

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Jennie Foreman, who was at her home here for several weeks, is back to State College.

Hiram Lee, of State College, brother of Frank D. Lee, of town, went to Clearfield hospital Monday as a patient of Dr. Waterworth.

Miss Agnes Geary, who entered Penn State last week as a senior, is woman's editor on the "Penn State Collegian," the official college newspaper.

Herman Colyer, of Pittsburgh, was in Centre Hall for a few days beginning of the week, visiting his aunt, Mrs. H. J. Lambert, and friends.

The slide for the grade school playground a gift of the "Glad Girls" of Centre Hall, was received last week and erected, and the kiddies are happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Grove and little daughter, of Pittsburgh, were at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Grove, in town, over Sunday.

Miss Vesta Bläuser, daughter of John Bläuser, of Potters Mills, is teaching the Mitchell school, above Reedsville, where she taught last year to the satisfaction of the board, pupils and patrons.

Notes from the Williamsport hospital indicate that Robert Burns, of Muncy, the Lycoming county detective and husband of Miss Nina Snyder, formerly of town, has been admitted to the institution.

I have arranged to operate the cider press at Centre Hall Station, and will begin to make cider Thursday, September 27, and continue Tuesday and Thursday of each week during the season.—Chester A. Spiker.

The cow sale held Monday evening under electric lights at the Mitterling barn, in Centre Hall, by Mr. Witmer, was largely attended. The cows were all sold and at prices apparently satisfactory to the owner. The high cow was bid up close to $200.

If you have a town or country home or farm to sell, advertise it in the Reporter. Sometimes the least suspecting person is a customer, and again, when you advertise a prospective buyer feels you want to sell at market price and not on the "pay my price" basis.

Miss Miriam Moore, who is teaching at Lewisberry, spent the week-end with her parents here. John Serff, of East Berlin, was also a guest at the Moore home. Mr. Serff is a graduate of State Teachers College, Shippensburg, and an instructor in English at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Miller, of DuBois, accompanied James Frohm here from the Clearfield county fair. Mr. Miller and family left here twenty-seven years ago and since the head of the family has been conducting a barber shop in the Clearfield county town like when a resident here.

Miss Elizabeth S. Hoy, of Philadelphia, daughter of Mrs. J. Emory Hoy, also of Philadelphia, who will be better known as the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William B. Mingle, has just returned from an extensive trip through Italy, Switzerland, France and England, during the summer months.

Two children have been injured while playing at school in Mifflinburg. Helen, eleven-year-old daughter of Roy Arbogast, broke her left arm above the wrist while crossing the traveling rings. Arthur Harter, eight years old, son of William Harter, broke both bones in the right arm when he fell from a sliding board.

Mrs. Mary E. Crawford, of Perdue, Mercer county, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Olenick, and on Monday went to Altoona, where she will be with Robert Meyer, a nephew, for a short time before returning to her home. Mrs. Crawford attended the funeral of her brother, Rev. Fetterolf, at Selinsgrove, and since has been among relatives hereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Ulrich, of Altoona, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hettinger, in town. Mr. Ulrich returned home Monday to resume work in the P. R. R. shops, while Mrs. Ulrich lingered a few days longer. The couple are members of the Reformed church, of which Rev. J. M. Runkle is the pastor, and state the minister has resumed his place in the pulpit, having recovered from injuries received in an automobile accident some time ago.

Wawne Snyder, of Lewistown, was laid to rest on Sunday afternoon. The services were attended by A. P. Krapp and Edward Ritter, both of whom were long employed by him as operators of one of several well drilling outfits. Mr. Snyder occupied various positions of trust in his home district and was a member of several secret orders. Besides those named above the funeral was also attended by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Reish, Mrs. Edward Ritter, John Ritter and Mrs. Howard Durrst.

Saturday afternoon a suitable marker will be erected to the memory of Captain John Brady, surveyor, Indian fighter and patriot. The marker is located on the banks of the Susquehanna River, opposite Lewisburg, immediately in front of the site of the home of Captain Brady, who was killed by the Indians April 11, 1779, on Wolf Run near the site of the marker, while home on sick leave. The marker is the result of the combined efforts of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, Henry W. Shoemaker, chairman, and the Northumberland County Historical Society.

FARM AND LABOR LEADERS LOYAL TO GOVERNOR SMITH; G. O. P. MEN ACCLAIM HIM

William Green, President of American Federation of Labor, Lauds Governor's Record.

UNANIMOUSLY ENDORSED BY STATE FEDERATION

50,000 People in Demonstration at State Fair; Democratic Candidate Acclaimed by Republican Farm Leaders.

Twice in his own State last week, and among two distinct classes—the farmer and the labor man—Governor Alfred E. Smith's popularity was so spontaneously and so enthusiastically attested, that any lingering doubt of his tremendous strength among those privileged to know him must certainly have been dispelled.

Governor's Day at the State Fair at Syracuse, attracted more than 50,000 people from the rural districts, and proved to be one of the most impressive demonstrations ever accorded a presidential candidate. Again and again throughout the day the fair grounds resounded with tumultuous cheers for the guest of honor. Republican and Democrat joined in acclaiming the man who as Governor had won the ardent friendship of the farmers of his State.

Labor Demonstration
At a meeting of the State Federation of Labor, in Rochester, the Governor's name, uttered by William Green, President of the American Federation of Labor, brought an ovation almost unprecedented in a labor gathering.

Congratulating the State Federation upon having obtained "the best body of labor laws of almost any State in the Union," Mr. Green said he realized the State had been fortunate in having Mr. Smith as its Governor.

Instantly the 472 delegates and almost as many visitors were on their feet cheering wildly. For a long time, while the speaker waited, the demonstration continued. Then Mr. Green said:

"You have been fortunate indeed, in having as Governor one who was in full sympathy with your social justice program and who assisted in securing this legislation.

Great Outstanding Figure
"I am glad that a study of the record shows that the working men and women in this State showed their appreciation by voting for him almost unanimously in every election in which he figured.

"This great outstanding figure has now been called to a larger field. I am convinced that Governor Smith's speech of acceptance and his reference to the abuse of injunctions has made a deep impression on every industrial State.

"It is the purpose of the American Federation of Labor to acquaint its members with the speeches of acceptance of both candidates and their records in matters affecting labor, and then leave the subject to the political conscience of the working men and women of America.

"And I am satisfied that when they go to the polls, they will stand by those who stood by them in their hours of need."

Endorses Governor Smith
A resolution endorsing Governor Smith and calling upon labor everywhere to support him, was unanimously passed by the Committee on Resolutions of the State Federation.

Another demonstration occurred at Syracuse, when Governor Smith addressed an almost solidly Republican audience of 250 farm leaders, at a dinner given in his honor by Jerome D. Barnum, publisher of a Republican newspaper, the Syracuse Post Standard.

Republican Editor Assails G. O. P. In Reply to Letter Asking Support

WASHINGTON.—The attitude of the intelligent Western farmer who has studied the causes of his present predicament, and who realizes what a continuance of the Coolidge policies would mean to him, is strikingly set forth in a letter received by Herbert N. Strause, of the Republican Business Men, Inc., from Willis A. Wells, Republican editor of the Webster (S. Dak.) Journal.

The South Dakota editor had been asked by Mr. Strause to support Herbert Hoover and to send a reply which could be published. Here is the reply:

"You request that I join the Republican Business Men, Inc., of your city, in promoting the election of Mr. Hoover upon the sole ground that he will carry out the Coolidge policies. Your plea leaves me as cold as the ice fields of a polar sea.

"As a Republican I enthusiastically decline to do any such fool thing. I am for Hoover just about as far as you can throw our party elephant by the pin feathers with your arm broken in four places.

"Out in the West, where men are mortgaged up to the eyebrows and

GEORGE WASHINGTON ON RELIGIOUS TOLERANCE

As a reply to the bigoted propaganda, attacking Governor Smith on religious grounds, which is being distributed through the South by various intolerant organizations, the Democratic National Committee has issued photostatic copies of a letter written by George Washington to the members of the New Church, a Baptist congregation, in Baltimore.

In it, the "Father of the American Republic" said:

"We have abundant reason to rejoice that in this land the light of truth and reason has triumphed over the power of bigotry and superstition, and that every person may here worship God according to the dictates of his own heart.

"In this enlightened age and in this land of equal liberty it is our boast that a man's religious tenets will not forfeit the protection of the laws, nor deprive him of the right of attaining and holding the highest offices that are known in the United States."

VETERANS FOR SMITH

Say Hoover Ignored Disabled Soldiers; Attack Red-Tape and Bureaucracy; Cite Governor's Record.

Endorsing Governor Alfred E. Smith as a tried and true friend of the ex-service man, a group of former soldiers of national reputation, led by General Henry T. Allen, former Commander of the Army of Occupation, has formed the National Democratic Veterans Organization, to direct a campaign on behalf of the Democratic candidate among the veterans of the country.

Among those who attended the first meeting of the organization in New York were General Edward A. Logan of Boston, Commander of the New England Division in the world war; Major General John F. O'Ryan of New York, Commander of the 77th Division; Major Bernard Ryan of Albion, N. Y.; Commander E. C. Kay and former Commander William Jones of the Veterans of Foreign Wars; Major William F. Deegan, former Commander of the American Legion; Col. J. Monroe Johnson of Marion, S. C.; Col. John Noonan of Springfield, Mass., and James J. Hoy, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee.

Replying to the "specious arguments" of Republican speakers that Governor Smith had been unfriendly to war veterans in criticizing the alleged economy of the Republican administration, General Allen said:

"Governor Smith in his speech of acceptance, instead of finding fault with the appropriation for aid of disabled war veterans, approved them. What he did criticize is the intolerable 'red-tape, technicalities and bureaucracy' which has marked the administration of these funds under Republican rule.

"In his speech of acceptance, Mr. Hoover completely ignored the plight of the disabled war veterans throughout the nation.

"That Governor Smith's fullest sympathies are with the war veterans and that he believes they deserve the fullest measure of assistance from a grateful Republic, is shown by the fact that under his administration as Governor of New York State he signed legislation providing a liberal state bonus; special recognition under state civil service laws; providing an annual grant of $500 a year to blind veterans of any American war who are residents of New York State; and an appropriation of $10,000,000 for a state hospital for the sole care of New York's disabled veterans."
