

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. John H. Puff has been ill and confined to bed for two weeks or more from rheumatism.

Among the few colonies of Martins which come to this section regularly every spring, is one to visit Millheim. The birds arrived in group ten days ago.

Mrs. W. M. Grove, of Berwick, last week visited her sister, Mrs. Belle Whiteman, and son, Ray Decker, here. She reports Ma Grove in very good physical condition.

Miss Rebecca Barrick, a school girl in Centre Hall some years ago, continues on the Huntingdon High school faculty. Her mother, Mrs. Lydia Barrick, lives in Lewistown.

Mrs. W. H. Homan is recovering gradually from the effects of a rather severe paralytic stroke, and is now able to walk through her room with but slight aid on the part of others.

The fact that the Chevrolet Motor Company during 1928 paid freight charges to railroad companies amounting to $45,000,000, gives some idea of the immensity of the material handled by such manufacturers.

W. F. Keller, carrier on rural mail route No. 1 from this place, on Sunday went to Pleasant Unity and on his return brought with him his sister-in-law, Mrs. Grace Deltzel, who will make her home for the present.

The new station master at Coburn is D. E. Goodland, who came there from Lock Haven, where for nine years he was passenger and baggage agent. He succeeds C. L. Eyster, who retired to go into business in Coburn.

Stanley Brooks, his mother, Mrs. J. C. Brooks, and grandmother, Mrs. Mary Breen, of near town, attended the funeral of John W. Benner, in Bellefonte, on Sunday. The deceased's widow is a daughter of the latter.

Twelve letters, each 18 feet high and spelling the name State College, now adorn the roof of the Recreation Hall at the College to form an airway signpost 176 feet long that is easily discernible by passing aviators in the daytime.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Colyer and daughter, Miss Evelyn, and son, Russell, on Sunday attended the funeral of the former's aunt, Mrs. Charles A. Buttorf. She was a sister of Mr. Buttorf's mother. An account of the death appears elsewhere in this issue.

Prof. W. H. Haney on Friday made a business trip to Towanda, Bradford county, and on his return on Saturday stopped with his father, Rev. E. E. Haney. Prof. Haney is teacher of the 7th and 8th grades in the public schools here.

Petteroff's Garage, local agency for Durant automobiles, sold a new six-cylinder Durant "60" sedan to Al Mark at Penns Cave, and a coach to Rocco Fleming, at Lewistown, during the past week. The new Durant-60 looks and acts like a high-class automobile.

The real estate of Tobias Kilnefelter, late of Miles township, deceased, was sold by Trustee John E. Ertel, of Rebersburg. The home and mill in Madisonburg were bought by Miles Fachau for $355.00, and the timberland was bid in at $52.00 by Irvin Grenoble.

The 28th annual convention of the Woman's Missionary society of West Susquehanna Classis of the Eastern Synod of the Reformed church was held in St. Paul's Reformed church, Selinsgrove, Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Frank M. Fisher, of Centre Hall, is president of the society.

John H. Blauser is continuing to ship potatoes from Centre, Mifflin and Clinton counties, Wednesday of last week three cars were loaded at Mill Hall and one at Belleville. Mr. Blauser's Baltimore firm is the only one to find a market for tubers in this section. The price continues to be thirty cents.

Guy W. Jacobs motored in from Steubenville, Ohio, last Wednesday night to be on hand for the funeral of his uncle, John H. Jacobs, at Boalsburg, Thursday. Mr. Jacobs made the trip—205 miles—in the short space of six hours, despite the fact that he encountered dense fog in the mountainous sections, necessitating slow traveling.

A delightful evening was enjoyed by a party of Centre Hall people at Ye Olde Tavern, Hubersburg, Wednesday night of last week. The group have been holding weekly "500" card parties, and for this out-of-town gathering Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot and Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Pitteroff played the part of host and hostesses. A chicken supper was served. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. MacMorran, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Booser, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Mitterling, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Knarr, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brunsart, Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Pitteroff, Mrs. F. O. Bairfoot, Mrs. Cora Pepon, Harry L. Pepon, Mrs. J. M. Coldron, Miss Margaret Jacobs, Miss Carrill Emerick, Miss Margaret Wedler, Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, C. D. Bartholomew, Edward Durst, Harvey Flink.

