LOCAL AND PERSONAL

No paper next week.

There will be no court held next week.

The Chevrolet Motor company will have its new cars on the market by the first of the year.

Miss Elizabeth Royer, during last week, had her tonsils removed by an Altoona physician.

Miss Laura Runkle is visiting her nephew, Gross R. Allison, and family, at New Castle, Kentucky.

Monday morning's train from the east brought the largest quantity of mail to the local post office it ever received.

All kinds of rubber footwear at prices less than the mail order house.—Yeager's Tiny Boot Shop, Bellefonte.

Harvey Flink expects to spend the Christmas vacation period with his friend, Rev. Frederic Moore, at Lewisberry.

A beautiful hemlock tree stands on the diamond here and is decorated in Christmas attire. It appears there will be no program of a public character.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer, Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller, all of Boalsburg, during last week visited Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Stover, at Yeagerstown.

The Hagan garage has recently added to its equipment an electric test bench manufactured by the Hobert Brothers. The appliance is used in testing starters and generators.

James Reed, of Boalsburg, suffering from kidney trouble, and Mrs. Jannette Zettie, of Spring Mills, are hospital patients from the south side of the county. Mr. Reed is not improving, while Mrs. Zettie's condition is growing better.

Mrs. John F. Mullen, of Pittsburgh, and niece, Miss Mary Hering, and Mrs. Haden Fleck, of Altoona, attended the funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Richard, a Sunday. Mrs. Hering, a sister, of Altoona, and Rev. James Arney, of Erie, a brother, owing to their physical condition, were unable to be here.

Word comes from Waynesboro, Franklin county, this state, that during the beginning of this month the apple storage was at its height. Cold storage there is capacity filled with 45,000 barrels. The apples in storage are from the orchards throughout the Cumberland Valley and other sections as far away as the State of Washington, from which state one hundred carloads of apples were shipped there. It is a case of "in again, out again."

Mr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Vonada, of near Centre Hill, are enjoying themselves on the Pacific Coast, the journey to which section was begun in the middle of October. On the way they stopped with relatives and friends in Ohio, Illinois and Kansas. In California they are guests of Frank, James and Irvin Runkle, sons of the late James Runkle, who lived on the farm at Centre Hill now owned by James C. Goodhart. The brothers are located at Simi, Ventura county, Calif., and are engaged in various pursuits. They went to the Coast when in their teens, having been promised a chance in life by one of the Alexander brothers, an uncle, and the promise was made good. Mr. and Mrs. Vonada are having such a good time that they have not as yet set a time to return home.

The Christian Endeavor society of the local Presbyterian church will hold an early Christmas song service on Christmas morn at 6:30 o'clock. The society is desirous that the community generally enter into the spirit of the service, and so extend a very cordial invitation to all church people to join with them.

DEATHS

RICHARD.—Rebecca Salvinger Richard died on Thursday of last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary A. Hering, in Altoona, where she had been making her home. During August Mrs. Richard fell and sustained a broken arm, and her death was indirectly attributed to the shock due to the accident.

The deceased was a daughter of the late Jacob Arney and was born in the month of May, 1846, on the Grove farm east of Centre Hall, now occupied by Guyer Grove. Her husband, Moses B. Richard, died in Centre Hall a number of years ago. The three brothers and three sisters surviving are: John J. and Charles Arney, Centre Hall; Rev. W. J. of Erie; Mrs. Laura Lee, Centre Hall; Mrs. Mary A. Hering, Altoona; Mrs. John F. Mullen, Pittsburgh.

She was long a member of the Lutheran church, Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, the pastor, holding the funeral services on Sunday afternoon. The body was shipped to Centre Hall Saturday afternoon, and burial was made from the home of John J. Arney, a brother, near town.

MUSSER.—After having been confined to bed for a period of two weeks, Clayton S. Musser died on Tuesday night at the home of his son, Stuart Musser, tenant on the Mauna Kline farm, this side of Bellefonte. Mr. Musser had been failing in health for more than a year. There survive him his wife, who before marriage was Miss Carrie Lambert, the son named above, and Philip and Mrs. Stella Bohn, both of Akron, Ohio. Also several sisters. Mr. Musser was reared in Haines township.

BRENNAN.—Robert Brennan, a well known citizen of State College, passed away at his home, 531 W. Beaver avenue, after an illness of about six months, due to a complication of diseases. He was born in Bellefonte, October 15, 1863, and was a son of the late Robert and Ellen (Clarke) Brennan.

Mr. Brennan was united in marriage to Jane Pennington, in 1889, and resided on a farm in College township until 1919, when the family moved to State College. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Mrs. Kyrie Alexander, of Julian; J. Harold, of Wilkes-Barre; and Miss Hilda, at home; also a sister, Mrs. Geo. Herkimer, of Bellefonte.

HUSS.—George Huss, a son of John Huss, of Spring Mills, died at the Aspinwall U. S. Hospital, near Pittsburgh. The body was brought to the home of Elias Weaver, at Spring Mills, on Tuesday evening from where funeral services will be held on Friday morning; interment in the Salem Reformed church cemetery. The deceased was a World War veteran and had been in delicate health since the close of the war. A wife, a daughter of Benjamin Ripka, and granddaughter of Elias Weaver, and a little daughter, survive the deceased.

LAST COURT FOR 1927.

Judge Furst Names Mary M. Blanchard Grand Jury Foreman—Court Orders Judges of Election to Issue Certificate of Election to Wallace White to Office of Supervisor in Spring Township.

December sessions of court convened on Monday morning at ten o'clock, with the Honorable James C. Furst on the Bench and the officials in their places.

The Grand Jury was called and fourteen reported, and Mary M. Blanchard, housekeeper, of Bellefonte, selected as foreman, after which the Court charged the grand jury on its respective duties and the grand jury retired to the grand jury room to pass upon the different bills of indictment to be submitted by the District Attorney.

Constable returns were taken. Quite a number of petitions were submitted to the Court and passed upon.

The first case to come up was the case of Wallace White on the judges of election of the three precincts of Spring township to show cause why he was not returned elected supervisor of said township, the consolidated returns of the judges showing the election of C. C. Baumgardner. The triplicate election returns as made by the three judges of the township were submitted to the Court and showed the election of Wallace White, and the Court directed that Wallace White be returned elected supervisor and a certificate be issued to him accordingly, and the certificate heretofore issued to C. C. Baumgardner be cancelled.

The next case taken up was the case of Commonwealth vs. Walter Miller and Donald Miller. Counsel for the defendant moved to strike out the return made by the Justice of the Peace in this case and discharged the defendants on the ground that they had not been given an opportunity for their defense. The Court granted the motion, whereupon the District Attorney submitted a District Attorney's bill for the same offense and against the same defendants before the grand jury.

The Court on Tuesday ordered Sheriff Taylor to notify traverse jurors drawn for next week's court not to appear, as the second week of court will be dispensed with. There is no business of sufficient importance to warrant holding the sessions during the holiday season.

DEATHS.

BEHM.—Mrs. Henry Behm died in Aaronsburg, Tuesday night.

An Explanation.

If this week's Reporter does not come to you with a clear print, we beg your indulgence, for we have had our troubles with the big printing press this week. A part of the inking mechanism failed to function, but we hope to have it performing o. k. by time of next issue.
