

GRANGERS BREAK MEMORIAL GROUND AT PENN STATE

Ceremony Held Friday—Mrs. Phillips Lifts First Shovel of Earth for Girls' Dormitory to Cost $250,000.

Realization of a great ambition by members of the Pennsylvania State Grange came last Friday, when ground was broken on the campus of the Pennsylvania State College on the spot where the Grange is to erect a memorial dormitory for girl students. The college architect is at work on the building plans and construction work will be started as soon as possible. The first shovel of earth was turned by Mrs. Clara C. Phillips, of Washington, a college trustee and for several years a tireless worker in the interests of the Grange Memorial. The building planned is to cost about $250,000, and the Granges of the State have turned over $100,000 of the amount to the college. President Ralph D. Hetzel presided at the exercises, witnessed by most of the 3000 visitors at the college for the annual Farmers' Day. Speakers included Philip H. Dewey, past master and chairman of the committee that selected the type of memorial building; Dr. Hanna Lyons, chairman of the Grange home economics committee; Charles M. Gardner, National Grange officer, and Edward B. Dorsett, State Master.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stuart and daughter Martha, of Crafton, are enjoying a week's visit at the home of Mrs. E. E. Stuart. Mrs. Lester Brouse and sons visited at the Wm. Rockey home at Tusseyville from Thursday until Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hess, Mrs. J. P. Wagner and Miss Marjorie Siegel, of Altoona, were visitors in town over Sunday. Mrs. J. D. Patterson is entertaining her sister, Miss Margaret Kimpfort. Paul Brouse spent a few days with his wife in Harrisburg. The Women's Missionary society of the Lutheran church entertained their friends at their tenth anniversary on Tuesday evening. Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Rutt, of Philadelphia. Boalsburg had a fire Tuesday forenoon. The barn on the premises occupied by Mr. Weaver was burned to the ground. The State College Fire company arrived on the scene after the fire was under control and was not called into action.

Encampment Committee Meeting. The Grange Encampment committee will meet on Grange Park, Saturday afternoon, June 23rd, at 1:30 o'clock, when matters of importance will be discussed toward making the 1928 Encampment the best in its history. Grading the new ball ground, proposed alterations in the old stock barn, fitting it for varied exhibits and concessions and amusement features, all need early attention by the committee. New tents and additional flys have been ordered. Posters and advertising material will soon be on hand for distribution. A large number of new applications for tents are being received and will be given attention as soon as possible, assurance this division of the fair grows steadily year by year, as all other departments exhibit corresponding growth.
