

DR. C. M. PARRISH.

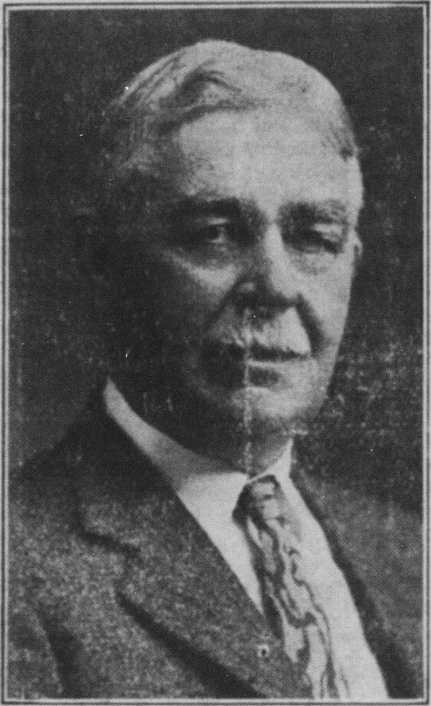

Thirty-six years in business in Bellefonte has cemented many friendships and indicates a balanced business head and methods. Dr. C. M. Parrish, well known district and business man, is qualified to serve Centre county as one of its commissioners.

Not only has Mr. Parrish been in business in Bellefonte that long, but he has been successful and enjoys the esteem and confidence of all who have dealings with him.

Mr. Parrish has never aspired to a public office before—he has been too busy conducting his own affairs to give that matter a thought, but he has never failed to exercise his right in selecting those whom he thought best to serve the county as public officials and has always turned in favor for the Democrats when possible.

Born in Cambria county, at Ebensburg he was a son of J. D. Parrish, a successful contractor. Incidentally his father was a county commissioner of Cambria county and our subject has inherited the conservative instincts and good judgment of his parent.

Mr. Parrish attended the public schools of Cambria county, then entered a printing shop learned the trade and spent six years as a compositor. He abandoned that trade when the professional world presented an opportunity and he became a clerk in a drug store. This work appealed to him so strongly that he went to Philadelphia and enrolled at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, working during his spare hours in a drug store. In this way he not only secured practical knowledge while attending school, but helped maintain himself in the city.

After his graduation from college Mr. Parrish operated a drug store in Crescon, while that town was a famed summer resort, later at Altoona and still later at Bellwood.

During the Johnstown flood he came to Bellefonte and established a drug store in what is now the Hayes block, moving several years ago to his own block, just across the alley. In that time he has acquired many friends and has stored away a world of business knowledge with which he is now armed to occupy a seat on the Centre County Commissioners' Board and wisely handle the taxpayers' money.

Mr. Parrish is modest and is far from being a politician in that sense of the word, but to meet him is to like him and he is trying his best to get about the county and make new friends. A vote for him, despite the fact that you may not be personally acquainted with him, is a safe investment and an expression in the man whom hundreds do know and want as their commissioner.

PLEASANT GAP

Ray S. Melroy and wife, and J. Abner Noll and wife, attended the York centennial the past week.

The members of the local W. C. T. U. will hold their dues social Nov. 8th, at the home of Mrs. Martin Keller. Every member is to be in old-fashioned costume, and those who do not dress according to the rule will be fined. The committee in charge of this "Old Fashioned Party" are Mrs. Keller, Mrs. H. D. Smeltzer, and Mrs. Wm. Kerstetter. The regular meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Martin Keller, and the various ladies handed in their reports. One of the schools visited by Mrs. Wade Evey and Mrs. Jack Noll, and taught by Harry Breen, wrote essays on what they remembered of what had been told them of the life and work of Frances Willard. The prizes were awarded to Gladys Samsel and Adeline Brooks. All of the essays showed thought and care in preparation.

Everyone sympathizes with Mrs. Annie Zelencic, as she has had more than her share of hard luck in the last week. Two of her valuable cows died from getting in the corn field and blowing, and a few days later her son George, in assisting Lloyd Smith of Milesburg, to load the dead animals on his truck, was unfortunate enough to break his leg, and is now in the Centre County hospital.

