X. P. B. IN CONVENTION
AT PENN STATE COLLEGE

Harry Davis Leads in Declamatory Contest—Prominent W. C. T. U. Workers and One Hundred Delegates in Attendance.

From a field of six formidable competitors, Harry Davis, of Richboro, Bucks county, emerged victorious in the finals of the declamatory contest sponsored by the Young People's Branch of the Penna. Women's Christian Temperance Union in their annual convention at the Penna. State College this week. Three Centre countians—Beulah Harnish, of Bellefonte High school; Margaret Boriand and Gretchen Marquardt, both of State College, failed to place in the honor ranks.

Dr. Ella M. George, of Beaver Falls, for 22 years State president of the W. C. T. U., presented Davis with the grand gold medal in recognition of his achievement. The winner is now eligible to compete for the diamond medal in the oratorical contest which will be held by the State organization at Scranton in October.

Miss Clarice Cook of Rome, the single representative of Bradford county, was considered by the judges to be the second best orator. Miss Myrtle Seelye, of DuBois, supervised the competition while the judges were Miss Lillian Trezise, of DuBois, Mrs. Egan Burke, Mt. Washington, and Harold Caven, of State College.

More than one hundred delegates, representing 27 counties, are attending the convention which began Monday and will continue until Saturday. All of the visitors are housed in the college dormitories.

Besides Doctor George, other prominent speakers are Miss Lillian Trezise, of DuBois, vice-president of the State W. C. T. U.; Miss Winola Jewell, of Chicago, general secretary of the National Young People's Branch; Miss Lena Bell Wiggins and F. A. Dale, general secretary and State president of the Young People's Branch, and D. Lloyd Claycomb, of Altoona.

Willard Kratz, of Chalfont, is in charge of the instructional course which aims to train the delegates in citizenship and law observance, while Prof. J. W. Yoder, of Juniata College, is directing the activities of the convention.

In order to coincide with the Young People's Branch meeting, the Mountain Group Institute of the Women's Christian Temperance Union is being held at State College Wednesday and Thursday. The Mountain Group includes delegates from Bedford, Blair, Centre, Fulton and Huntingdon counties. Part of the sessions are held on the college campus in conjunction with the Young People's Branch.

The Centre Hall Y. P. B. is being represented by Alice Burkholder, Myla Spyster, Catharine Goodhart, Paul Martz and Harold Bradford.

The Democratic Convention.
Down in Houston, Texas, the Democratic convention is in session to formulate a platform and nominate a candidate for president of these United States. At the hour this issue goes to press (Wednesday morning) the convention is in full swing.

Tuesday, Chairman Shaver and Key-note speaker Bower gave the convention a thrill after thrill. The Republican party was skinned from head to foot, giving the convention and air audience a view of the real creature.

DEATHS

TWO-YEAR-OLD CHILD DROWNS AT BOALSBURG

William Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Ferguson, of Boalsburg, it is presumed, fell into a small creek near his home about noon on Sunday, and shortly afterwards the dead body was found in the swimming pool at Boal camp. The body was prepared by an undertaker and shipped to Indiana.

The Ferguson family have lived at Boalsburg but a short time. Mr. Ferguson is connected with the Ferguson Construction Company, which company is engaged in the erection of the large gymnasium and the hospital at Penn State. The child that lost its life was aged about two years and is the oldest of two children of Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson.

EMERICK.—Mrs. Emerick, wife of Harvey Emerick, died in Portland, Oregon, leaving her husband and three children. The children are all grown up and married. The husband is a brother of M. L. Emerick, of this place, but Mrs. Emerick was not known here.

PONTIAC CAR STOLEN.

A Pontiac coupe was stolen from the Clyde Dutrow garage in town, Tuesday night at about 1:30 o'clock. The car belongs to Leroy Smeltzer. Mr. Dutrow's son-in-law, who with his wife were at the Dutrow home that night.

John H. Knarr, a neighbor of the Dutrows, heard a commotion at the garage, but before he could reach it, the car was driven out. An investigation disclosed that the gas tanks of all the cars in the garage had been drained, and a gallon can filled with oil was also missing. Telephone messages were sent to State Highway patrolmen in various sections asking aid in recovery of the car.

The fact that a colored prisoner escaped from Rockview penitentiary on Tuesday afternoon, leads to the theory that it was the prisoner who committed the theft.

Centre County-Lock Haven Motor Club Picnic at Hecla Park.

A joint meeting of committees representing the Centre County Motor Club and the Lock Haven Motor Club was held Tuesday evening at Hecla Park, for the purpose of arranging a picnic for members of the two clubs, and friends. It was formally decided that the picnic should be held Wednesday, August 15th, at Hecla Park and members are optimistic of having in attendance one of the largest crowds ever seen in this section.

Various suggestions were made regarding entertainment and features and a royal good time is promised to everyone who attends.

Emory Watts of Lock Haven was elected general chairman and J. Will Mayes, of Howard, associate general chairman. The Centre County Motor Club executive committee is composed of H. L. Ebricht, Centre Hall; Thomas Beaver, Bellefonte; W. R. Frazier, Millheim; P. A. Frost, State College, and E. V. Diem, Philipsburg.

