DEATHS

MURRAY.—Mrs. Rebecca Murray, long a resident of this place, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. D. Cooney, at McKees Rocks, on Thursday. Death was due to a paralytic stroke and complications. The body was shipped to Bellefonte on Saturday and was brought from there by Undertaker Goodhart to the parlor connected with the Goodhart undertaking establishment here, and Monday morning was interred in the local cemetery. Services were held in the Lutheran church, where Mrs. Murray was a member while living here, and were conducted by Rev. S. F. Greenhoe, the pastor in charge.

Had the deceased lived until April 11th she would have attained her eighty-fourth year. She was one of a family of twelve children, five of whom survive her, namely: Daniel Harter, Orrville, Ohio; Andrew, Stevens Point, Wisconsin; Aaron H. Harter, Harrisburg; Thomas H. Harter, Bellefonte; and Catharine, wife of Samuel M. Campbell, Millheim. Her two surviving children are Edna, wife of C. D. Cooney, McKees Rock, where the mother lived, and Paul E. Murray, Chicago.

Mrs. Murray's husband, the late Levi Murray, died here many years ago. Mrs. Murray, thrown on her own resources, engaged in baking and making ice cream, and was the first person in the town to engage in baking and selling bread here. Before retiring she had acquired a wide reputation for producing high quality bread, cakes, pies and ice cream.

ROSSMAN.—Calvin T. Rossman, long a resident of Potter township, and later of Sigleville, Mifflin county, died at his home at the latter place after an illness of several months. He was aged 72 years, 4 months and 17 days, and was the son of Jonathan and Margaret Pye Rossman and was born and reared in Potter township. He is survived by his wife, Matilda (Stump) Rossman, and these three sons: W. H. Rossman and J. S. Rossman, of Altoona, and D. C. Rossman, of Mifflinburg. A son and daughter preceded him in death several years ago: Bruce Rossman and Mrs. Clementine Nale.

Michael F. Rossman, Tusseyville; and Mrs. Samuel Grove, Pine Grove Mills, are surviving brother and sister of the deceased.

Interment was made near Sigleville.

SUMMERS.—James Summers died at his home at Axemann Friday morning from the effects of a paralytic stroke suffered on Wednesday evening previous. He became unconscious after the stroke and never regained consciousness.

Funeral services were held on Monday forenoon; interment made in the Zion cemetery.

The deceased was a son of Malachi Summers and was born in Potter township, but when a small boy was taken to the home of William McBeth, west of State College, where he grew to manhood. He is survived by a wife, whose maiden name was Miss Catharine Gingerich, and a son, Edgar Summers, Bellefonte. He had attained the age of 63 years on the third of this month. Two brothers also survive him: Winn, at McCoy's Works, Bellefonte, and Michael, known as "Moist," at Niagara Falls. The latter is very seriously ill at this time, according to a night letter received after the death of his brother.

NEESE.—Mrs. Margaret Nancy Neese, widow of Samuel Neese, died at her home in Milroy, Tuesday evening of last week, aged 85 years, 2 months and 16 days.

She was confined to bed during the last 11 months and two weeks by illness caused by the infirmities incident to extreme old age.

She was a daughter of the late Jacob and Sarah Anne (McClellan) Barger. Her husband, Samuel Neese, preceded her in death, October 29, 1915.

Mrs. Neese leaves one son, John Calvin Neese, at his parental home, and two daughters, Mrs. Enos H. These half-brothers of Mrs. Neese also survive—Ira Barger, Milroy; James Barger, Spring Mills; Miles Barger, Lorraine, Ohio.

STAM.—Calvin Stam, a native of Millheim, died in a Pittsburgh hospital of a complication of diseases, aged about 70 years.

His wife preceded him to the grave about a month ago. They had no children. Surviving are two brothers and a sister: T. E. Stam, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; John Stam, of Chinook, Mont.; and Mrs. Alice Gingerich, of Philadelphia; also a half brother and two half sisters: Rev. Fred K. M., at which time a special term of court will open. A number of other criminal cases, such as may be disposed of without jury trial, will be heard.

RUMANIA AWARDS CENTRE CO. MAN CASH INDEMNITY

Government Pays $2,500 to Whifred "Ned" Keller, of Linden Hall, Who Was Beaten by Students in Anti-Semitic Riots in December.

Whifred "Ned" Keller, of Linden Hall, who was assaulted during the anti-Semitic riots in Oradea, Mare, Rumania, last December, has been awarded $2,500 indemnity by the Rumanian government.

He is a son of Mrs. Tammie Keller, of Milesburg, and a brother of Capt. Harry Keller, of the State Highway Patrol, also located in Milesburg.

A protest by William S. Cubertson, American minister to Rumania, against the attack on Keller in December led to an expression of regret and apology from the Bucharest government.

Keller was walking through a public square when he was assaulted by a party of Rumanian students then engaged in anti-Semitic demonstrations and riots in the city. It was said that at least twenty-five students armed with canes and stones beat him into unconsciousness. Keller's wife is understood to be of Hungarian Jewish origin.

The American, who is in the business of retailing typewriters and office supplies, was once with the American Young Men's Christian association in Rumania, served in the American army in France, and was employed for a time by the Near East Relief.

Passenger Agent After Business.

David Todd, division passenger agent of the P. R. R., at Williamsport, was in town on Tuesday and called on Prof. J. F. Wetzel, principal of the High school here, in the interest of the company he represents. The senior class has in mind a trip to the National Capitol at the close of school, and Passenger Agent Todd was in consultation with a view of inducing the students here joining students from Spring Mills, Millheim, Rebersburg and Mifflinburg having the same trip in mind and going together. The suggestion was made that a stop-off be made at Harrisburg to view the State Capitol and other points of interest in that city. The railroad company, as in the past, would furnish a guide.

The whole matter is being taken under advisement by the school principals and students at the points named.

Crude Hooks in Use by Early Fishermen

In France several caves have been found in which men are believed to have lived about 200,000 years ago. In these were found what are probably the oldest fishhooks so far known to have been used by man.

These first-known hooks consist of a stone ground down into the shape of a small banana with a ridge cut in the middle, the string, or whatever was used for a line, having been tied around the stone in this ridge. Cave-men of ages ago took this banana-shaped stone and covered it with meat. Then they kindly allowed a fish to swallow the whole thing.

Then the fisherman would give a pull on the string, or whatever it was. The "hook" would straighten out horizontally and therefore refuse to come out of the water without the fish, so when the fisherman hauled in, the fish with the hook caught in his gullet, would keep the crude fishhook company.

Around the lakes of Switzerland scientists have found various kinds of hooks considerably later than those crude relics from France. Many of the Swiss hooks are of bronze, some having barbs, but the really ancient ones were barbless and consisted of two hooks at right angles to each other.
