

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Keemer Runkle and son, Junior, of Williamsport, are guests of Miss Laura Runkle for the week-end.

Miss Jennie Foreman, after having been at her home here for some time, returned to State College on Tuesday.

George Reiber was at his home here over Sunday. He is located near Johnson town and is a member of the State Constabulary.

Trees are being shipped from the State nursery, in Seven Mountains, to various points in Pennsylvania for planting along State highways.

A car load of Chevrolet one and one-half ton trucks and a carload of Chevrolet coaches were received last week by the Homan Motor Co., Centre Hall.

Vote for Dr. C. M. Parrish for County Commissioner, and his election will be an assurance that the taxpayer will get full value for every dollar expended in that office.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson, from Pittsburgh, visited at the T. F. Delaney home last week. Miss Doris Palmer, of Pottery Mills, spent the week-end with her sister, Mildred, at the same home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Huyett left on Tuesday for Wrentham, N. J., to spend ten days with their daughters, and, of course, to greet the new grand-daughter at the home of their youngest daughter, Mrs. Harold O. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Brungart, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Alexander, today (Thursday) will motor to Western Pennsylvania to spend a short time with Mr. and Mrs. John S. Getchell, at Unionville, and with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keefer, at Youngwood.

Miss Grace Kustenberg, of Moersburg, Montour county, was a guest of Miss Margaret Luse, last week, and from her went to State College where she was a student last year. The young ladies were chums last summer while engaged at a Barnegat City, New Jersey, resort.

Mrs. C. W. Baumgardner and daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Baumgardner, of Tomahawk, Wisconsin, are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Anna L. Bartiges, in Centre Hall, and will remain here for a few weeks. Later they will go to Madisonburg and other points in the county to be with friends.

While assisting in repairing a four-teen-inch gun at Fort Hamilton, a few days ago, William Reiber had the thumb on one hand crushed, which accounts for his returning here at this time. He is a member of the 25th Bombardment Squadron, Panama Canal Zone, and is assistant director in the band connected with the unit.

To avoid being trapped as a hunter on Sunday, a young man threw his gun to the ground and took to his heels. The violator was in the woods of O. A. Detwiler, near Colyer, and was observed by Mr. Detwiler, who followed him. The gun, a double-barrel shot, was found and is at the Detwiler home.

An unusual sight is being seen by autoists as they pass the Parks Murriff farm, between Milroy and Reedsville. It is an airplane chained to a fence. Closer observation reveals that John D. Grove, of Hagerstown, Md., issued an attachment, and that today (Thursday) the air vehicle will be sold by the sheriff as the property of Blaine J. Kratzer, of Milroy.

The Penns Valley Ministerium met on Monday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse, in Centre Hall. After the transaction of regular business, the following officers were elected: President, Rev. M. W. Dayton; vice pres., Rev. C. E. Hazen; secretary, Rev. W. E. Smith; treasurer, Rev. D. R. Keener. The next meeting will be held on Monday, November 7, at the Methodist parsonage, Spring Mills.

While walking through the kitchen in her home here on Monday morning, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs fell to the floor with such force as to sustain a severe injury to her hip. She was found lying on the floor by her daughter who was in an adjoining room and heard her fall. During the past year or more Mrs. Jacobs has been subject to fainting spells and on one or more occasions fell, but without injury, until the fall noted above.

Dr. W. E. Fischer, Prof. and Mrs. G. S. Sterner and Miss Edith Carter accompanied an auto party who drove through town on Tuesday and took dinner here. They came by the way of Lewisburg and returned by the way of Lewistown. Dr. Fischer is looking fine and feels it, his long pastorate at Shamokin not aging him in the least. Prof. Sterner was formerly organist in Dr. Fischer's church but is now occupying a similar position in the First Methodist church, Pottsville. Miss Carter is Dr. Fischer's housekeeper, a place she held for several years prior to Mrs. Fischer's death.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Vote for Dr. C. M. Parrish for County Commissioner. A dollar saved is a dollar made for the county.