Men Build Athletic Field on Community Day.

Fifty men of Sugar Valley celebrated Community day by clearing ground for an athletic field at the new vocational school at Loganton.

The men brought teams and shovels to haul stone and ground to fill up holes. They leveled a plot to be used as an athletic field which is twice the size of the school property.

The ground will be ready for use when the new school, the first of its kind in Clinton county, opens September 1.

FARM CALENDAR.

Timely Reminders from The Pennsylvania State College.

PROVIDE ROOSTS EARLY.—Roosts or berches should be placed in the brooder houses by the time the chicks are four weeks old. Pallets that are not crowded and are not roosting early thrive better and will make better growth.

SPRAY FOR PROFITS.—The farmer who applies timely and thorough sprays consistently throughout the season is the one who harvests a profitable crop. Quality products pay best.

SAVE YOUNG ALPALPA.—New fields of alfalfa should not be pastured. If the alfalfa has been seeded alone and the weeds become numerous, the field can be cut high when the alfalfa plants are just coming into bloom. Do not cut the alfalfa if there are only a few weeds.

PRODUCE SUMMER EGGS.—If high production is to be maintained during the summer months the flock must consume large quantities of laying mash and be culled regularly every two weeks. Penn State poultry specialists say.

ENROLL TON LITTERS.—If you have good prospects for a ton litter and have not placed the litter in nomination, get in touch with the county agent at once. June 30 is the final date for enrolling your litters this year. Help keep Pennsylvania first in ton litters by growing one yourself this year.

KILL QUACK GRASS.—Small patches of quack grass can be killed by covering with roofing paper or by hoeing every time green spears of grass appear. If paper is used weight it down with stones or other heavy objects to prevent the wind blowing it off.

CHAUTAQUA FOR 1929.

Centre Hall will have a return engagement of Chautauqua talent next summer. Some thirty guarantors affixed their signatures to the necessary papers which are in the hands of the Chautauqua superintendent.

The three-day session here came to a close on Monday night. The largest crowd ever attending Chautauqua here was present at the six sessions. Lectures, musical numbers, a comedy-drama and a highly pleasing bird, dog and monkey entertainment comprised the 3-day program.

Financially, the local committee went 'way over the top. With the usual amount of hard work on the part of the committee, the local association probably would have come through without a deficit. The big surplus of $240.00, however, is due to an unprecedented offer on the part of one of the guarantors, Wm. W. Kerlin, proprietor of Kerlin's Grand View Poultry Farm.

During the days of the season ticket sales, when the outlook appeared hopeless, Mr. Kerlin threw his tremendous resources back of an effort to put Chautauqua over. Circularizing several hundred of his customers, he offered to give free of all charges 100 baby chicks for each and every season ticket bought. The tickets sold for $2.00. Needless to say, there was a scramble for chicks, with the result that the poultryman put out in the neighborhood of 25,000 day-old chicks.

DAME—GUTELIUS.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Fred Cyril Dame and Miss Violet May Gutelius, on Sunday, July 8th, 12:00 o'clock noon in St. John's Reformed church, Millheim. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick E. Gutelius, of Millheim, and by profession is a school teacher, having closed her work in the East Orange, N. J.; public schools during this month.

The marriage ceremony will be performed by the resident pastor of St. John's church, Rev. G. A. Fred Greening.

Hennigh—Kreager.

Irvin Hennigh, son of S. P. Hennigh, of Centre Hall, was recently married to Miss Ruth Kreager, near Columbus, Mississippi, where Mr. Hennigh owns and operates a large dairy farm. Mr. Hennigh left Centre county six years ago and has prospered in the South.

He is the second son of Mr. Hennigh to be married in the past few months. Both sons reside in the South—George in Alabama and Irvin in Mississippi.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Jared Zettle, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Hester Lombarger, of Boalsburg, were married in Maryland. The couple left on Friday and returned on Sunday. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smeltzer. The event was a surprise to their many friends.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner, accompanied by Rev. Barkins and family, of State College, motored to Garrettsville, New York, to visit the former's son, Rev. John Wagner.

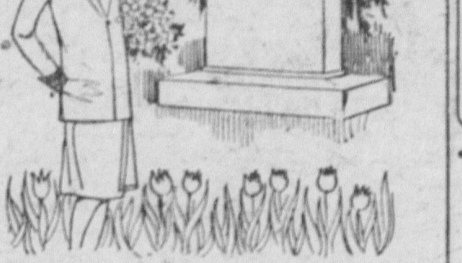

Clayton Martz, who was with the American Army on its recent visit to France, has returned home.

Miss Flora Snyder, of State College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Snyder.

John Stover, of Altoona, spent some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stover, in Boalsburg, convalescing from a recent operation for appendicitis.

Bake Sale.

The Ladies' Bible Class of the Reformed Sunday school will hold a bake sale on the Reformed church lawn in Centre Hall, on Saturday, July 14th.
