About the only treaty the U. S. Senate will o. k. is one that permits the U. S. A. to do just as she goddam pleases. The Kellogg-Briand treaty comes so near to giving all of the signatories that privilege that Moses and Reed may yield.

Same good quality considered, Yeager's Tiny Boot Shop at Bellefonte is in position to sell rubbers at prices less than the largest of mail order houses.

DEATHS

MOORE—Mrs. John D. Moore died from the shock following a fall at her home here which resulted in a broken hip bone. She was taken to the Centre County Hospital where she died at 9:00 o'clock on Tuesday evening. The body was brought to Centre Hall by Undertaker F. V. Goodhart and prepared for burial. All funeral services will be held at the Methodist church, Friday, 2:30 P. M., and interment made here. Rev. Harry E. Newman, pastor of the Methodist church, of which denomination the deceased was long a consistent member, will officiate.

Mrs. Moore was aged 78 years 7 months and 5 days. She was a daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Toner and was born at Potters Mills. She and her husband, who survives her, lived all of their married life in Potter township and Centre Hall, moving here about seven years ago upon retiring from the farm.

One son, Thomas L. Moore, of Centre Hall, also survives the deceased.

NEVIL—After prolonged illness, Charles Nevil died at his home on the Roland Treaster farm along Sinking Creek, near Centre Hill. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon, and burial made at Milroy.

The deceased was a son of Emanuel Nevil deceased. His age was 36 years, 3 months and 14 days. A wife whose maiden name was Ida Worrel, a daughter of the late James Worrel, survives him, but no children. CHEVROLET SHOW AT PITTSBURGH

The New Six Cylinder Car Center of Attraction—W. A. Homan of the Homan Motor Co., and Guests Attended.

W. A. Homan of the Homan Motor Co., accompanied by Mrs. Homan, Archie Moyer, and Mrs. W. H. Reish, the latter of State College, have just returned from Pittsburgh, where they attended the advance showing of the new Chevrolet's six-cylinder car and were enthusiastic in their praise of Chevrolet's new product and of the public reception showered upon it at the Pittsburgh showing.

"Thousands attended the show daily and I had the opportunity of noting the most genuine demonstration of crowd enthusiasm it has ever been my privilege to witness," Mr. Homan said. "If the public's preference for the new Chevrolet is to be indexed by what I feel saw from the Pittsburgh crowds, I feel certain that 'The outstanding Chevrolet of Chevrolet history' is destined to go down in automotive history as one of the most sensational of all sales successes."

"The powerful engine with its 32 per cent increased horsepower, the product of four years intensive development by General Motors was one of the most popular exhibits at the showing. Crowds milled about the engine all day long, and were especially interested in learning that although it develops more horsepower than its four cylinder predecessor, it can be operated with a fuel economy averaging better than 20 miles to the gallon."

Mr. Homan said he will have the new models on display in his show rooms January 1st, when deliveries are scheduled to begin. Fifteen huge Chevrolet factories throughout the

ADDITIONAL COURT NEWS.

(Reported by S. D. Gettig, Esq.)

On Thursday morning after the rendition of a verdict of not guilty as to Alfred Mulholland, Elmer Hendershot and Arisman who had plead guilty of the breaking and entering of the Gill store, were called before the Court and each of them sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and sixty days in the county jail.

Comm. vs. Max Russell, indicted for possession of liquor. Verdict of guilty and sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution a fine of $25 and undergo imprisonment in the county jail for a period of two months to be computed from the time he was first lodged in jail.

Comm. vs. Carl Markie, charged with operating a motor vehicle without a license. The defendant was sentenced to pay the costs and fine of $200.

Comm. vs. John P. Marks, charged with passing another vehicle going in the same direction near the crest of the hill and crossing the white line. This happened on the road to Lewistown on the Seven Mts., and after hearing the case was continued.

Court adjourned Thursday noon.

Court convened Monday morning to try civil cases.

The Bituminous National Bank of Windburne vs. Jacob Smutzinger, R. P. Somerville and Charles E. Greist, guardians of Jacob Smutzinger, being an action on a mortgage given by the defendant to the plaintiff to secure sundry notes and endorsements. There was no contest in this case and a verdict was rendered as directed by the Court in favor of the plaintiff for $24,442.25 and an attorney's commission of $1123.50.

George Seanson vs. Boalsburg Estate and P. C. Shoemaker, being an action in assumpsit. This case went on trial and owing to the condition of the pleadings and testimony that could be offered by the plaintiff, the plaintiff suffered a voluntary non suit.

J. E. Weaver vs. B. C. Detetzer, being an action in trespass. This case was continued on account of the illness of a material witness for the plaintiff and a doctor's certificate.

A number of other cases were continued.

Court adjourned on Monday afternoon owing to cases being continued on account of sickness, etc. until Wednesday morning.

A FIELD CHRISTMAS POEM.

"Most all the time,
the hull year round,
There ain't no flies on me,
except jest 'fore Christmas,
When I'm as good as I kin be.
For Christmas, with its lots
of candles, cakes and toys,
Wuz made, they say, fr proper kids,
and not fr naughty girls and boys.
So wash yer face and brush yer hair,
an' mind yer p's and q's,
Say yessum to the ladies, and
yessir to the men.
An' when they's company don't pass yer plate for pie again.
But, thinkin' uv the things you'd like
to see upon that tree,
Jes' 'fore Christmas, be as good as ye kin be."