Miss Julia Hines, of Bellefonte, was a week end guest of Miss Grace Millward.

The Lutheran congregation celebrated the Holy Communion on Sunday. Rev. Wagner spoke on "The Compassionate Saviour".

Mrs. Jack Noll spent Saturday afternoon at the H. C. Faust home on Thomas St., Bellefonte.

Miss Eva Zimmerman was a week-end visitor in town. Miss Zimmerman now makes her home in Bellefonte.

REBERSBURG.

Prof. Earl Small and family, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday at C. C. Small's. Mr. and Mrs. Marsteller and son John Nevin, of Bloomsburg, were week-end visitors at J. N. Moyer's.

Lee Kidder and family spent Sunday with relatives at Mackeyville.

Wesley Hackenberg, wife and daughter, drove to the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Catherman, at Gettysburg.

Edwin Hancock, from Phillipsburg, visited at the home of his son, Prof. Gilbert Hancock, on Sunday.

Randall Brungart went to Philadelphia over the week-end to witness the Penn-Penn State football game.

Penn State, and Kermil Meyer, astenographer in the Williamsport Rubber works, spent Sunday with their parents.

Jasper Weaver and wife, of Mill Hill, were visiting among relatives, Sunday. Annie Walker went to Renovo on Monday to spend a week with relatives.

SPRING MILLS

Andrew Shook has been quite ill with grippe, but is recovering at present.

Mrs. Ellen Heckman sold her home to Asher Confer.

Rev. Victor Royer took his mother, Mrs. Mattie Royer, to his home in Woolrich. Mrs. Royer will make her home with her son and family. She leaves many warm friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. William Sinkabine, after a few weeks visit with her daughter, Mrs. Harold Meyers, has gone to Coaltport to visit her daughter, Mrs. Braucht. The Sinkabines reside in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Lee were called to New York on account of the serious illness of their daughter, Isabelle. She has been removed to Baltimore.

Mrs. Pealer Rossman, of near Pittsburgh, is spending some time at the H. F. Rossman home.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Oxenrider, of Michigan. Her maiden name was Lingie, and she has many relatives about here, Mrs. Clayton Auman being a daughter.

William Fredericks attended the funeral of his sister-in-law, Chestie Musser, at Millheim.

Aaron Stitzer and children are spending a few days at Wm. Sones'.

POTTERS MILLS.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Henshall, of Philadelphia, visited over the week-end at the F. A. Carson home.

Paul Palmer, 15 year old son of E. B. Palmer, while playing in the yard at his home last Tuesday, jumped over the fence and broke both bones in the left forearm. Dr. Braucht reduced the fracture and he is getting along nicely.

R. W. Sweeney and wife, of Lemont, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Sweeney.

The funeral of Frank Harshbruger, of Altoona, who was buried at Spracetown on Sunday afternoon, was largely attended.

Mrs. Franklin Sharer, of Centre Hall, spent last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Palmer. Miss Violet Palmer, of State College, and Miss Mildred Palmer, of near Centre Hall, visited over the week end at the same place.

NASH

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

NEW PRICE
Special Six 4-door Sedan
$1335
ASK FACTORY

New STEERING ease light as a feather to turn

The easiest steering motor car on earth today is Nash.

There is no tedious winding up and unwinding of the steering wheel, when you turn a corner.

Parking is done without a struggle.

And, in a traffic emergency, see how your Nash gets out of the way at a mere hint from your hand on its wheel.

It is a pleasure to drive a Nash. Easy steering. Smoothness and quietness beyond comparison. Extra power from the big Nash 7-bearing motor. And easier riding on any road over the new Nash springs of secret process alloy steel.

Nash is a finer motor car. Look at the Nash Special Six Four-Door Sedan for instance. Here's luxury for five passengers—exquisite in every detail—finished in finest quality mohair—walnut panelled—solid walnut steering wheel with light control at your finger tips—all instruments in one charming, indirectly lighted, easily-read panel—new form-fitting cushions for rest and relaxation—and only $1335 f. o. b. the Nash factory.

Be your own salesman. Easy steering is only one of many Nash superiorities which a ride will reveal. Come in today.
