Pioneer Now Eligible for 400 Bu. Club.

When Louis K. Peters, of Lehigh county, grew 510 bushels of potatoes on a measured acre in 1921, there was no 400 Bushel Club to honor him for his achievement. In 1922, the club was organized through the efforts of Dr. E. L. Nixon, then extension potato disease specialist of the Penna. State College, and now Peters has become eligible by growing 414 bushels this year. He will receive a gold medal, properly engraved, from the State Potato Growers' Association when that organization meets to honor the outstanding producer of the State at the Farm Products Show in Harrisburg in January.
