OCTOBER 14 IS COMMUNITY DAY AT SPRING MILLS

The annual Community Day, put on by the Gregg Township schools, will be held at the Vocational School, Spring Mills, on Friday of next week, October 14th. The exhibits will be unusually large, and the entertainment features novel and interesting.

The public is invited to exhibit fruits, garden products, poultry, grain, flowers and needlework, as well as canned products and baked articles.

A health program will be given in the morning, a general meeting at 1:30 in the afternoon, and an evening program at 8. Two athletic contests will be held between Spring Mills and Centre Hall, as well as games and races for all. A poultry judging contest for women will be held, and dairy judging contest for men. The school will serve a chicken supper in the evening beginning at 5 o'clock.

SECOND WEEK OF COURT.

Monday and Tuesday of the second week of court were devoted to hearing an insurance case coming from Taylor township. It appears that back in 1925 John C. Mark suffered the loss of both his house and barn by fire. Insurance was held in the Penn Mutual Fire Insurance company, of Chester, which company refused to pay the insurance, alleging the fire had been originated by some party.

The jury on Tuesday afternoon rendered a verdict in favor of Mr. Mark in the sum of $2450.00 with interest from July, 1923, making the total $2,975.00.

A second insurance case was taken up at once and is being held as this issue of the Reporter went to press. This case is from near Sandy Ridge.

The United States produced two billion dozen eggs last year. This is at the rate of about 760 eggs each second.

DEATHS

TRESSLER.—George Washington Tressler for twelve years a resident of Centre Hall and who during that time carried on a shoe repairing shop, died on Sunday forenoon after an illness of but a few days. For many years he suffered from asthma and later other complications arose, among them a weakening of the heart. Interment was made in the local cemetery on Wednesday morning after services were held at the home by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe.

Mr. Tressler was a son of Jeremiah and Sarah (Dale) Tressler, and was reared near Linden Hall. When a young man he took up shoemaking, learning the trade with his uncle, Henry Tressler, who lived near the penitentiary site. After marrying Miss Mary Shuey, the couple took up farming on a Tressler farm at Reitz's gap, in Harris township. Later they located on a farm near Oak Hall, and from there moved near Penns Cave, where they purchased a farm, and from this locality the couple came here.

There survive the deceased his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Clarence Musser, Centre Hall, Pa. Also a brother, Ruben Tressler, who lived with him at the time of his death, and a sister, Nancy, Mrs. J. H. Neese, of Howard.

Mr. Tressler was aged 70 years, 2 months and 14 days.

HECKMAN.—Jeremiah P. Heckman, for many years a resident of Gregg township, died at the home of his son, Nestor Heckman, below Spring Mills, on Monday night. Interment was made this (Thursday) morning, in the Georges Valley cemetery, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, his pastor officiating. He was the last of members of a family of several children, and for many years lived near to the cross roads in Georges Valley. He was a school teacher by profession, and successfully taught for twenty-one years. After closing his professional career he lived on his homestead an engaged in farming in a small way. He was a highly respected citizen and churchman, having long been a member of the Lutheran church. The deceased is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Miss Elizabeth Ayman, and a son, previously mentioned.

He had been in poor health for a long time and since last fall had been sick much of the time. His chief sickness was of a dropsical nature. He was aged 78 years, one month.

JODON.—Mrs. Saylor Jodon died at the Lock Haven hospital on Saturday after an illness of a few days from an obstruction in the bowels. The body was brought to Centre Hall on Saturday and later taken to the home of the deceased's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lingle, at Colyer. Interment was made in the Evangelical cemetery, Zion Hill, on Tuesday, Rev. W. E. Smith officiating.

Ether Lingle, the deceased, was married to Mr. Jodon about six months ago. The couple began housekeeping in Lock Haven, where Mr. Jodon is employed in a garage, shortly after their marriage.

The husband and the parents of the deceased, previously named, are survivors, as are also a brother and sister, John and Nancy, living at the parental home. Mrs. Jodon was aged twenty-nine years.

GOHEEN.—Miss Isabel Thompson passed out of this life on Friday evening at her home at Rock Springs where she and her sister, Mrs. Ella Gardner, made their home. She was aged seventy-one years. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, when interment was made at Graysville, Rev. McCracken officiating.

The deceased is survived by the sister previously named and a brother, Robert Goheen, of Bellefonte. Mrs. F. V. Goodhart and Mrs. H. W. Potter, of Centre Hall, are nieces.

JOHNSON.—Mrs. Augusta Ward Johnson, wife of Curt Johnson, died suddenly from heart trouble, at her home in Bellefonte. She had been ill for but a few days. She was a life-long resident of Bellefonte, having been born there in 1854, a daughter of Philo and Hannah Ward, both deceased. She was aged 73 years. Her husband, to whom she was united in marriage about 49 years ago, survives, together with four daughters, namely: Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, State College; Mrs. Julia Lomberger, Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Robert Gehret and Miss Hannah Johnson, at home. A sister of the deceased, Mrs. Wilson I. Fleming, of Bellefonte, also survives.

RIGHTNOUR.—Joseph Rightnour, a former Centre county detective, died at his home at Mount Eagle after a lingering illness with dropsy, aged 72 years. He was born in Tyrone on September 12, 1855, and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rightnour, both deceased. He is survived by his second wife, who before her marriage was Miss Emma Leitch, of Howard. His first wife, who was Miss Emma Morrison, of Port Matilda, died in 1905. These children of the first marriage survive: Galer and Joseph, of Bellwood, and Stella, of Tyrone. To the second union these children were born, who survive: Louise, a nurse in training in New York; Robert, Catherine, Elizabeth and Melba, all at home.

Interment was made in the Union cemetery at Bellefonte. The deceased held the office of County Detective during the ten years that Judge Love was on the bench.

STERRETT.—John D. Sterrett became ill at his home at Milroy, on Thursday of last week, and died the following day.

KLINGER.—The following is reprinted from a Joliet, Illinois, newspaper: James Horace Klinger was born in Centre county, Pa., on Sept. 6th, 1849, and died at Grand Junction, Colorado, Sept. 27, at the age of 78 years.

In 1867, when just a youth, he moved with his parents to Manhattan township. Later he united in marriage to Mary Pohlman and resided in Jackson county and Joliet until 1899, when he and his family moved to Colorado. He is survived by one son, Coy E. Klinger, and a brother, Peter Klinger, of this place, and a sister, Mrs. James Love, of Peotone.

STEVENS.—Mrs. George Stevens passed away at her home near Port Matilda on Sept. 28th, and was buried Friday afternoon from the Baptist church at Martha Furnace.

Mrs. Stevens was a daughter of the late John and Rachael Gingery and was born at Julian 66 years ago. She leaves her husband and one brother, David J. Gingery, of Tyrone, to mourn her death.

MILLER.—Mrs. Mary Catherine Miller, wife of Clair Miller, operator of the motion pictures at the Scenic theatre, died at her home in Bellefonte from illness superinduced by childbirth. Mrs. Miller was born at Axe Mann twenty-nine years ago, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Harter, both of whom survive in Bellefonte. She was united in marriage about ten years ago with Clair Miller, who survives together with four children, all at home. These brothers and sisters also survive: Earl Harter and Miss Jennie Harter, of Bellefonte; Ralph, of Sunbury; Paul, of Ohio, William, Harold, Helen and Grace, all at home.

Prisoner Refused Admittance to Western Penitentiary.

Last week's court hearings resulted in Judge Furst sentencing Mrs. Mable Craig to serve from two to four years in the Western Penitentiary, Pittsburgh, for her part in abetting the marriage of a minor couple, but when Sheriff Taylor delivered her to the institution in Western Pennsylvania, she was denied admittance because of the fact that no females are "entertained" there.

Charles Emel, the groom of the unlawful couple, and Harvey Walker, who also lent aid to bring about the marriage, also under sentence for from two to four years, were admitted to the pen, having been taken there with Mrs. Craig.

Mrs. Craig will be resentenced and sent to some other institution.

BRIEF SKETCH OF PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE FOR JUDGE

of the large interests of the county. This same business has led him largely into Orphan's Court work and the settlement of estates and care for widows and orphans. In many respects his professional life has become very similar with that of the late lamented Judge Keller. This very experience engendering in him open mindedness and ability to see the merits of both sides of a question, the desire while protecting his client not to wrong the other man, eminently qualifies Mr. Walker for the judgeship. All who know him well admit that if elected the judgeship will be along business lines, and its business promptly, fairly and honestly dispatched, and that every side will be given a courteous and careful consideration; that he will always be open to meritorious appeal, and able to see the human factor in the cause.

Happily he has no party bitterness nor has he ever been a factionalist. Consequently he will have no friends to reward nor enemies to punish. The people want that type of Judge and now is the opportunity to realize their desire.
