RASKOB DENIES SMITH IS ENEMY OF EQUALIZATION

Governor Seeks Business Basis, Chairman Says in Hot Springs—Misunderstood, He Asserts.

John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic National committee, announced a few days ago that Governor Smith's position on the farm equalization fee had been misunderstood, contending the Democratic Presidential nominee had never denounced this plan.

Mr. Raskob said the Governor "never made a statement either way" regarding the fee, and added that the Governor desired a plan to put the farmers on a basis comparable to that of industry.

"Governor Smith and all of us agree" he went on "that to assume that legislation cannot be designed to accomplish this purpose is an insult to American intelligence."

Herbert H. Lehman, chairman of the Democratic committee on finance, he said, requested him to ascertain if there actually was a farm problem. Raskob contended there has "been a tendency" on the part of some Eastern papers to "belittle" the farm situation.

"There is no question," he added, "that farm relief is the most important issue in the farm belt."

Questioned by press correspondents, he said he had heard little about prohibition in the mid-West, except in St. Louis, where it was predicted Smith would receive a majority of 66,000.

BASEBALL

Pine Grove Lost This One.

Just to prove it could be done, Centre Hall met Pine Grove Mills, at Pine Hall, on Labor Day, and simply "walked away" from the team which defeated them last week. The score was 10 to 4. Centre Hall amassed 15 hits off Thomas (brother of "Big Leaguer" Myles Thomas) and Rupert, of Petersburg. George Lutz, the local south-paw, had Pine Grove popping up his curve ball, or hitting it in the infield for easy outs. The box score:

Table with columns: CENTRE HALL, R, H, O, A, E. Rows include Fetterolf, Emery, Martz, Crawford, H. Gross, Keller, Durr, P. Martz, Lutz, p.

Will Play Championship Game.

What has been advertised as the baseball game for the championship of Centre county, will be played on Saturday of this week, between Centre Hall and Pine Grove Mills. The teams stand at a tie in games played.

At Wellington the group will visit James Frazier, a brother, who with his family went west at the same time with Foster Frazier, but instead of running from the hot winds, stood by.
