

YOUNG PEOPLE GIVE RECITAL IN LOCAL REFORMED CHURCH.

The musical recital in the Reformed church on Saturday evening was an unusually delightful affair and no one in attendance could regret having given the time to hear the amateurs on their first appearance in public. Some of the children had had but a few lessons in handling the instruments on which they performed. The children and young people who rendered the program were pupils of Mrs. D. R. Keener. She was assisted by Miss Lillian Keener, a cousin of Rev. Keener, a recent graduate of Combs Conservatory of Music, Philadelphia. The numbers rendered by her with organ accompaniment were exceptionally fine, and captivated the audience. The recital was sponsored by the Ever-Ready class of the Reformed church, and the proceeds, close to $50.00, were applied to the parsonage building fund. The program is given in full below:
