THE VOICE OF BRYAN.

This is William Jennings Bryan speaking. It is in Madison Square Garden in 1924, with the "religion" plank of the platform under debate his "last word" to a convention of his party. Mr. Bryan said:

In this country it is not necessary to protect any church. I have such confidence in the Catholic Church, which was for 1500 years my mother church as well as yours, that I deny it needs political aid. It was the Catholic Church that took our religion from its founders and preserved it—it was the only custodian—for over 15 centuries. When it did this for Catholics it did it for me and every Protestant. The Catholic Church, with its legacy of martyr's blood and with the testimony of its long line of missionaries who went into every land, does not need a great party to protect it from a million Klansmen.

The Jews do not need this resolution. They have Elijah, and they have also Elshah, who drew back the curtain and revealed upon the mountain tops an invisible host greater than a thousand Ku Klux Klans. The Catholic Church and the House of Israel have their great characters today who plead for respect for them whose pleading is not in vain.

Jew and Gentile, Catholic and Protestant stand for God, on whom all religion rests, and Protestant and Catholic stand for Christ. It is possible that now, when Jesus—the hope of the world—is more needed than ever before—it is possible that, at this time, in this great land, we are to have religious warfare? Are you willing to start a blaze that may cost innumerable lives, sacrificed on the altar of religious prejudice? I cannot believe it; God forbid; I call you back in the name of our party, I call you back in the name of the Son of God and Saviour of the World. Christians, stop fighting; let us get together and save the world from the materialism that robs life of its spiritual values. Ensh the "Hymns of Hate"; our song must be "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love."

We recommend to these misguided Democrats who profess adherence to the principles of the dead Democratic leader and who now summon his spirit to sustain their mistaken course, a reading of Mr. Bryan's declaration, as above quoted. Those who have not read it need the enlightenment it conveys; those who have need to be reminded of its undeniable truth.

After ten years of hostility to the farmers, Herbert Hoover now proposes in ten weeks to convince them of his friendship.

DEATHS

POTTER.—Robert Henry Potter died on Sunday morning at the home of his nephew, Harry W. Potter, in Centre Hall, where he had been living for a year or two. He took a heavy cold more than two weeks ago, and later pneumonia developed, which was the immediate cause of his death.

Interment was made in the cemetery here on Tuesday afternoon; services by his pastor, Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. Potter was a son of Joshua Potter, one of the early settlers in Penns Valley, and lived almost the whole of his life west of Centre Hall, on a farm. He was never married, but conducted farming operations for many years; in fact until age incapacitated him for such work. He was a man of remarkable vitality and retained his mental faculties to the end.

He attained the age of 87 years, 11 months and 11 days. There survive him but one member of the Potter family, a brother, Joshua T. Potter, a resident of town, who is about ten years his junior. Up until a few weeks ago Mr. Potter was out on the streets daily. He walked erect and with a good firm step, and was always ready to engage in conversation those with whom he came in contact.

DERSTINE.—Word was received here by relatives on Saturday evening of the death of Mrs. Derstine, wife of Rev. M. S. Derstine, at her home in Muncy, where the husband is pastor of a Methodist congregation. The body was brought here on Wednesday afternoon for interment.

Mrs. Derstine's maiden name was Miss Maude Grover, and she was reared in Lewistown, where her marriage took place. Mr. Derstine at that time was employed in the studio of his brother, the late Charles Derstine. Her death was due, at least indirectly, to a paralytic stroke suffered some months ago, which left her an invalid.

INFANT.—Betty Lou, aged 22 days, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Noll, of near Linden Hall, died early Sunday morning.

The child was in extremely delicate health since its birth. Her death was due to an affection of the heart.

Interment was made at Tusseyville Tuesday forenoon, Rev. W. W. Moyer, of Boalsburg, officiating. Besides the parents, two brothers, Harry Thomas and David, Jr., and a sister, Frances, all of tender age, survive the baby.

WEAVER.—Mrs. Fannie Weaver, wife of John M. Weaver, died Sunday afternoon at Coburn from pneumonia. Funeral services were held this (Thursday) morning in the Evangelical church at Millheim. She was aged 71 years, 5 months and 22 days. Her maiden name was Miss Fannie Keener. Her husband and a son survive her.

DUNKLE.—Joseph H. Dunkle died at his home in Lock Haven after a week's illness following a stroke of paralysis. He was aged fifty-six years, and was a native of Nittany. He went to Lock Haven four years ago from Nittany Valley, where he had farmed for a number of years, and for the past several years had been employed at the tannery of the Kistler Leather company. He was a member of the St. Luke's Reformed church, of the L. O. O. F. and of the P. O. S. of A. He leaves his wife, four sons and three daughters: Fern Dunkle, of Boalsburg; Joseph Dunkle, of Altoona; Mrs. Edward Yearick, of Nittany; Walter, Fred, Dorothy and Mary, all at home; three brothers and two sisters: D. M. Dunkle, of Pittsburgh; Elias Dunkle, of Toledo, Ohio; John Dunkle, of Mingo; Mrs. Jacob Thiel and Mrs. Philip Zahn, both of Claysburg.

BORDER.—Mrs. Margaret Border, wife of Joseph Border, died at her home in Johnstown, following a complication of diseases. She was a daughter of Christian Shoop, one of the early settlers in Potter township, and attained the age of eighty years. She is survived by her husband and the following brothers and sisters: Samuel Shoop, Centre Hall; Mrs. John Worley, Altoona; and Mrs. John Yergor, Pittsburgh. Interment was made at Johnstown, Rev. Dr. R. M. Campbell, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, having been the officiating minister.

SELLERS.—The News, published at Johnstown, makes this reference to the death of Charles A. Sellers, brother of Mrs. John H. Weber, in Centre Hall:

Charles A. Sellers was born at Oak Hill Station, Pa., November 3, 1851, making his age 76 years, 10 months and 5 days at the time of his death on September 8th.

In the early seventies he and John Goheen, now of Downs, and others, came West, settling in the vicinity of Downs. Later Mr. Sellers and some of the others returned East, but three years afterward came back to make their homes here.

November 8, 1883, at Beloit, Kansas, Mr. Sellers was united in marriage to Anna Bartsch, of Downs. To this union five girls and three boys were born: William C. Downs; Edith Vogel; Kansas City, Kan.; Hazel Miller, Kansas City, Mo.; Edna Lewis, St. Joseph, Mo.; Irvin, Concordia; Gertrude and Orla, at home. Freddie died at the age of 18 months.

He was a member of the Methodist church, and Rev. Grant Mann had charge of the burial services on Sept. 10th.

SHUEY.—George Garbick Shuey died at his home at Lemont on Friday after an illness from complications of diseases, at the age of 71 years, 10 months and 10 days. Interment was made on Monday in Shiloh cemetery, Rev. W. J. Wagner, of the Lutheran church officiating. The deceased was a son of Felix and

Catharine Shuey and was born and reared in College township. He followed the occupation of farming until about thirteen years ago when he retired and moved to Lemont. He was twice married. WOMAN'S MISSIONARY RALLY WAS INTERESTING AFFAIR

The Woman's Missionary Rally of the Evangelical church of Lewisburg district, comprising Centre Hall, Spring Mills, Millheim and Rebersburg charges, convened in the Evangelical church at Centre Hall, Wednesday afternoon and evening of last week.

Mrs. W. J. Campbell, of Berwick, presided both afternoon and evening. The Rally opened with a song service. The devotions in the afternoon were conducted by Mrs. Annie Lenker, of Lemont. The address of welcome was given by Mrs. W. E. Smith, president of the local society. The response was made by Mrs. H. C. Kieffel, president of the Millheim society.

Mrs. W. J. Campbell, district organizer, gave a very interesting address which was filled with information and instruction. The principal address of the afternoon was given by Rev. G. Busacca, Italian missionary from Kenosha, Wisconsin. He spoke of his delightful life in Italy. He came to this country when he was twenty-three years old. Up to this time he had never seen a Bible but had heard that there was such a book. Many of the priests never used the Bible. After his conversion, he sent a Bible to his sister, who is living in Italy. The priest of her church, when he heard that she had the Bible in her possession, borrowed it from her and preached from the New Testament.

The evening devotions were conducted by Mrs. Annetta Hesterman, of Rebersburg. The Mission Band sang several solos.

In the evening address, Rev. Busacca told of his work in Kenosha. During the fall and winter months he holds night school, three nights a week, giving instruction in language and citizenship. Visitation in the homes if possible, continues to be a regular and important part of the work. This work consists of instruction of various household duties, reading the Word of God, offering prayers, distributing tracts, advising and comforting the sick, and encouraging the lonely.

Rev. Busacca was brought to Christ through workers of the W. M. S. He said, "If it were not for the W. M. S. I would not be here to-night." He asked his hearers if they were more interested in the club than the Woman's Missionary Society.

The next convention will be held in Millheim.
