FOR THE GOOSE-

DOIN' without things ain't so hard Doin' without 'em and pretendin' to like it, ain't so easy. But doin without 'em and actually likin' it, is the way to get the laugh on life.

You gotta be serious about some'n if you wanna keep on bein' amused in life; the same as you gotta be sick once in a while to really appreciate feelin' well.

A man falls in love with the woman he's interested in. But he marries the one that's interested in him.

FOR THE GANDER-

A man's no more responsible for his love dyin' than for himself cashin' in. Yet the one always makes him a devil and the other a saint.

Constantly you hear men talk about the "view from my window."

Not long ago I overheard a little working girl boasting to another that from the flat where she lived she could "see right across the roofs of two streets of tenement houses to more tenement houses on beyond."

"I love to sit there, and just look out." she said.

ORIGIN OF THE "PRINT" By Jean Newton

THE collecting of prints is becom-1 ing one of the most popular of hobbies. Certainly enjoyment of them is no longer limited to the artistically sophisticated, for today in quite modest homes, we see the product of the etcher, the woodcutter and the engraver. And of all the known arts, none any injury to it was an injury to them male child.

decorated gold and silver plates by filling their engraved lines with black enamel or "niello." Before treating his wares with this substance, which hardened and became permanent after it was applied, he would try out the effect with a temporary medium. This was accomplished by rubbing soot and oil into the crevices that were to hold the inlay.

One day, according to the story, one of his plates was laid face downward upon a sheet of paper, and when the plate was removed the first crude "print" appeared which is supposed to have furnished the inspiration for the subsequent improved efforts in
