NEW VETERANS' HOME.

Spanish-American War Veterans Erect Handsome Camp and Improve Grounds in Seven Mountains.

The new home of the Frank C. Woomer Camp No. 45, Spanish-American War Veterans, now under construction in Lingle Valley, Seven Mountains, bids fair to be among the finest rustic homes in Central Pennsylvania.

The site is located along the Lingle Valley road, which leads off to the right from the highway across the Seven Mountains about a mile from Milroy and six-tenths of a mile from the main road.

Here they purchased approximately four acres of wild land covered with Spruce and White Pine adjacent to the Charles Aurand farm. It tops on the Lingle Valley road and foots along Lingle Run, one of the best trout streams in the Seven Mountains, where the beavers are building their dams and deer and other game graze daily.

Here the veterans have cleared a space and have under erection a rustic home, chunked and daubed, equipped with old fashioned fire places and big chimneys built on the outside, the kind that Santa Claus delights to visit. The veterans expect to make it a real Santa Claus land for the Rotary, Kiwanis and other clubs, the Sunday schools, Y. M. C. A. and all worth while organizations who will be tendered the freedom of the grounds, even the kitchen and shelter in case of storm or falling weather.

The main building is 55 by 28 feet, with porches from 19 to 15 feet wide built on three sides of the buildings. The cellar is nine feet deep under the entire building, and the space in this and under the porches are equipped as garages to furnish parking space for the members and their guests. The lodge or dining room is 37 by 28 feet, the kitchen 17½ by 17 feet, and two reception rooms each 18 by 11½ feet. There are four of the old fashioned fire places with outside chimneys on this floor and the second floor is taken up with five bedrooms for use of the members and their families, who may desire to take an outing. There is a finished attic covering the entire space of the building.

The building material consists of chestnut logs, more than 600 of them, the trees having been killed by the blight and seasoned on the stump.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Moyer, of Palmyra, attended the funeral of W. C. Meyer, of State College on Friday, and also spent several days visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Zebly, of Wilmington, Delaware, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Charles for a week.

The Rebekah lodge was the guest of the Pine Grove Mills organization on Monday evening.

Mrs. Charles Kuhn visited friends in Altoona from Wednesday until Saturday.

After an illness of several weeks, Miss Agnes Bayne died Friday at her home in Washington, D. C.

Miss Bayne for a number of years held different positions in the Boal Home and had many friends in this vicinity.

DEATHS

RUNKLE—Mrs. Margaret Louise Runkle, widow of the late Robert Duncan Runkle, died on Sunday at her home in Shamokin where she lived for many years. She was born at Centre Hall, September 22, 1862, making her age 65 years, 2 months and 15 days, and was the youngest daughter of William and Mary Runkle Stover. Her husband, a native of Gregg township, died in Shamokin in 1918. There survive the mother five children, namely: Mrs. William G. Runkle, Bellefonte; Mrs. J. H. Roades, Elysburg; William, Shamokin; Stanley and Louise, at home. Two brothers—John, of Berrysburg, and William, of Freeport, Illinois, also remain. Mrs. John H. Runkle, of near town, who died a few weeks ago, was a sister.

Mrs. Runkle died from the effects of a paralytic stroke which she suffered about two weeks prior to her death. She never regained consciousness. About two years ago, while in the Bellefonte railroad station, she experienced a light stroke and had never fully recovered from its effects.

Mrs. Runkle was an active member of the Lutheran church and at the time of her death was a member of Dr. W. E. Fischer's congregation in Shamokin.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon. The body was shipped here by express, and burial from the train, by the side of her husband, in the local cemetery.

REISH—Mifflinburg lost one of its prominent business men in the death of James K. Reish, after an illness of two months, with a complication of ailments.

For many years Mr. Reish was extensively engaged in the wholesale and retail lumber business. He was president of the Farmers Bank of Mifflinburg, and was active in the affairs of the community, and was held in high esteem. He was a native and life-long resident of Union county.

The deceased was aged 77 years, having been born in West Buffalo township, October 30, 1850, the son of the late Benjamin and Levina Reish. His wife preceded him to the grave about six months ago.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. Grace Ritter, of Syracuse, N. Y.; Mrs. Bessie Gould of State College; William and J. Kling Reish, of Mifflinburg. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Mrs. Luther Klingman, of Buffalo Cross Roads; Mrs. Lawley Lohr, of Mifflinburg, R. D.; Mrs. Charles Wagner, of Lewisburg; Mrs. John Klingman, of Millersburg; Benjamin Reish, of Pittsburgh, and Charles Reish, of Kelly Point.

