

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Cyrus Brungart home is being painted on the exterior by John Coldron and assistants.

O. F. Funk, a Grandview poultry farm employee, was laid off for a few days on account of sickness.

Albert Smith and George Lutz, employees on the State roads, have been laid off.

The edges of the macadam road through town are becoming much broken up, and unless attention is given soon permanent harm will be done.

Mrs. R. S. Boal and two little daughters, and Dorothea Martz, a niece, all of Altoona, were among friends in the valley for a few days beginning of this month.

Miss Pauline Renner, of Lewisburg, who since a tiny girl has been a guest of Mrs. Emma Emerick, in Centre Hall, every summer for a few weeks, is again being entertained by her.

Elmer Breon, of Bellefonte, announces himself a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, in the Reporter this week. This is Mr. Breon's second attempt at the nomination.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Martz and little daughter Ethel, and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Baney, made a trip to Williamsport to consult with Dr. H. H. Longwell relative to the health of the little girl.

P. H. Musser, of Millheim, stopped with the Reporter on Tuesday for a few minutes on his way to Pittsburgh. He was accompanied by Mrs. Musser, Bond Musser, E. I. Musser and daughter, C. O. Musser, and Mrs. Lida McCloskey. They were called to Pittsburgh on account of the death of Mrs. Musser's brother, George Cypher, of Wilkesburg.

The local Odd Fellows will hold a big picnic and festival at Centre Hall on Saturday, July 30th. Athletic contests and baseball games will hold the interest of the crowd for the greater part of the day. An outstanding feature will be the appearance of the Odd Fellow Orphanage Band from Sunbury, which will be here all day. The committee plans to make this a big time for everybody.

The State Game Commission has decided not to permit the slaughter of deer promiscuously for ten days as it first thought of doing, but now the peaky does are to be reduced in certain localities by "expert" shots named by the commission. This idea, too, is foolish enough to bring forth protests that may oblige the commission to change its views before the deer season opens.

D. A. McDowell, of Axemann, is a candidate for the office of Recorder of Deeds of Centre county, on the Democratic ticket, his formal announcement appearing in this issue of the Reporter. Mr. McDowell has been tax-collector of Spring township for the past six years, and although severely crippled, has given his position the best of attention, and to the entire satisfaction of those who have entrusted him with the office. He will make a strong candidate.

W. A. Fleisher, who for eight years has been located in Buffalo, New York, was a caller at this office last week. He and Mrs. Fleisher drove by auto to Pottery Mills where they were guests for a few days of Mr. Fleisher's father, T. J. Fleisher, who is just turning eighty years of age. Mr. Fleisher is employed by the Consolidated Aircraft Company in Buffalo, and is working on wing construction. He is looking forward to great development in heavier than air flying machines, both for pleasure and commercial purposes.
