

PINE GROVE MILLS.

John M. Moore, who took Greely's advice several years ago and landed in Los Angeles, Calif., where he enlisted in Uncle Sam's Navy, spent most of the term on the Pacific Ocean. He was discharged May 1st, 1928, spent most of the summer in Colorado and Nebraska, found work scarce and arrived home Monday evening. He much prefers civil life.

W. K. Goss and daughter Ruth of Tyrone, spent Monday with his mother, Susan Goss, on West Main street.

Mrs. Edith Sparr Neese, of Altoona, was a dinner guest Sunday at the Fry home at Fairbrook.

Dr. R. M. Krebs is convalescing nicely and able to be in his easy chair at times.

Mrs. Sara Everts spent Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Walker, who is quite ill at her home at Blanchard. Little hopes are entertained for her recovery by physician and relatives.

Mrs. Paul Roop, of Pitcairn, is visiting friends and relatives in town for a few days.

John C. Dunlap is visiting relatives at Cherry Tree for some time.

Mrs. J. B. Heberling of State College, of State College, was entertained at the H. N. Walker home last Friday. She is recovering from her recent illness very nicely.

Implement agent Charles S. Stover, of Millheim, spent last week placing farm tractors.

Mrs. L. E. Kidder spent last week visiting relatives at Huntingdon, the home of her youth.

Rumor has it that the Reed homestead farm east of town has been sold. It has been in David Reed's name for over 100 years.
