

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

June 22-23-25 are the dates for the Chautauqua at Centre Hall. Peter P. Hassel, the State College artist, on Tuesday refitted the First National Bank window. Centre Hall and Millburg will play ball on the local high school field on Saturday afternoon of this week. G. W. Williams, of Bellefonte, did a good business in town, Tuesday, sharpening lawn mowers. He is the father of Contractor W. S. Williams. William Houser secured a new Chevrolet sedan through the Homan Motor company. The Dodge sedan, badly damaged in a collision with a truck, entered into the contract. William F. Rishel, of Farmers Mills, and Mc A. Wert, of Rebersburg, have been elected to attend the 24th district meeting of the Dairymen's League, to be held on Friday at Towanda. J. C. Goodhart lost a valuable cow a few days ago, the animal dying after a short sickness. Mr. Goodhart purchased the cow only a short time ago, at a price of nearly $200.00. H. E. Shreckengast, who last week was taken from his home here to that of his son, at Hecla, to be cared for while ill from pneumonia, has since very much improved and is now able to be out of bed. Fred Bender, the Rawleigh Products man, is improving his home by rebuilding the front porch and repainting the entire structure. Mr. Bender has made many improvements about his place since purchasing it a few years ago. J. Irvin Yarnell of near Hubersburg, had but light insurance on the barn destroyed by a stroke of lightning, one day last week. On the barn there was collected insurance in the Centre Hall company in the sum of $300, and less than $200 on implements burned. Harry Cooper, of Johnstown, made his annual fishing trip here last week and on one trip along the banks of Seven Mountain streams caught twenty-two trout. He is a fisherman of large experience, and largely, he presses the brook trout to any other of the finny tribe. Miss Laura Keener and Miss Marlon Murray, seniors at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, spent the week end at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Deas Keener, having motored here in a new Ford roadster belonging to Miss Keener, who is a cousin of Rev. Mr. Keener. Rev. Frederic Moore, accompanied by Miss Anna Sutter, of Lewisberry, were at the home of the former's parents last week. Mrs. Moore accompanied them to York county and on Tuesday will attend the commencement exercises at Shippensburg Normal, where her daughter will graduate. Mr. and Mrs. I. Y. Moyer and daughter, Miss Helen, of Cleveland, Ohio, were in town when they visited S. P. Hennigh and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin, and David Reark, in Georges Valley. The party drove here by auto. Georges Valley was the home during the youth of Mrs. Moyer. The contract for the building of 4225 feet of concrete road in Phillipsburg and Rush township was let by the State Highway Department to a local Phillipsburg company doing business under the firm name of Wilson & Curtis Construction Company. The sum of the company is to receive is $54,568. A Chevrolet coupe, driven by a man from Bethlehem, was wrecked at the bridge at the watering trough, Nittany Mountain, on Sunday. The driver, who was on his way to Pittsburgh, it is said, fell into a doze for an instant, which accounts for the smash-up. The car is being repaired at the Homan Garage. "Billy" Kerlin, Jr. has a new plaything—the cutest, sweetest, most loving little alligator you ever saw. Of course, it came from Grandpa Kerlin, in Florida, and arrived via parcel post on Monday. The "gator" is about 10 inches long, and like a cub bear or cub lion, is perfectly harmless, but if it likes our climate and keeps growing until it is large enough to make traveling bags out of its hide—oh, boy! A party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wm. Bradford and little daughter Joyce, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fisher, Miss Laura Funkle and Mrs. Flora O. Baird, of town, and Rev. and Mrs. E. R. Corman, of Sunbury, traveling in three cars, early Monday morning started for Point Pleasant, West Virginia, where they will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Shadle. The route selected is by way of Holidaysburg, Bedford and Cumberland. Holding High school class day exercises and Commencement exercises in the auditorium on Grange Park gives an opportunity to a much larger number of interested persons to attend them than was possible when these programs were executed in Orange Arcadia. Since the park auditorium has been improved it is an ideal place for warm weather gatherings. The seats are comfortable, the floor clean, lighting good, and the whole interior entirely fit. There is ample stage room and approaches. Those from a distance who attended the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Floray, on Saturday, were: Mr. and Mrs. John Diehl, Millburg; Rev. and Mrs. V. J. Dubs and daughter Reida, of Hummels Wharf; Mrs. Sallie Pipers, Mrs. Katie Hollinger, Josiah Holderman, of Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. John Holderman, of Queen; Mrs. Dora Longacre, of Mt. Gretna; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Slessor, of Palmyra; Mr. and Mrs. John Wega, Robert Brown and sister, of Nanty Glo; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bathurst, Mrs. Edw. Struble, Mrs. Theodore Haupt, Mrs. Herbert Haupt, Mrs. Walter Tate, Bellefonte; Guy Floray and family, of Axe Mann; Edith Floray, Lewisburg. At 3:00 o'clock one morning last week a Chrysler coach with two men in it drove up to the Homan Garage gas station here, called the night man and asked for a gallon of gas. The attendant, John Lutz, served the customer and on doing so noticed the car tank was almost full, but his suspicions were not aroused. The garage man was accompanied to the office for charge by one of the men, and while this transaction was being completed, the other one picked from a case a gallon can of oil and put it into the car. The theft was observed by a young woman across the street, who was giving attention to a child at that time. An unsuccessful effort was made by her to get the license number.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Children's Day services will be held in Centre Hall from their home at Sunday evening, June 24th. Local Odd Fellows and their families who intend to go to Sunbury for the basket picnic on Saturday of this week, are asked to assemble at the railroad station at 8 o'clock A. M. Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Stahl came up to Centre Hall from their home at Narberth, on Memorial Day, to be here for a short time with Mr. Stahl's mother, Mrs. Mary Stahl. This is the first visit here for Mr. and Mrs. Stahl since their marriage a few months ago. Posts for State highway route numbers were erected near the diamond and at various other places between Potters Mills and Bellefonte. The posts are iron and are driven in the ground with a sledge hammer. The route numbers have not yet been attached. On Monday evening the oiling of the State highway between Centre Hall and Rebersburg was suspended until beginning of June. It will require about two days to complete the work. One tank of oil was hauled from the station here and the remainder from Spring Mills and Coburn. Mrs. Mary Rossman, widow of Henry Rossman, at Tusseyville, was found lying on the floor in her home by her brother-in-law, Michael F. Rossman, unable to rise, and in a rather delicate condition. Her illness is due largely to her advanced age. Mrs. Arthur W. Holderman, also of Tusseyville, had been seriously ill, but was able to leave her bed a few days ago.
