Spring Mills Grange was awarded first prize of $109.00; Logan Grange of Pleasant Gap got the second prize of $80.00; Progress Grange of Centre Hall, third prize of $70.00; Washington Grange of Pine Hall fourth prize of $60.00 and Victor Grange of Lemont fifth prize of $50.00.

Although many farmers are ready to sow wheat at this time, little seeding will be done until about the 20th, due to the desire to avoid the ravages of the fly. Before the fly became such an annual pest, seeding was done with the best results between August 25th and September 10th. The State Agricultural Department gives out that the acreage being prepared for wheat in the State is one per cent, or about 12,000 acres less than last year, or 1,231,000 acres.

The hotel and all of the homes entertaining tourists in Centre Hall were filled on Sunday night. Sunday being followed by Labor Day was responsible for the food of travelers who sought entertainment here for the night.

RE-OPENING OF SPRUCETOWN METHODIST CHURCH

First Service Monday Night, September 10th—Former Pastors and District Superintendent Morris to Preach—No Financial Drive.

Next Sunday evening will mark the re-opening of the Sprucetown M. E. church. This church has been closed for several weeks while extensive repair work has been carried on. During the period the congregation has worshipped in the basement of the building.

The exterior of the church has been painted and the interior, including furnishings, has been painted, grained and varnished. Also the vestibules on both first and second floor have been done over.

A choir loft has been installed and newly furnished. A primary department has been provided and furnished. The shutters of the building have been removed and new window blinds provided. Recently two new heatstoves were installed and together with other needed repairs this "old land mark" presents a fine appearance.

This church was a place of worship many years before the present Central Pennsylvania Conference was organized, then a part of the Baltimore conference.

Several former pastors will return for the re-opening week of service. On Monday night, September 10th, Rev. C. W. Rishel, pastor at Pine Grove Mills, will deliver the sermon. Rev. Rishel is a native of the valley and his coming will be a treat to those who knew him in his boyhood days.

Tuesday night Rev. Marshall C. Piper, a former pastor of forty years ago, will be the speaker. On Sunday night, September 16th, the District Superintendent, Rev. Morris E. Swartz, F. Catherman will be the preacher. Mr. Catherman was pastor of this church from 1919 to 1923. He has a host of friends who will be glad to greet him again.

Mennonites Baptize on Sunday.

Fourteen immersions on Sunday were the result of a series of meetings held in what is known as the Apostolic church, near Colyer, during the past few months. Rev. Musser, Rev. Meyer and Rev. Wingard, all of Lancaster county, and representing the faith of the Mennonites, conducted the services which were largely attended and were held at the iron bridge, at the head of the Red Mill dam, near the Fleisher farm. The Sunday previous eleven others were baptized.

It appears the Mennonites have absorbed what was known as the Apostolic congregation. This Christian sect of brotherhood grew out of the Anabaptist movement in the 16th century, and still flourishes in Europe and the States. It is named Mennonite after Menno Simons, who lived from 1492 to 1559, and became a leader of the sect in the Netherlands. They are opposed to taking oaths, to military service, to theological learning, and to infant baptism, holding to great simplicity of life and worship, and often living in separate communities.

Williams-Henney Reunion.

The Bellevue (Ohio) Gazette makes reference to a family reunion in which a number of persons in Penna and Georges Valleys are directly interested. Among the speakers, as the reprinted news article indicates was Simon P. Hennigh, of this place, who in August accompanied Mr. and Mrs. I. Y. Meyer to their home in Cleveland, after having attended the Reaick reunion in Georges Valley. The Gazette says:

The seventeenth annual reunion of the Williams-Henney families was held at the home of D. E. Williams, east of Milan, Sunday.

About 125 members assembled at five tables which had been spread from well filled baskets. After dinner meeting was called to order by the president D. E. Williams. A very interesting history of the Henney family was given by S. P. Hennigh (who spells his name the original way) of Centre Hall, Pa. We also listened to remarks from E. A. Henney, Altoon, Pa.; J. L. Henney, of Columbus, and C. E. Henney, Marlan, Little Alta Emminger, of Toledo, entertained with songs and recitations.

SEARSONS PURCHASE LATEST IN THRESHING OUTFITS

George Searson and Son, of Centre Hall, recently purchased a new threshing outfit from Nichols & Shepard Co., Battle Creek, Mich. The outfit came in last week and was exhibited at the Grange Fair. This threshing machine is one of the largest manufactured by the company.

The new 25-45 tractor which furnishes the power, is of the six-cylinder type, is the first one received in Pennsylvania, and was the center of attraction in the machinery exhibit.

