger was 76 years old. He is survived by his wife, three sons and a daughter. Funeral services were held at the home and interment made in the Friends cemetery in Half Moon valley.

RIDER.—Isalah Rider, known familarly as "Sawyer" Rider, died in the woods near his home along Pine Creek, about two miles east of Coburn, aged 81 years, 9 months and 1 day.

Mr. Rider was the second child and first son of Isalah and Susan (Wenrich) Rider, and was born in Haines township, in the vicinity where he spent his lifetime.
Forty-four years ago he was united in marriage to Sarah Ann Jordan, who survives with the following children: Elsie, married to George Bower, of Brownstown, Wis.; Elizabeth, married to Thomas Ellis, of Winslow, Illinois; Elnora, married to Charles Engle, of Shamokin; Katie Rider, also of Shamokin; and Leah, married to R. E.
Wert, of Lock Haven.

With the death of Mr. Rider the community loses an interesting character whose quaint narratives were interesting to all. He is the last of the Isalah Rider, Sr., family, a group of hardy mountain folk who enjoyed outdoor life.

ROOP.—Mrs. Amy Elizabeth Roop, widow of Thomas Roop, after a long illness died at State College. Mrs.
Roop was the daughter of Benjamin and Eve Way, and was born near Stormstown, in Half Moon valley, on March 16th, 1842. With the exception of the past 15 years, practically her entire life was spent in Nittany Valley.
She is survived by three children:
Rev. C. G. Roop, of Camden, N. Y.; C. L. Roop, of Swissvale, and Miss Mary V. Roop, at home. One daughter, wife of the late Rev. N. E. Cleaver, died sixteen years ago.
Interment was made at Gray's cemetery in Halfmoon Valley.

GARMAN.—George Benjamin Garman died in Trenton, N. J., at the age of sixty-five years. When a boy he lived in Centre Hall with his mother, Mrs. Anna Garman, of California, who with several children and brothers and sisters survive him.

$60,000 Lutheran Church.

A new $60,000 Lutheran church is to be built in Williamsport at the corner of Washington boulevard and Sherman street and will be known as the Church of the Redeemer.
The structure is to be of brick and to include a complete church plant.
In the basement will be a social room, dining room and kitchen. The Sunday school will take up the first and second floors of one part of the building. The large church auditorium includes a balcony arrangement.

Power Companies Merge.

The West Penn Power company has acquired the entire ownership, through merger proceedings, of the Keystone Power company, of Bellefonte. That company has taken over the property of the Keystone company, supplying power and light to all of Centre county.
The Keystone company has for some time been under the management of the West Penn company, and using the West Penn company power.
No change will be made in the local personnel, an all business will be transacted with the West Penn company at Bellefonte.

or of W. S. Brooks, in Centre Hall, on Friday evening, July 1st, it having been his 74th birthday anniversary.

V. Jodon, Grace, Jean, Emma, Geraldine and Isabel Jodon. Mr. and Mrs.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

D. K. Keller, after being ill for two weeks or more, is able to be about again.

Rev. Floyd Huff, former pastor of the Evangelical church here, now located at Mazeppa, was in town on Wednesday.

The new roof on the D. W. Bradford dwelling house keeps that property in the best appearing class in that section of town.

John H. Knarr killed a three-foot copper headed snake near the Dauberman slaughter house, one day last week.

A number of children in town are afflicted with the measles, which made their appearance simultaneously about five days ago.

Miss Wneedon, a nurse in training at the Lock Haven hospital, spent a week at the Jacob Sharer home as the guest of her friend, Miss Maybelle Sharer.

After being at the Gelsinger Memorial Hospital, Danville, since the first of this month, Mrs. James I. Fetterolf is reported as improving due to treatment at that institution. Her condition was rather serious and it was thought that an operation might be necessary, but treatment, as stated before, is beginning to show results.

The Service class of the Lutheran Sunday school was instrumental in securing clothing and bedding for the Mississippi flood sufferers and shipped it to the Red Cross, New Orleans, Louisiana, for distribution. The American Express company carries these donations free, and Merchant Charles Cupples contributed a barrel as a container.

The Fresh Air children booked for Spring Mills will arrive there at 3:05 a. m. Friday morning, 22nd inst., and those for Centre Hall, Tusseyville and Potter Mills are due here on the same day at 8:15 a. m. In case any of the parties entertaining the children are unable to meet, them at Spring Mills or Centre Hall, a member of the committee should be notified.

M. L. Emerick is back to his home from the Bellefonte hospital where he had been a patient for several weeks, and is very much improved. For a time he was in a very serious condition, suffering from bladder trouble, the operation performed by Dr. Locke proved successful a few days afterwards he began improving.

Mrs. George Robertson has been here since the beginning of the month. Her father, E. D. Brishin, a trip to the Gettysburg battlefields was made in the meantime, and today (Thursday) on returning to her home in Hartford, Connecticut, Mrs. Robertson will take with her father, who expects to remain there for a few weeks.
They will travel by automobile.

A sedan in which Dr. S. H. Rothrock, of Reedsville and relatives from Lewistown and Kansas, were passengers, began shimmying on the hill at B. W. Ripka's farm home and before it was gotten under control plunged through a fence into an oats field. Dr.
Rothrock was hurt to some extent and others in the car were battered, but the journey to State College was continued.

The PINK LABEL this week. Does yours show a 27 or 28? If not, you are in arrears, and a remittance will be appreciated.

ell and directed by Wm. Craft. It is a melodrama of crooks and romance, with Shirley Mason and Malcolm Mc-Gregor co-featured. The remainder of the cast includes Franklin MacDonald, James Bradbury and Frances Raymond.

It tells of the adventures of a lovely girl who finds she has married a thief and is being held for one of his robberies. Running away, she is hurt in a train wreck and betried by a wealthy man his mother, the latter believing the girl is her daughter-in-law. Critics say it races along at a thrilling pace to a gripping climax.

Since the beginning of the month farmers hereabouts have been engaged in haymaking and cultivating corn. The hay crop on many farms is not up to the average. Although one would think the excessive wet weather since early spring would be conducive to the growing of grasses and clover, the reverse seems to have been the case. Clover is lacking in many hay fields. Corn is making some headway, but on the majority of farms the crop is not the one talked of in a complimentary way.
