POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For National Delegate to Democratic Convention.

I hereby announce my candidacy for delegate to the Democratic National Convention from the Twenty-third Congressional District, subject to the decision of the Democratic Primaries, to be held on April 24th, 1923.—JAMES KERR, Clearfield, Penna.

For Representative in General Assembly

We are authorized to announce the name of ANDREW CURTIN THOMP-SON, of Philipsburg, for Representative in the General Assembly, subject to the rules governing the Democratic Primaries.

For Representative in General Assembly

We are authorized to announce the name of WILLIAM R. HAM, of Boals-burg, Harris Twp., Centre county, as a candidate for the General Assembly, subject to the rules governing the Republican primary, Tuesday, April 24th, 1923.

The New York Mirror and Ladies' Literary Gazette, published in New York in 1823 by George P. Morris and edited by Samuel Woodworth, was laid on the Reporter table by R. H.
Beaumont. The issues for a year are bound. They are devoted to miscellaneous literary productions, in prose and verse. The subscription price is $4.00, for the weekly issue which appeared on Saturdays. In the first issue, August 2, 1823, a note appears telling of Prof. Munroe, of Halle, having just succeeded in producing a brilliant illumination by means of an electric light, with the aid of artificial air enclosed in glass tubes. As the electric sparks propagate themselves to infinity, the writer says, the Professor thinks it will be possible to light up a whole city with a single electrifying machine and at a very trifling expense.

The Republican party has a new aspirant to become its choice for the General Assembly when it selects its candidates April 24th, in the person of William R. Ham, of Harris township.
Mr. Ham is a Penn State professor and lives at Boalsburg. He is a wide-awake man and does not run on a single track.

OUR OWN LITTLE CORNER.

Shopper's Wants
"I don't have to advertise because everybody knows who I am, where I am, and what I sell," will never make much more than a living.

The average shopper does not care who a merchant is, where he is, or what he sells.
But the average shopper does care about information as to the cost of what he wants and where to get it without wasting time and stops going from store to store looking for it.
