

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Friday closes the first month of school in the borough and also in Potter township.

A Chrysler sedan was purchased by Morris A. Burkholder from C. P. Ramer, the Tusseyville Chrysler dealer.

The Picken home, on Church street, is advertised for sale in the sale register, October 15th; also, household goods.

Preaching services in the school house at Linden Hall, Sunday evening, October 2nd, at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. Sue Ecroyd.

The local lodge of Odd Fellows will hold installation ceremonies on Saturday evening of this week in their hall. Victor A. Auman, a former D.D. G. M., will do the installing.

Clifford S. Thomas, of near Centre Hall, went to Ford City, Canada, the latter part of last week, and on Monday attended the annual meeting of the Ford Motor Co. of Canada.

Mrs. Hulda Meyer, who has been spending some time with relatives in York and Erie, is on at the Centre Hall hotel and will spend the winter with Miss Laura Runkle.

While visiting friends and relatives at State College over the week end, Miss Mildred Palmer, of Potters Mills, was suddenly taken ill and was brought home. Her sickness is diagnosed as appendicitis.

Dr. C. F. Noll, who developed the famous Pennsylvania 44 wheat, was appointed superintendent of Penn State College farms, which place was made vacant in May when C. L. Gooding went to the National Farm School at Doylestown.

Mrs. Bernice Burbank Tressler, wife of Alfred Tressler, of Flemington, died in an auto on Sunday while riding with her family between Snow Shoe and Karthaus. She was aged thirty-eight years and is survived by her husband and five small children.

Lynnan L. Smith, the Democratic candidate for county treasurer, is the only candidate nominated by either party on the south side of Centre county. This alone ought to enthrone party spirit for him in the districts where Democrats are the most numerous.

While crossing Seven Mountains, one night last week, a deer leaped to the front of the Chrysler car driven by Morris A. Burkholder and was hit. The deer left several distinct impressions on the Chrysler hood to convince Mr. Burkholder that it wasn't a light tap he received.

Miss Edith Floray, assistant to Mrs. Winters, matron of the Evangelical Home at Lewisburg, was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Floray, south of town. Miss Floray is very much pleased with her position which she has successfully filled for over a month.

Albert Kribe and mother, Mrs. James Kribe, of Philadelphia, and J. Witmer Wolf and daughter, Miss Emma Wolf, of Ardmore, formed an auto party who were guests of Miss Grace Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Smith from Friday until Sunday morning. On Saturday they were entertained at Sunset club house.

Clair Strickler and John Rine, of Spring Mills, who have been held in the county prison since early in August, charged with having been the "hit and run" auto drivers who so seriously injured Nestor Gentzel near his home east of Old Fort, have plead guilty and will likely be sentenced before adjournment of court.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Bloom, of Williamsport, for a few days were guests of Miss Laura Runkle. Other guests of Miss Runkle at the same time were Mr. and Mrs. George Witmer, of Selingsgrove. Mr. Witmer won the Republican nomination at last week's primary in Snyder county for the office of county treasurer with a handsome plurality.

Miss Ethel M. Musser is teaching the third grade in the Drexel Hill, Delaware county, schools. She is a graduate of West Chester State Normal School. Miss Musser is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Musser, of Spring Mills, and is striving to attain laurels in the school room. Mr. Musser, her father, was in town last week and called at this office on business.

Misses Estela Hosterman and Ida Frazier, on Sunday, began a vacation which is being mostly spent with friends and relatives in Ohio. Among other places the pair are visiting are Youngstown, Bellevue and Painesville, in Ohio, and Beaverdale, this State. The former is a clerk in the local post office and the latter is employed in a similar manner in the Oriole store here.

A slight automobile collision in which none of the parties were injured occurred at the curve at Carson's store at Potters Mills on Saturday afternoon. The cars were being driven by Miss Laura Runkle, of town, and Constable P. C. Frank, of Potters Mills. Both parties carry insurance. The Nash coupe driven by the former has a crumpled fender and other parts damaged, while the constable's Chevrolet coupe is minus a wheel. The parties do not seem to agree as to who was in the wrong. Miss Runkle was accompanied by Mrs. Hulda Meyer.

Frank Smith, employed in the Fetterolf Garage, while driving his Star coach in the vicinity of Salona, was pulled over an embankment by a Chrysler sport roadster, driven by G. H. Farrington, a brother of the noted Prince Farrington. Mr. Farrington was in the act of passing the Star, when the front of the Star and the rear end of the roadster hooked up. The Star got a broken wheel, bent axle, etc., but no one was hurt. Mr. Smith was accompanied by his wife and children and Mr. and Mrs. Lovell Hettinger, also of town. Mr. Farrington brought the party to their homes here and made good the damage done to the coach.

SEPTEMBER COURT.

Trivial Criminal Cases Occupy First Days of Session—Number of Cases Settled or Continued.

Court convened on Monday morning with the Honorable James C. Furst on the Bench and other court officers in their respective places.

