

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

No marriage licenses were issued in Centre county during the past week.

Wednesday morning broke with a temperature of 28 degrees above zero, and little air movement.

Tuesday morning the local weather bureau thermometer registered three degrees above zero at 8:00 o'clock.

Irvin Burris is operating a Tydol gas station in Yeagertown, located on the east side of the main thoroughfare.

A message was received a few days ago by Miss Grace Smith, of Centre Hall, that Clyde Smith would arrive in New York City on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. H. Weber, of town, on Sunday was with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Sellers, at State College, who had been rather seriously ill.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Godshall at which time a tureen social will be held.

Mr. and Mrs. Byro Garis recently visited their son, Reuben Garis, and family, at Finleyville, in the Pittsburgh district, and report them getting along fine.

John Blauser states two herds of deer each numbering six or seven, are frequently seen along the mountains and on his farm located near Potters Mills.

Funeral Director F. V. Goodhart was one of the busiest men in this section during the past week. He had six or eight bodies to care for, obliging him to go into three counties outside of Centre.

Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Auman take this method of returning thanks to neighbors and friends who rendered services during the last illness and subsequent death of Mrs. Auman's brother, Elery Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ely, of Allentown, were guests of Miss Mildred Wieland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Wieland, at Linden Hall. They are college chums of Miss Wieland. Mr. Ely is an electrical engineer.

Mrs. Musser E. Coldron was taken to the Gelsinger Memorial Hospital, Danville, beginning of the week by her family physician, Dr. Hugh Morrow. Wednesday morning was the time set for an operation for appendicitis.

A new advertiser this week is W. H. (Bill) Seckinger, plumbing, heating, gas fitting, and general repairing, prepared to work at State College and Centre Hall. He is a man with large experience and aims at giving prompt service.

The forty-acre farm of the late D. J. Vonada, in the Penns Cave district, offered for sale last week, went by without even a single bid. The property has good buildings on it, and at one time would have been regarded easily put on the market.

Joseph Hartley, a trackman under foreman Levi Hartley on the L. & T., was laid off for ninety days, to reduce operating expenses. Mr. Hartley will be employed until next spring by his father-in-law, John Snaveley, farmer and dairyman, east of town.

Prof. J. P. Wetzel, principal of the local High school, was ill for several days last week, and on Wednesday his classes were handled by Miss Agnes Geary, of town, a senior at Penn State, who was home on her vacation, and for the remainder of the week Rev. D. R. Keener had charge.

W. D. Shoop, who has been with his sister, Mrs. Ralph J. Wright, in Crown Point, Indiana, last week went on to Des Moines, Iowa, where he underwent a second bloodless operation for hernia. A message to friends here indicates that he is getting along very well, and by this time is probably back to the Indiana town again.

Marcellus A. Sankey, who upon leaving Potters Mills several years ago, engaged in farming near Middleburg, and then because of illness quitting the farm and removing to Millheim, where the family has resided for the past year or more, recently purchased a 400-acre farm seven miles from Holdaysburg, Blair county, and has moved onto it. On Monday Mrs. Sankey and son were in Centre Hall for a brief time.

R. S. Hagan, proprietor of the Hagan Garage here, went to Detroit the latter part of last week and Monday evening returned with a new Dodge-5, one of the latest Dodge type of cars—a car that "speaks" appealing to you when looked over. The car performed splendidly coming east. On the last page of this issue will be found a large ad containing an announcement by Walter P. Chrysler on the new Dodge cars. Be sure to read it.