STAR HORSE AND COW SALE HELD BY JODON

The sale of horses, mules and cows at the Jodon sales stables on Tuesday was the star sale of the season.

Thirteen cows sold at an average of $174.00; the high cow passing for $232.50.

Twenty head of horses and mules sold at an average of $216. The high team brought $540.00, and the high single horse, $286.00.

Weather conditions were unusually bad, but the buyers stood by and bid eagerly. The attendance was large and the demand great enough to induce Mr. Jodon to hold another sale in the near future.

E. M. Smith and C. D. Bartholomew acted in the capacity of auctioneer and clerk, respectively.

4-CENT GAS TAX BILL PASSED ON TUESDAY

Governor Fisher's pet 4-cent gas tax bill passed on Tuesday, in the Senate, the House having previously passed the measure. The tax bill will become effective July 1st.

It does not matter what you think of the extra cent tacked on the tax, on Tuesday, you must dig down and pay it. The men you elected to the House and Senate voted for the tax bill. When you are asked by them to vote for them again, you will be so thoroughly convinced that you like to pay four cents tax on every gallon of gas you buy that you will like it and vote for them again. And maybe you will get some more of the same medicine.

CENTRE HALL YOUTH DIES IN SHANGHAI

Corporal Frank Reareck, of the Fourth Regiment U. S. Marines, stationed at Shanghai, China, died of spinal meningitis on Monday after an illness of 24 hours.

The young man is a son of Leroy G. Reareck, of Lock Haven, and when a boy lived in Centre Hall with his parents.

His death caused authorities to clamp down strict preventive measures. Health authorities consider the spinal meningitis epidemic slowly increasing. The nationalistic government has announced the disease has broken out at Nanking and the ministry of health is holding conferences to consider prevention.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

The "Boys Band" Beavertown, will broadcast on station WHP (formerly W. M. B. S.) Harrisburg, on Sunday at 2:30 P. M. The program consists of seven numbers.

The Colyers came in on Monday with a string of seventeen nice trout taken from Spring creek. The elder Colyer captured ten, Eugene five and Russell 2.

Mrs. Bell, county president of the W. C. T. U., came from State College on Saturday evening to attend in an official capacity a meeting of the local union at the home of Miss Grace

Smith. Sheriff Dunlap's election proclamation for holding the May term of court appears in this issue. The grand jurors convene on the 13th day of the month; first week of court starts May 20th and second week on May 27th.

F. P. Geary was one of the more successful fishermen on the first day of the trout season. From sun-up until 7:30 A. M., he caught 17 fair size trout, all but one of which he took from one pool.

The mothers of students of the Shippensburg State Teachers' College have been invited to become guests of the institution from Friday until Monday. Mothers from here who have planned to accept the invitation are Mrs. D. M. Bradford and Mrs. C. F. Emery.

Thomas S. Foss and companion, a Mr. Emerick, of Bellwood, came here on Sunday, and Monday fished for trout with considerable success. Albert Emery, O. F. Funk and Harry Gross, local fishermen, came in on the first day with trout in numbers and size to attract attention over the contents of other fishermen's baskets.

Crowds stormed the doors of the Richelieu theatre in Bellefonte, on Monday night for the first showing of Al Johnson in "The Singing Fool." The theatre was taxed to its full capacity of 1200 for the first show, and nearly filled the second time. The "talkie" picture measured up to advance reports. Johnson doubtless has few superiors as an emotional actor.

D. W. Bradford, the local International implement dealer, became ill on Thursday and by Sunday his condition was regarded rather serious. Since Sunday he has been improving gradually and now every hope is entertained for a full and speedy recovery. He suffered from a heart affection together with complications. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bradford, the former a brother, are caring for him.

Personal from the Lewistown Sentinel: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holderman, their granddaughter, Melissa, and Miss Swartz, of Tusseyville, motored here Sunday to call on Mrs. Holderman's brother and sister, Thomas G. Beaver, and family, 220 North Grand street, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Whisler.

106 West Water street. The Holdermans and Whislers motored to Sandmine, where they took dinner with another brother, Wm. P. Beaver, and Mrs. Beaver and son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. Russell Pennbaker, and daughter Peggy.
