

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Grover Weaver is visiting among relatives in Altoona.

Every possible effort is being made to complete the 5.4 miles of new railroad being built between State College and Fairbrook. With this end in view work is being done at night under batteries of flood lights.

The first car load of hay shipped from here in a long while was sent out beginning of this week by the McClenahan grain house, and was purchased in small lots from several farmers. Between $11.00 and $12.00 per ton was paid.

The members of Progress Grange celebrated Halloween in a fitting manner Wednesday evening in Grange Arcadia. In addition to the Grange members the families of Grangers were also invited and many accepted the invitation.

Among the Reporter's callers on Monday was John E. Bubb, of Colyer, who was delivering handsomely for Mary E. Bubb. Mr. Bubb could furnish no news from his section except that his brother, W. E. Bubb, had the good luck to kill a ten-pound wild turkey hen on Thickhead Mountain.

Nathan Haugh, of Miles township, who was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and $15.00 costs for having killed five deer found destroying crops on his premises and failing to report to a game warden, took out an appeal at the expiration of the time given him by Justice Woodring to pay the fine.

Three bags of acorns from white oak trees were shipped from the Centre Hall station to Thomas J. Lane, Dresher, Montgomery county, a seedman. The acorns were gathered and shipped by Harry G. Eby, Pleasant Gap. It is possibly the only shipment of acorns ever sent out of Centre county.

William Flomy, whose illness was noted a few weeks ago, is not improving. He is a victim of a most peculiar disease which is baffling the medical profession. He is not suffering pain of any consequence. To the unskilled it appears the muscles on both sides of the neck have enlarged and have hardened much like bone.

The Ladies' Temple, K. G. E., at Spring Mills, celebrated the Halloween season in their hall on Wednesday evening, and bringing into action the usual generous methods of doing things invited the ladies of the Centre Hall lodge to be their guests. The invitation was accepted by a number of them and not at all to their regret.

Improvements are being made in Grange Arcadia having in view to better the dining facilities. The ground floor is being concreted and remodeled so it will be suitable to be used as a kitchen and storing place for eatables. Heretofore a small side room was used for this purpose, and on account of its size greatly hampered the preparation and serving of banquets and other gatherings where dinners or lunches were prepared. A. H. Spayd has the improvements in hand.

Messrs. R. M. Smith, Daniel Daup, Sr., E. M. Smith, Bruce W. Ripka and Wm. D. Shoop, early Sunday morning started to Indianapolis, Indiana, to which point they were taken in the former's Nash car. The latter three went on to Des Moines, Iowa, where they will undergo slight surgical operations for hernia. Mr. Smith and Mr. Daup will remain in Indianapolis, guests of Dr. and Mrs. Calvin F. Smith, formerly of Potter township, who have been in Indianapolis for a number of years and prospered.

The small barn on the property owned and occupied by Jerre Smith, west of town, was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday morning of last week. Mrs. Smith had occasion to go near the barn and saw smoke, but she was under the impression it was from a fire she supposed to be beyond the barn, but her surmise proved an error, for investigation proved the barn to be on fire. An unusually large and fat hog was the only animal in the barn and this was gotten to a place of safety, as were also some smaller hogs in a pen nearby. Mr. Smith had taken the horse from the barn some time before to go to a neighbor's to husk corn.

Witmer E. Lee, of Potters Mills, who returned with his party from Buck-roe Beach, Virginia, the latter part of last week, is well pleased with the performance of his Chevrolet sedan which made the run of 1180 miles on 55 gallons of gas and 3 quarts of oil, for an average of 21 5-11 miles on a gallon of gas. Not as much as a tire puncture marred the trip, which was to the home of his sister, Mrs. George E. Breon. Mr. Lee brought home with him a curiosity in these parts—a ripe fig plucked from a fig tree in Mrs. Breon's front yard. The fig tree is peculiar in that it shoots no blossoms as is customary with other fruit trees.

Benjamin F. Frankenberg, proprietor of the restaurant close to the Meyer Brothers' garage, Spring Mills, was tricken with paralysis on Sunday morning while in the restaurant. He had not been feeling well for a day or two previous to the attack and gave expression to fears that his sickness then might be the forerunner of something more serious. Mr. Frankenberg's condition on Tuesday evening was not regarded as at all favorable. His one side is paralyzed and the eyes and mouth are also affected; he is totally helpless. He is being cared for at his home at Spring Mills by Mrs. Frankenberg.

The members of the Sunday school class to which she belongs was entertained on Wednesday evening of last week by Mrs. J. Elmer Royer, at her home in town. Most of the large number in attendance were costumed to represent notable characters, some of them particularly representing characters popular at this—Halloween—season. The home was tastily decorated and the refreshments served in a manner to bring out the spirit of the occasion. Mrs. Royer's three daughters, Mrs. Chester W. Grove, Mrs. C. Robert Neff and Miss Elizabeth Royer, displayed rare skill and originality in the decoration of the home and in the preparation of Halloween novelties.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. T. L. Smith is visiting her sister, Mrs. Stofflet, in Philadelphia, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter R. Hosterman entertained a number of their friends at a Halloween party at their farm home near Potters Mills, on Tuesday night.

Miss Helen Shultz, daughter of Rev. W. K. Shultz, formerly of this place and now of Minersville, was honored at Temple University where she is a student, by being named chairman of the music committee of the Dormitory dance. She is also Junior class representative on the Dormitory Student Board.

Rev. C. E. Hazen and Mrs. Hazen and little daughter, came back to the minister's old field of labor on Tuesday and were guests of the Bartholomew family. Rev. Hazen is much pleased with his new field of labor in Lock Haven. His congregation is now formulating plans for the erection of a substantial addition to its plant to be used for Sunday school purposes, and expects him to take an active hand in execution of them, which he will do.

What Gov. Smith Has Done for the Public Schools

No other Governor in the history of the United States has done as much for the public schools as was accomplished by Governor Alfred E. Smith during the eight years of his administration in New York State.

In 1918 the State spent $9,000,000 on public education. Governor Smith, insisting on more adequate schooling facilities, succeeded in increasing the amount to $35,000,000 in 1921.

In 1922 he won for the public schools an appropriation of $86,000,000. In 1918 the State owned 50 playgrounds. In 1927 there were 400. In 1920 110 new public schools were built. The State built 208 new public schools in 1927.

Under Governor Smith the number of classes for mentally handicapped children increased from 97 in 1920 to 731 in 1927. The enrollment in continuation schools increased from 30,236 to 158,603; the enrollment in State normal schools from 1,990 to 7,783.

Governor Smith has fought consistently for the physical welfare of public school children. To the personnel of the public schools last year, 354 nurses were added, 32 school dentists were added, and there was an addition of 874 physical training teachers.

Centre County with only one member needs a man of wide experience in legislation. Our State and semi-State institutions, many miles of dirt roads, agricultural and other interests need constant attention. If elected I will do all in my power for Centre county.
