

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. M. M. Mamolen, of Millheim, is in New York City making extensive purchases for the D. J. Nieman store.

G. W. Ralston, west of Centre Hall, will sell some fine surplus stock at public sale, on Saturday, October 20th. See posters.

John Jimmey, tenant on the W. O. Heckman farm south of town, lifted a crop of over 1000 bushels of potatoes, all of good quality.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCool and Mrs. Ellen Heckman, of Spring Mills, were pleasant callers at the Reporter office Saturday evening.

John H. Jacobs, who had not been in town for many years, was a guest this week of Mrs. Lizzie Jacobs. He is a brother of the late Dr. W. A. Jacobs.

Mrs. Mary Brungart, of Zion, visited her grandson, C. N. Hockman, the W. H. Homan family and others hereabouts. She returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Vanness, of Towanda, visited their daughter, Mrs. W. F. MacMorran, here, over the weekend, and on their return home Mrs. MacMorran accompanied them.

An effort appears to have been made last week to force fifty cents as the market price for potatoes, but farmers rebelled. Not a shipment of spuds has been made from any point in the valley.

Do not forget, a collection will be taken in all the local churches on Sunday, October 14th, for the Florida-West Indies hurricane sufferers. Also, contributions may be given Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew at the Penns Valley Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sharer, of near town, and Mr. and Mrs. John Blausier, of Potters Mills, last week attended the York county fair and also visited the battle fields at Gettysburg. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan and family, of Linden Hall, also attended the York fair.

The Orangeville (Illinois) Courier says: Col. G. B. Goodhart, with his two white stallions in a Roman chariot in the Cheese Day parade at Monroe, brought forth much applause from the spectators. Bruce looked every inch a Roman driver of fiery steeds.

Floyd Snyder is regularly employed in the Homan and Mohr planing mill at State College. He states that Park Homan, the head of the firm, became ill on Saturday and was obliged to take his bed. He was a sufferer from heart trouble, and died Sunday afternoon.

William F. Floray was obliged to discontinue road work temporarily, last week, due to ill health brought about by kidney trouble. He has been employed on the State highway for sixteen years, and for some years was a care taker on the road between Centre Hall and Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery and son, Howard Emery, accompanied by Mrs. Edward Brown, of Potters Mills, motored to Shippensburg, on Sunday, where they visited Misses Algie Emery and Beatrice Brown, daughters of the families mentioned, who are students in the State Teachers College at that place.

Miss Elsie Geiss returned to her home in Philadelphia by bus from Lewistown on Monday afternoon, after having been among friends in Centre Hall and Bellefonte for two weeks. She was accompanied by Mrs. S. W. Smith, who will attend the State Sabbath School convention in session in Philadelphia at this time, and will remain in the city for a few days longer.

An ingrown toe nail resulted in the amputation of one of Jacob Marks' limbs above the knee. It was first thought that the cut would be made close to the ankle, but when about to operate the surgeons found it necessary to change their plans. The operation was performed at the Lock Haven hospital on Monday morning, and Tuesday his condition was said to be very favorable. Mr. Marks is 72 years old, long a resident of Bellefonte, and for many years a clerk in Lyon's store.

The senior class of the Gregg Township Vocational School attended the funeral, on Wednesday of last week at Williamsport, of Prof. Frank E. Bennett. The students took their freshman year under Mr. Bennett, who was then vocational director of the school. Other young people from Spring Mills former students under Mr. Bennett, who accompanied the senior class were Carl Meyer, '27; Miss Mary Corman, '25; Jean Lee, '24; also, Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Shook, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Decker.

Delegates to the State Sunday School convention in session in Philadelphia this week, from Centre county who are attending are as follows: Rev. C. C. Shuey, Rev. William Snyder, Mrs. Lawrence Croft, Bellefonte; Ernest Shreckengast, Millheim; Rev. Godshall, Snow Shoe; Charles Campbell, Fairbrook; Henry Zerby, Mrs. J. W. Decker, Mrs. John Meyer, Spring Mills; Mrs. John Corman, Zion; Mrs. Elizabeth Markle, State College; Mrs. S. W. Smith, Centre Hall; also at least two from Phillipsburg and two from Balleville, whose names are not known to the writer.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Frazier and their son, Earl Frazier, his wife and youngest child, last week returned from an almost four thousand-mile automobile tour through the middle west, the most distant point being northern Oklahoma. They made the trip without a mishap of any kind, not even having had a tire puncture or having out by a senseless policeman. In Kansas the fall seeding had not been done by the first of October owing to the dry weather. Farmers could realize but eighty-five cents for wheat. This is regarded less than cost of production, so all who were not financially pressed refused to sell. To the question, how "dry" is Kansas, the junior Mr. Frazier answered he did not know, but that he attended court there one day and saw lots of bottled evidence stacked up. The courts have much "wet" business in "dry" Kansas. Although he didn't say it, the young farmer led the writer to believe that while he very much enjoyed the trip, learned much of how others live and do, the four weeks away from the farm along Sinking Creek didn't breed discontent.

The Centre County Library Question.

Voters in Centre county will be requested to vote on the question of establishing a library under the provision of a new law. If you vote "yes," the county commissioners will have your sanction to lay a tax of one mill to operate the library. This one mill according to those who are enthusiastic on putting the library over, will mean the collecting of $17,300. You all know where the county tax comes from.

A particular thing you want to keep in mind is that if the $17,300 fails to pay the bills for the year, the county commissioners can collect another $17,300, or a total of $34,600, without asking you. There is no mistake about this.

Here is another point that ought to be impressed on the voter: It is just as necessary to mark an X opposite "No," provided you do not favor a library as it is to place an X opposite "Yes," provided you favor establishing a library. If you do not favor the library and vote your ballot blank on the question, you leave the decision entirely with those who vote "yes."

Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot recently purchased a four-passenger Nash Victoria coupe.

BOALSBURG ITEMS.

Rev. W. J. Wagner is attending the U. L. C. convention at Erie, and expects to be absent from home for ten days.

Mrs. Paul Stairs, of Greensburg, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. E. E. Stuart over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Johnson, of Crafton, were recent visitors at the home of Mrs. M. A. Woods. Mrs. Johnson spent a week with her mother, while Mr. Johnson was on a business trip to New York.

Miss Dorothy Ely returned to her home in Arrandtsville last Thursday, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. W. J. Wagner. After a visit with the Ely family Mrs. Wagner will go to Garrettsport to spend some time at the home of her son, Rev. J. H. Wagner.

Miss Mary Hazel recently underwent an operation for the removal of tonsils at the Dr. J. V. Foster private hospital at State College.

George Fisher, who suffered a stroke of paralysis last Monday evening, is confined to bed.

Dr. Joseph Fisher, of Sunbury, was among the visitors in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bender entertained a party of friends from near Wilkesbarre over the week end.

The instructors of the Harris township schools and the school directors were guests of Mr. Kapp of the First National Bank of State College at dinner Tuesday evening. The tavern not being open to the public the dinner was served at the E. W. Hess home.

The body of Peter Weber, of Huntingdon, accompanied by the family and friends, was brought to Boalsburg on Thursday afternoon for interment in the family plot. Mr. Weber spent his youth and early manhood in this vicinity and was well and favorably known. His wife, son and daughter, of Huntingdon; also one sister, Miss Annie, three brothers—Fred and Samuel E., of Boalsburg, and John, of Centre Hall, survive.

Grant Charles and family moved to State College last week and are occupying their new residence in Locust Lane.

The women's S. S. class of the Lutheran church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. W. White, at Linden Hall. The young ladies class will meet at the home of Mrs. Knarr on the Branch, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kuhn are making improvements in the interior of their home, the addition of a bathroom being one of the conveniences.

Miss Rosella Meyer spent Tuesday night with Miss Ann Williams at Oak Hall.

Mrs. E. R. Tussey, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Stairs, drove to Centre Hall Wednesday and spent the day among friends.

What Borah Told the Senate About Hoover

Panic stricken over the imminent loss of all the States which have had the opportunity to see and hear Governor Smith, the Republican National Committee has cancelled Senator Borah's scheduled Eastern speeches so that he can devote his whole time in a desperate effort to stem the Smith tide in the West.

Since the campaign speeches of this high-powered Republican speller

SENATOR PETER NORBECK, Republican, of South Dakota, said in the Senate on April 20, 1928:

"I have been here for seven years while Mr. Hoover has been Secretary of Commerce, and he is the one man who has never raised his voice against agricultural inequality. . . . He should never be elected President."

binder are purely "political," he, of course, will not divulge his own personal feelings and opinions. Those who hear him, however, might be interested in the Senator's real estimate of Herbert Hoover, as gleaned from his own utterances in the Senate.

In a scathing arraignment of the former Food Administrator after the war, Senator Borah said:

"Whatever may be the great ability of Mr. Hoover, there is one individual whom he does not know exists in this country, and that is the taxpayer. He seems to think that money comes like manna to the children of Israel from Heaven and not from the sweat and toil and sacrifice of the people."

Declaring that Hoover had permitted disgraceful profiteering by the meat packers, and charging him with

SENATOR GERALD P. NYE, Republican, of North Dakota, said on June 11, 1928:

"This man Hoover, whom some are trying to drive down our throats, believes that agriculture is improving; if agriculture is improving, it is dying from improvement."

CONGRESSMAN CHARLES B. BRAND, Republican of Ohio, asserted in the Senate on March 13, 1928:

"Mr. Hoover has been the supreme opponent of agricultural prosperity for the past ten years. . . . If Mr. Hoover is elected President of the United States . . . agriculture is doomed to eight more years of misery."

"No one with such a perverted sense of decency ought to be entrusted with unlimited power to spend