The civil list of cases was gone over and the following cases disposed of: Guy C. Irish vs. the Citizens Water Co. of Phillipsburg, a corporation; an action in assumpsit; settled.

General Motors Acceptance Corporation vs. H. A. Mark Motor Co. and Alfred P. Butler; an action in replevin; settled.

Moshannon Creek Coal Mining Co. vs. Simler Batcheler and John Batcheler, an action in assumpsit; settled.

W. L. Chilcote vs. John Laback, Halie Laback, Mrs. M. A. Laback, Annie Laback and George Laback, an action in assumpsit; continued.

The first case taken up for trial was Commonwealth vs. Mary Maxey; indicted for obstructing legal process. Prosecutor, P. C. Frank. The defendant is a resident of Spring township. Collection proceedings were instituted before a Justice of the Peace at Centre Hall, which finally resulted in an execution being issued by the Justice of the Peace to the prosecutor, P. C. Frank, who is Constable of Potter township. The constable testified that when he put up the bills for Constable's sale the defendant tore them down and that no bills were in sight when the Constable's sale was had on the defendant's premises, and that she threatened to scald him and those who were with him with a tea kettle of hot water. The defendant contended that she had taken the bills down after they were put up, but that she had put them up again and that they were up at the time of the sale. The case was tried on Monday forenoon and a verdict rendered on Monday afternoon of guilty, and the Court suspended sentence on the defendant and gave her six months within which to pay the costs.

The next case was a civil case of Charles Meyers vs. J. J. McCamley, being an appeal. This case grows out of the purchase of an automobile by the plaintiff from the defendant which the plaintiff contended was not what it was represented to be and returned the same to the defendant's place of business. It also developed during the trial that the plaintiff was a minor. At the close of the plaintiff's testimony counsel for the defendant moved the court for a compulsory non suit, which was granted.

Commonwealth vs. Walter Faulkner, indicted for a statutory offense. Prosecutor, Ida May Lindemuth. This case was tried on Monday afternoon and verdict rendered on Tuesday morning of guilty, and the usual sentence imposed.

"CAMILLE" COMES TO SCENIC THEATRE NEXT WEEK

Norma Talmadge Brings Her Up-to-Date Screen Version of Famous Play.

"Camille," most famous of all the sirens of the demi-monde in the nineteenth century, brought to life as the toast of modern Paris!

The celebrated "Lady of the Camellias," revealed as the most fashionable beauty of the hour, retracing the threads of her pathetic romance with a modern "Armand."

Such is the "miracle performed thru the medium of the motion picture screen at the Scenic Theatre, Bellefonte, where Norma Talmadge's resplendent, modern version of "Camille" will be shown next week—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Even the younger generation, in great numbers, is familiar with the magnificent love story of "Camille," her rise from humble employment in a glove shop to undisputed reign over the gayest set of Paris; her attraction of wealthy and titled admirers who came to mean no more to her than as many pawns in a game of chess; the birth of her one real, all-consuming love for the youthful "Armand;" her heart-rending sacrifice of happiness for his sake, and the tragedy of death which claimed her while she was penniless and alone, longing for the presence of "the lover who never understood," and who returned too late.

"Camille," produced by Joseph M. Schenck, for the National, is one of the most elaborate starring vehicles in which Norma Talmadge has appeared. Opposite her "Camille," a young Spanish actor for whom a brilliant future is predicted, Gilbert Roland, portrays the role of "Armand."

The supporting cast also includes Lilyan Tashman, Rose Dione, Harvey Clark, Alec Francis, Helen Jerome Eddy and others.

Miss Crouse, the Scenic's organist, will play the original music score for this attraction at all showings. Matinees daily at 2 P. M. Admission, children, 25c; adults, 50.

Keep in mind the dates—Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Oct. 3, 4 and 5.

"WHERE THE DOLLAR GOES THE FARTHEST"

Named From Wreckers' Trick

Nags Head, N. C., is a historical and romantic spot on the Atlantic ocean, abreast of Roanoke Island and 45 miles southeast of Elizabeth City. Nags Head got its name from the tricks of the wreckers of the olden days. One of these piratical people conceived the idea of tying a lantern to the head of a horse whose legs were fettered with hobbles. And as he limped up and down the beach, the storm-tossed mariner out at sea, taking the light for that of a ship sailing in safety, would hold up his helm for what he thought the calmer waters inside, and would eventually find himself upon the treacherous sands of the coast.—Detroit News.

THE HAAG NUWAY WASHER

THE DOUBLE TUB FOR $112.

Dominating the low priced wood-tub field is the HAAG "NUWAY" Model 10. The HAAG "NUWAY" received its name when Haag Brothers Company pioneered in manufacturing a wood-tub washer having all of the mechanism underneath the tub. This, of course, was a great advance from the overhead drive type in which part of the driving mechanism was on the lid and had to be lifted with it when opening the tub to put in or take out clothing.

Many women still demand the old wood tub washers used for so many years by their mothers and grandmothers.