This new threshing has some features that have not been seen before on other threshers, such as equipped with Hyatt roller bearings throughout, Browning-Rockwood paper pulleys; the metal covering is Armo-Iron from which does not rust from weather conditions. It is also equipped with "the Man Behind the Gun," an exclusive feature which separates the grain immediately at the cylinder, making faster and cleaner work. Messrs. Searson have ordered for this new machine a grain blower which weighs and delivers the grain to the bin without any handling whatever.

Mr. J. M. Peck, of Harrisburg, was here during last week. He represents the Nichols & Shepard Co. in this State. The owners of this new outfit are to be congratulated on purchasing such an outfit for serving their customers better than ever before.

Boal Farm Sold for $10,000.

The Boal farm, west of Old Fort, was sold by Charles Stoner, trustee for the heirs of Mrs. Arber (Stoner) Cummings, to Boyd Spicher, of Bellefonte, for $10,000. The farm was offered at public sale a few weeks ago, but the best offer then was less than $7000. The farm contains a little over two hundred acres.

Mr. Spicher owns the Spicher homestead adjoining, a farm of about the same size.

110 Potato Growers Attend Tour.

Visiting Michigan seed fields on the annual tour of the Pennsylvania Potato Growers' Association, the 140 who went on the trip found many points of interest and educational value. E. L. Nixon, potato disease specialist of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Experiment Station, reports.

Thirty-seven counties were represented by the growers and there were farmers from Maryland, New York and Ohio in addition. Twenty-seven women went on the tour this year. A total of 1865 acres of potatoes are grown by the farmers who attended. Nixon reports that there were 32 Keystone 496-Bushel Club members in the party. The trip covered 1800 miles and was made in a Pullman train of five sleeping cars, two diners, and a club car, run as a special for the potato tourists.

PINE GROVE MILLS WINS B. B. CHAMPIONSHIP

Pine Grove Mills baseball team won the championship in the series of games played on Grange Park during Fair Week. Winning Tuesday's game against Orviston by a 9-0 score, Pine Grove was eligible to play again on Thursday with Centre Hall, which club defeated Boalsburg the day previous.

It was a hand-picked team which Pine Grove Mills placed in the field against Centre Hall. The battery came from Petersburg and several Penn State "varsity" men were in the line-up, where Centre Hall presented the home team with a single exception. Centre Hall could do little with Rupert, but this was not the chief cause of defeat. That lay in the fact that misplays in the field were quite numerous.

With the score standing at 14 to 3 in the last half of the seventh inning, a rain storm broke loose and put an end to further play. The box score follows:

Fined on Grange Park.

Toney Orlando of Lewisport, selling ice cream wafers for the Harrisburg Ice Cream Co., was arrested on Wednesday of the Fair for selling his wares without having same under suitable cover. Orlando was notified three times to comply with the law, and upon refusing, J. L. Tressel, of Pleasant Gap, State Health Officer, caused his arrest, and at a hearing before Squires Cyrus Brunhart, Orlando was fined $15.00 and costs.

Mr. Tressel informed the Reporter that certain Centre Hall store keepers are selling cakes which are not properly covered. The law requires that all foodstuffs be protected with a suitable covering.

From Presbyterian Manse.

The Kirkpatrick returned from a month's vacation spent among friends at Kennet Square, Norristown, Chester, West Chester, in Penna., and Wilmington, Del., and Wildwood, N. J. John Kirkpatrick spent the week end at Watkins Glen, New York, with a party of friends who motored there from Lancaster and State College. The party was comprised of Mr. and Mrs. John Haugh, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert and Hubert Junior Haugh, of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hammel, and daughter Helen, of Lancaster.

L. A. Sweetwood, who accompanied the Kirkpatrick's home from Philadelphia, spent several days with his friends in Centre Hall, making the Presbyterian Manse his headquarters while rustating among his many friends. Mr. Sweetwood is busy now as road supervisor of construction work in three of the southeastern counties of the State. He makes his home in Norristown, that being the center of his field of labor.

Last Thursday Simon Foreman, Mrs. Shaver and Rev. Fred Cox and wife surprised Rev. Kirkpatrick's family of visiting sons, etc. Mr. Foreman and Rev. and Mrs. Cox are residents of Mt. Union; Mrs. Shaver is from the "Windy City," Chicago. It's all over for another year.

Hunters are loudly complaining over the State Game Commission's invitation to exterminate doe deer, but do you hear any of them say, "No, I'd not kill a doe." The commission's method of reducing the surplus of does is utterly foolish, but why should