Samuel Shoop, on Wednesday morning, went to Tyrone to visit Mrs. Mary Shoop, his sister-in-law, and then to Altoona where he has a sister living.

Orvis Weaver offers his home in Centre Hall for sale. He expects to take up farming. See adv. in this issue.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick and son Jack are in Reading where the former is attending the sessions of the Presbyterian synod.

E. T. Jordan, who a few years ago moved from Tusseyville to Reading, recently purchased a home there at 1045 North 12th street and now occupies it.

T. F. Royer is advertising his farm at Sprucetown and timberland in Seven Mountains; also personal property, at public sale, on Saturday, November 19th.

Some time Saturday night two cars collided near the old toll gate in the Millheim narrows. Both cars landed in the creek and were not gotten out until Sunday forenoon.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a bake sale in the social room of the church, on Saturday, Oct. 23. Also, will serve meals from 11 A. M. to 3 P. M. Ice cream will be on sale.

James Rupp, of State College, an ice cream maker in the Achenbaugh store in Lock Haven, had both bones in the right leg broken when he was struck by a falling ice cream cabinet. He was taken to the Lock Haven hospital.

Rev. D. R. Keener, pastor of the local Reformed church, is attending the Eastern Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., in session in Lancaster. D. K. Keller is a delegate to the synod. Both gentlemen are accompanied by their wives.

An elaborately decorated and illustrated pamphlet boasting St. Petersburg, Florida, termed the "Sunshine City," was forwarded to this office by A. E. Kerlin, which indicates that he and Mrs. Kerlin are again in their winter home in the south.

J. Cloyd Brooks, of near town, underwent a minor operation in Williamsport the beginning of this week and since has been staying with J. Henry Smith, a relative, in that city. He was taken to Williamsport by his son Stanley, accompanied by his mother who remained with her husband.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Mrs. Harry Miller and Mrs. Sarah Haynes, of Bellefonte, spent Friday afternoon among friends in town.

Mrs. Laura Woods Place, of New York, arrived in town Friday morning expecting to stay some time at the Woods home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Stuart, their daughter Elizabeth and friend, Mary Jane Weaver, of Crafton, visited among friends in this vicinity from Saturday until Monday.

Rev. W. J. Wagner attended conference at Millheim Monday evening and Tuesday.

The Civic Club will have a chicken supper and bazaar in Malta hall, Saturday evening, October 29th.

SINIE H. HOY

Four years ago Mr. Hoy was a candidate for the office he now seeks, and lost out by twenty-two votes. One of the most pleasant recollections of that election is the fact that his home township, Benner, and Spring, a neighboring township, both strongly Republican, gave him a nice majority. There he was best known, and it was there he was best supported. You can give Mr. Hoy support on November 8th, feeling that you are doing your part to elect an efficient and conscientious man.

Chicago Stock Show.

At the International Livestock Exposition to be held in Chicago, November 26th to December 3rd, over 11,000 of the finest beef cattle, horses, sheep and swine and 5,000 of the choicest samples of 22 crops of grains, small seeds and hay will take part in a thousand different contests for the highest honors of our basic industry. These animals will include the outstanding individuals of over 40 breeds of livestock which have proven the sensation of recent fair circuits of the United States and Canada and others which are being fitted for the showing of the International.

Do You Know When Indian Summer Begins!

Everybody knows what Indian Summer is, but do you know when it is? And do you know why it is? And why it is called Indian Summer?

Ask anybody those questions and you will be surprised at the variety of answers that you will get. For there are many theories about the origin of the name "Indian Summer" and according to scientists, no one can tell exactly when we are likely to be able to enjoy this pleasant season.

There's an interesting feature article about it in this issue of the Reporter, and it's by Elmo Scott Watson, who writes regularly for this paper. In it you will find a great deal of information about Indian Summer which you probably never knew. Be sure to read it!
