ALTOONA BOOSTER STORES
OBSERVE EVERY WEDNESDAY AS SUBURBAN DAY

Thousands of people living in the Altoona Trading Center plan to shop in Booster Stores each Wednesday to take advantage of the special opportunities offered by Booster Merchants for Suburban Day.

They prefer to trade in Booster Stores for the things their local merchants cannot supply because they have learned that they can depend absolutely on the quality and style of the merchandise they are offered and they have also learned that uniformly low prices prevail in Booster Stores.

Everything that may be needed for personal or home needs may be secured in Booster Stores. On account of the large stocks carried there is wide variety in choice, regardless of whether the purchase is for personal wear or adornment, or to add to the furnishings of the home.

You Can Always Do Best in a Booster Store! It pays to visit Booster Stores Every SUBURBAN DAY!

Centre Hall, 7; Boalsburg, 4.
Centre Hall, 5; Milroy, 4.
Centre Hall, 8; Rockview "Pen," 8.

Three games of baseball played during the past week by the local club resulted as noted above, a very good showing. All three were played on foreign soil. Harry Gross subdued the Boalsburg boys, while Newton Crawford twirled effectively against the Milroy nine.

The game with the Rockview Penitentiary prisoners, on Monday evening, was hard fought. The locals found the "pen" team a group of good stickers and equally good fielders. Three colored boys were in the line-up. The cheering from the side lines, coming from several hundred prisoners, was just as loud and long for our boys as it was for the "home" team. The game was called at the end of the 6th inning owing to darkness. In this inning the "pen" team evened the score by adding three runs. It had grown so dark that the electric lights on the prison grounds had been switched on. The box score follows:
