DEATHS

WALKER—Mrs. Viola (White) Walker, widow of Benner Walker, died on Monday morning at the home of her son, Alfred Walker, at Boalsburg. On Wednesday previous she was brought from Akron, Ohio, where she visited her daughter, Mrs. Clair Grubb, by her son, Merrill Walker, of Farmers Mills. She had not been in good health for more than a year, but her condition had not been regarded serious.

Funeral services will be held at the home on Thursday forenoon, and burial made at Centre Hall, Rev. J. W. Wagner, her pastor, will have charge of the services. Mrs. Walker was well known about here, the family having lived on a farm west of town about fourteen years ago. The surviving children are Frank, of Millheim; Merrill, Farmers Mills; Alfred, Boalsburg; Mabel, Mrs. Clair Grubb, Akron, Ohio; and Kerney, State College. Two sisters and two brothers also survive the deceased, namely: Mrs. Annie Potter, Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Mary Walker, in California; Edward White, Jersey Shore, and William White, Clearfield.

STROHECKER—Daniel H. Strohecker, brother of Wm. H. Strohecker of Centre Hall, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ammon Burd, in Lock Haven, on Wednesday evening of last week, aged 81 years. He suffered a stroke of paralysis about a month ago.

Mr. Strohecker, a Civil War veteran, was born in Booneville, Clinton county, and lived all of his life in that section. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alma Sheets, of Swassville, near Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Burd, with whom he lived; two brothers, John, of Booneville, and William, named above; one sister, Mrs. Aaron Klockner.

Funeral services were held at the Burd home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 with Rev. G. R. Mezenthaler, pastor of the First Evangelical church, officiating. Interment was made in Highland cemetery.

STUART—William Alexander Stuart died at Fort Worth, Texas, following an illness of two years of complications. The body was brought to State College and buried from the home of his mother, Mrs. Ellen Stuart, in the Branch cemetery. His age was fifty-two years.

He was a son of the late John Stuart and was born in Boalsburg. After graduating from Penn State he played ball with various clubs and later joined the Athletic club football team.

After being in Pittsburgh for two years he went to Oklahoma and there became interested in oil. In September, 1908, he married Miss Marjorie Perkins, at Coffeetown, Kan., who survives with two sons, William Alexander Jr., aged 15, and John Perkins, 12. He also leaves his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Shattuck and Mrs. Margaret J. Gilliland, all of State College.

LIMBERT—Mrs. Rebecca Limbert, wife of J. A. Limbert, after an extended illness died at the family home at Colby, Ohio, aged 68 years, 6 months and 19 days.

The deceased was a daughter of Levi and Catharine Burd and was born in Haders township. The husband is a native of Miles township, and shortly after the couple were married, about thirty-five years ago, they moved to Ohio and lived near Colby and in the town ever since.

Besides the husband she is survived by two sons, George, of Colby, and William, of Bellevue, Ohio. A brother and sister also survive—David Burd, of near Aaronsburg, and Mrs. Emanuel Confer, of near Coburn.

LONG—At the advanced age of more than ninety years, Jacob Long, a former resident of Gregg township, passed away at Bellevue, Ohio, on Friday morning. The body was shipped to Bellefonte on Monday and conveyed from there by funeral director Frank W. Goodhart to the home of a daughter, Mrs. George W. Long, near Penns Cave, from where funeral services were held.

The deceased was a son of John and Elizabeth Long, and engaged in farming, living in Brush Valley nearly all of his life. Mrs. Long, whose maiden name was Miss Sophia Musser, died about three years ago, and after that the aged man made his home with Mrs. Harvey Royer, a daughter, at whose home he died. Beside Mrs. Royer the children surviving him are Mrs. George W. Long, Penns Cave; Clement Long, Clyde, Ohio; and John Long, Jersey Shore, this State. A brother, Samuel Long, of Fremont, Ohio, and eight grand- and eighteen great-grandchildren also survive him.

His exact age was 90 years, one month and 27 days.

Small Game Not Plentiful.

Hunters who scoured the woods the first three days of the season, report game not plentiful.

To date but one hunter in this section reported having killed a turkey. This was William Walker. His son, Fred Walker, of Bellefonte, got one of the same flock. Dr. J. C. Rogers, of Bellefonte, also brought down a nice turkey on the opening day.

Ray Mark, John Whiteman, J. L. Tressler and George Searson, each got their limit of six grey squirrels on the opening day. George Goodhart, Franklin Sharer and Gervin Shaeffer each shot ringneck pheasants.

Roy Dutrow bagged a raccoon on the opening day. A report comes from the south side that several turkeys were killed on Tussey Mountain, but no one seems able to name the fortunate hunters.

Celebrated 66th Birthday.

Wednesday evening of last week the sixty-sixth birthday anniversary of Mrs. Annie E. Homan was fittingly celebrated at her home in Centre Hall. All of her children and grandchildren joined in the occasion which was termed a most delightful one.

A dinner was served at eight o'clock. The table was beautifully decorated and a birthday cake with the representative number of candles was conspicuous. The mother was also presented with a number of pretty and useful gifts.

The guests were Miss Cora Homan, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Homan and children; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Crawford and children; Prof. and Mrs. Wm. H. Reisig and children; and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Homan and daughter.

Advertisement for SUNBEAM CABINET HEATER. Text: 'It heats like a furnace It's built like a furnace Yet requires no basement. It remained for the largest makers of heating equipment in the world to produce such a superior Cabinet Heater as the Sunbeam. In appearance a fine piece of furniture, in principle and operation a furnace, the Sunbeam Cabinet Heater heats the 5 to 7 room home, yet requires no basement. It can be completely installed in less than an hour. Replaces two or more stoves. The Sunbeam has a heating unit of the furnace type, built entirely of heavy-weight, cast iron. The fire pot alone weighs 84 pounds. It will last a lifetime and will retain its heating efficiency and handsome appearance, indefinitely. This year, Sunbeam Quality talks Price. You can now obtain this superior heating device at no greater cost than that of an inferior heater. Increased demand and volume production make this possible. Call and get the whole Sunbeam story today.' Includes an illustration of the heater.
