FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College.

TAKE CARE OF TREES.—Ornamental trees damaged in the recent storm should be attended to now if the work has not been done already. All injured and broken branches should be removed completely with a clean cut close to the trunk of the tree. Where the symmetry of the tree is destroyed by loss of injured limbs other parts also can be taken out to restore the proportions.

PUT FLOWERS IN WATER.—When gathering cut flowers for the home it is well to place the stems in water as soon as cut. This will increase the lasting qualities of the flowers.

KNOW WHAT COWS DO.—There is no need for a farmer to keep dairy cows without knowing the value of each as a milk producer. Membership in a cow testing association costs less than the feed eaten by a number of "boarder" cows which never pay their board.

PLANT VEGETABLES.—Have you planted an abundant supply of leafy vegetables? Many of these crops can be planted in May. New Zealand spinach should be in every home garden for the summer supply of greens. It should be planted by June 1. It is not too late to sow Swiss chard. Plantings of lettuce, kohlrabi, carrots, beets and radishes can be made this month for summer use. Witloof chicory or French endive should be planted about June 1. This crop will come in handy next winter when no other salad crops are available, say State College vegetable gardeners.

REMOVE THE ROOSTERS.—Remove the roosters from the laying flock as soon as the season for producing hatching eggs is past, for infertile eggs will keep longer and therefore, are more desirable in warm weather.

The professor saw a worm making its laborious way up an iron telephone pole. He thought the critter had made a mistake, so he placed it on the sidewalk near a tree. But the worm again started up the telephone pole. Something aroused the professor called the attention of a passing friend to this.

"I suppose," suggested the latter, "that worms have to adapt themselves to living conditions the same as the rest of us. He's probably going up to get some electric juice for breakfast."

Really Worth More

"Step right up, ladies and gentlemen," shouted the showman at the fair, "and see the woman get sawed in two before your very eyes. Only a quarter."

"I'll risk that much," said a bystander, "though of course, it must be a trick. Otherwise, they'd charge more."

MOTORISTS ARGUE FOR ADDITIONAL SAFETY MEASURES ON HIGHWAYS

Convince Officials of Perils on Many Crowded Roads—Prevention of Dust an Important Matter to Be Considered.

The White Painted Guard Rails Help to Make Curves Safe for the Motorist.

DESPITE the increase in the use of white painted guard rails, whitewashed traffic indicators of one sort or another and more elaborate danger signals, automobile accidents are steadily growing more numerous, automobile associations point out in reviewing the summer's casualties.

In some sections of the country, where motorists have been able to convince officials of the perils in dust-covered highways, the authorities are applying chemicals to the road surface, particularly calcium chloride, a moisture-absorbing material that lays the dust. The prevention of dust is unquestionably a large factor in any safety first campaign.