SHAVELY—Mrs. Mary Jane Shavely, widow of the late Henry C. Shavely, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jacob F. Floruss, of Flemington, after an illness of three weeks with heart trouble. She was 76 years of age. Mrs. Shavely was born at Woodward. She was a member of the Disciple church at Huston. Mrs. Shavely is survived by three daughters, three step sons and two step-daughters; Mrs. John D. Toot, of Lock Haven; Mrs. W. N. Sides, of York; Mrs. Floruss, with whom she resided; John W. Shavely, of Smith River, California; Elmer Shavely, of Hubersburg; William H. Shavely, of Nittany; Mrs. Ida Baird, of Acto, Montana, and Mrs. Flora Maynard, of Hanson, Idaho. Burial was made at St. Paul's cemetery, near Clintondale.

MYER—W. Calvin Myer, retired farmer, died at his home in State College on Wednesday morning of last week following a five weeks' illness with a complication of diseases incident to advanced years. He was aged 80 years, 2 months and 14 days, and was born in Ferguson township, a son of George and Anna Fox Myer. His wife, who was Sarah Anna Myer, died on August 13, 1908. Surviving are two sons and a daughter: George C. Joseph C. and Marian B., all of State College. Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon from the home at State College, the Rev. Mr. DeLong of Philadelphia, officiating. Interment was made in the Bonshour cemetery. Mr. Myer was a lifelong member of the Reformed church at State College.

KREBS—Mrs. Sarah A. Krebs, wife of Frank Krebs, of Pine Grove Mills, died at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. A. F. Henry, in Tyrone, following a brief illness of pleurisy.

She was a daughter of Samuel and Maria Goss and was born at Graysville on January 3th 1854, hence was in her 74th year. As a young woman she married Newton Bell and during their married life they were among the best known residents of Spruce Creek Valley. Mr. Bell died in January, 1916, and two years later she married Mr. Krebs and their married life has been spent at State College and Pine Grove Mills.

Interment was made in Graysville cemetery.

LUTZ—William Martin Lutz died from the effects of a heart attack while in the act of tying his horse to a post at his home on Buffalo Run.

He was a son of John and Margaret Martin Lutz and was born near Jack-sonville 75 years ago. When but 20 years old he married Miss Emma Crust and all their married life had been spent on the farm in Buffalo Run valley. His survivors include his wife and three children, Charles Lutz and Mrs. Spicer, of Fillmore, and Mrs. W. A. Fromm, of State College. He also leaves these brothers and sisters: J. H. and Henry Lutz, of Illinois; George M. of Struble; Mrs. J. H. Strouse, of Pine Hall; Mrs. Clayton Wiltner, of Fillmore, and Mrs. Mary Meyers, of Pine Grove Mills.

MILLER—The Hon. J. D. Miller, who resided in Centre county the first half century of his existence, died at Lincoln Centre, Kansas. He was aged 89 years, 5 months and 24 days. His estimable wife, formerly of Pleasant Gap, died some years ago. She was known as Miss Mollie Lonberger prior to her marriage. Mr. Miller established the Noll Bros. store at Pleasant Gap, over a half century ago, and later sold the same to a Mr. Stine, of Buffalo Run, after which he purchased the extensive book store from the venerable George Livingston, continuing the same for some years, then sold it to Attorney N. Y. Stitzer. Mr. Miller had followed school teaching in Centre county for some years and will be remembered by many of that fraternity. He followed that profession for a time after going to Kansas.

He was a thorough going Republican and an ardent friend and advocate of Teddy Roosevelt. He was at one time clerk of the Senate and held a number of prominent positions in his party. He also served the U. S. Government in several important positions with distinction. Levi A. and George W. Miller, living in Bellefonte, are brothers of the deceased.

Thief Looted.

It appears that the cash register in the Musser E. Coldron restaurant, in Centre Hall, was looted late Friday night, and at the same time some food disappeared. The raid on the money drawer was made at the time the Mt. Carmel football team and rooters were here, but none of them are accused of the crime. The theft was committed by some one acquainted with the place and one who knew how to operate the cash register, it is believed. The doors and locks show no signs of having been tampered with, but a key entrance from the outside could have been accomplished was through a coal chute, but it is doubted that this avenue was used.

Reports circulate to the effect that the proprietor has strong suspicions on one or two hangers around the place, who while young are old enough to eliminate too much sympathy.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The pupils of the Centre Hall High school will present a cantata in the Grange hall on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, December 21st and 22d.

While cutting wood on Monday, farmer George Fetterolf, tenant on the Kraper farm east of town, almost severed one of his fingers from the left hand.

Grover Weaver, a trackman under Foreman Levi Hartley, was laid off to reduce the force here by one. He is now working with a Bellefonte crew, having "bumped off" a workman there.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hennigh, of near Potters Mills, are improving. Mr. Hennigh became ill about the middle of November from pneumonia, and as a result of waiting on him Mrs. Hennigh became so reduced in strength that it was necessary to take her to the Centre County Hospital for care and treatment, and about ten days ago the baby given her died at birth. As is stated above, she is improving gradually, and on Tuesday Mr. Hennigh walked out of the house for the first time since taken ill.
