

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The Brunkart reunion will be held at Hecla Park, August 20th.

H. L. Ebricht and family, and Mr. and Mrs. George O. Bennett occupied Sunset club house, Seven Mountains, during last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Getchell and family, of Uniontown, spent several days last week with Mrs. Getchell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Brunkart.

On his way west, traveling in his official car, Governor Fisher stopped in Centre Hall on Saturday evening for lunch. He was alone except for his chauffeur.

Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Philadelphia, and Miss Mary Blazer, of Selingsgrove, are spending a few days' vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Blazer, east of Centre Hall.

Rev. and Mrs. E. Roy Corman, of Sunbury, are both taking a six weeks' course in Columbia University, New York City. They were students in the same institution last summer.

On his last trip through here, Governor Fisher did not have that "lifetime friend" with him. Unless he is mighty careful, Dr. Jones may need a surgeon to reduce the "fracture."

Mrs. T. S. Kellogg and daughter, Miss Ruth Kellogg, of Scranton, were guests of Miss Mary Delinda Potter, a friend, at the home of her father, J. T. Potter, for a few days last week.

Rev. J. B. Landis, Mrs. Landis and children Ruth and Robert, of Fleetwood, were recent guests of Rev. and Mrs. D. R. Keener, in Centre Hall. Rev. Landis is pastor of the Fleetwood Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Lingle and children, of Chadds Ford, where Mr. Lingle is manager of the Sunny Ridge Farms, are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lingle, parents of the former, for a short vacation.

Miss Violet Gutelius, daughter of F. E. Gutelius, of Millheim, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Booser, on Sunday. She will return to East Orange, New Jersey, in the fall to resume teaching in the public schools.

Mrs. Estella Reish and three children, of Pittsburgh, accompanied her brother, Fred Bender, to his home here last week, and shortly thereafter Mrs. Reish took ill and was compelled to take her bed. She has since recovered.

A Shetland pony was presented to a young son of Earnest Treaster, near Fotters Mills, by the lad's uncle, A. W. Reiber, of Johnstown. The pony arrived Saturday by express and gave the youth the joy of his life when he first saw it.

A cablegram from the touring party in the Holy Lands, of which party Rev. W. R. Picken, of this place, is a member, states that none of the party was injured from the havoc wrought by the earthquakes. The party was in Jerusalem district at the time of the quakes.

While setting up farm machinery a week ago, D. W. Bradford received an injury to his right leg above the knee which at the time was thought slight until a few days ago when it began to pain him, and has since caused him considerable annoyance.

Misses Fay Bradford and Alma Lutz are taking their third year course at Camp Kenesatake, on Spruce Creek. The former's tuition is being financed by Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher and the latter by the Reformed Sunday school. The girls were taken to camp Tuesday morning by the Fishers.

A Frick high-pressure 25 horse power engine and boiler was recently installed at the Kelley saw mill, near Old Fort. The timber from the Brockhoff farm is at present being manufactured into lumber of various descriptions. W. Morris Kelley, a member of the firm, is in charge of the mill.

Several hunting clubs, one of which is from Lancaster, are dickering with J. Forrest Bible for a tract of land along the State road in Seven Mountains, on which to erect a hunting camp. Should the Lancaster people secure the site, it is their intention to build a camp pretentious in size and appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. James Strauser, of Philadelphia, where Mr. Strauser is employed as a carpenter, were about town on Sunday and, among other places visited by them was the R. M. Smith home. Mrs. Strauser, before marriage, was Miss Sadie Ott, daughter of the late James Ott, east of Centre Hall.

Prof. Decker is one of the instructors in the Vocational school at Spring Mills.

Sumner V. Hosterman, Mrs. Hosterman and daughter Frances, of Lancaster, were in Centre Hall for a short while on Saturday, having driven to Rebersburg the day previous. They were greeted here by many old-time friends, all of whom were pleased to see them. Mr. Hosterman continues to hold his place as assistant district attorney of Lancaster county and is much interested in politics, and politically is classed with the Gresham wing of the Republican party. Dr. G. W. Hosterman, who makes his home with his son in Lancaster, was also in town and was greeting old acquaintances right and left.

WHOLESALE THEFT OF ROOFING PAPER

Fourteen Bundles of Roofing Stolen from Carson's Store at Potters Mills, Sunday Night.

Late Sunday night some one loaded into an automobile fourteen bundles of roofing that had stood for many nights before on the porch of the F. A. Carson store at Potters Mills.

The noise attracted the attention of Mr. Carson, who went down stairs in his night clothes, but his flash light was not sufficient, it appears, to permit him to definitely describe the car or see the person.

Early Monday morning a search warrant was issued and the premises of James Frohm were searched, but apparently no evidence was obtained. At a hearing before Squire Keichline, Monday night, Mr. Frohm was bound over for court. W. H. Homan gave bail for his appearance.

At the hearing the defendant on the advice of his attorney, S. D. Gettig, refused to give any testimony, which turn of tactics indicates to a layman that he has a clear alibi. Local opinion upon the defendant as having had nothing to do with the case.

Bower Elected Chairman.

The Democratic county committee and the executive committee met Tuesday evening at the Bush House, where they were entertained handsomely by the various candidates of the party aspiring to office. There was a very complete representation of Democratic workers from every section of the county. The meeting was called to dispose of the resignation of County Chairman W. D. Zerby, who himself is a candidate, and elect a successor. This was done by passing two motions taken by chairman Edward Jamison, and resulted in the selection of John J. Bower, Esq.

The executive committee, which was fully represented, is laying plans for an aggressive and winning campaign.

We Are Going to Move a Lot of TIRES in a few Days

We know, and you know, that nothing will do this but a Slashing Reduction in Price.

Well, how's this :
 (Only 2 Sizes, but if you can use them you're in on this)

- 30x3 1-2 (A Standard Cord Tire) with TUBE, for $7.50
- 29x4.40 (A Standard Cord Tire) with TUBE, for $8.50

You ask : "How come the low price?" Simply this: We have bought heavily on these two sizes, and expect to do a volume of business at a small margin of profit.

If you're lucky enough to be able to use either one of these two sizes, snap this up. It's reasonable that those who delay in buying are going to be disappointed.
